PRIME MINISTERS FROM DOMINIONS GIVE STATEMENTS

Two Sessions of Conference Are Largely Devoted to Their Addresses—References to Controversial Subjects Are General, Leaving Details for Consideration in Future.

PREMIER MEIGHEN SPEAKS ABOUT REPRESENTATION AT WASHINGTON

LONDON, June 21.—Today's sessions of the conference of Prime Ministers were chiefly taken up by statements by representatives of various Dominions. The speeches were of a preliminary and general character, and were guarded in their references to matters over which there is likely to be controversy, the speakers preferring to reserve more specific observations and statements of policy until the subjects on the agenda come up for consideration.

That the conference is not likely to lapse into an academic debate, with the social side predominating, is evidenced by the fact that two sittings were held today, the afternoon session lasting well on to 6 o'clock. The most important event of the latter sitting was a statement by Premier Meighen on Canada's decision to have a Canadian ambassador in Washington.

While the official report of his speech this afternoon is not available, it is understood that Premier Meighen's remarks followed the general lines of his speech on this subject in the Canadian House of Commons last session.

He told the conference that this action by the Dominion of Canada is first of all based upon the need for a purely Canadian representative at the American capital with a more intimate understanding of Canadian conditions and problems, and with a greater capacity for transacting business rapidly than in the case at present, this having become essential owing to the ever-increasing business relations between the two countries. Moreover, hebelieved that, in addition to the advantages to be obtained in a business way, the presence of the Canadian representative at Washington would be a step toward fulfilling Canada's mission of acting as the bridge which should lead to a greater friendship and better understanding between the two great branches of the Anglo-Saxon people.

Premier Meighen's statement, the Canadian Press is informed, was heard by the delegates with interest and satisfaction.

Fear of Possibilities

There is no disguising the fact that, notwithstanding statements by Mr. Lloyd George and others, the idea of a Canadian minister to the United States has had a somewhat disquieting effect in official circles here. It was not that objection was taken so far as Canada is concerned, or that it was feared that it was a step in the direction of empire disintegration. What troubled British statesmen was that the example of Canada might well be followed by South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, and that the presence of so many Britishers in a single capital might lead to differences of opinion and be productive of disturbing consequences, and would also have the effect of destroying the appearance of the diplomatic unity of the Empire in the eyes of the world.

Therefore, the important and full statement of the Canadian case placed before the conference and the British people by Premier Meighen will go a long way toward clearing up misunderstandings.

Conference Gets Attention

Despite the fact that it is being held in a hectic political atmosphere, and at a time when Ireland, the miners' strike and the world situation generally are providing for the British Government one of the most difficult periods it has experienced since the war, the conference holds the centre of the stage here.

The press is devoting columns to its deliberations and its possibilities, and while probably too high hopes are based on its capacity to settle great and complex problems, a favorable atmosphere is being created for progress towards sensible conclusions respecting the most important subjects on the original agenda.

The three leading questions to be discussed, namely, the Anglo-Japanese alliance, naval and military defence, and arrangements for constitutional amendments are not likely to come up for some days. The alliance and the naval question are practically entwined, and are likely to be discussed at the same time. On both questions, Premier Meighen will undoubtedly take the stand already indicated in these dispatches.

MASONS' GRAND LODGE JUBILEE

Members From All Parts of Province Will Participate In Fiftieth Annual Meeting Which Opens This Afternoon

Members of the Masonic order from all portions of the Province will be in attendance when the opening ceremonies of the fiftieth annual communication of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, A. F. & A. M., will be held at 1:30 p.m. Yesterday the advance guard of Masons commenced to arrive, and this morning many more will reach the city.

The opening of the Grand Lodge sessions will follow the preliminary work of registration of delegates and a motor drive around the city. Most Worshipful Brother M. I. Grimmett, of Merritt, Provincial Grand Master, will preside over the deliberations. Greetings from District No. 1, Victoria, will be extended by Right Worshipful Brother Robert Baird, D. D. G. M.

This afternoon's programme includes divine service at St. John's Church, where V. W. Brother the Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, Grand Chaplain, assisted by M. W. Brother the Rev C. E. Sharp, will officiate. Grand Lodge officers are requested to wear regalia, and members of the Constituent Lodges their aprons. All Masons are asked to attend.

At 8 p.m. there will be a banquet at the Drill Hall, Menzies Street. A theatre party will also be held this evening for the ladies. The toast list at the banquet will be as follows: "His Majesty the King," "The President of the United States," "Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of British Columbia," response by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, M. W. Bro. M. I. Grimmett; "Sister Grand Lodges," proposed by M. W. Bro. H. H. Watson, responses by visiting brethren. Address, M. W. Bro. the Rev. C. Ensor Sharp, "Freemasonry as a Living Issue Today." Address, M. W. Bro. the Hon. Thomas E. Skaggs, P. G. M., of Washington, "Freemasonry and the Progress of Human Freedom." Songs and instrumental music interspersed.

The committee having in hand this afternoon's motor drive is short of cars and requests all members to loan their cars.

Grand Chapter Officers

The Grand Chapter of British Columbia, Royal Arch Masons, held its third annual convocation in the Masonic Temple yesterday. Mr. E. B. Paul, the Grand Z, presiding.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was as follows: D. H. Morrison, Prince Rupert, Grand Z; C. F. Sherwin, Kaslo, Grand H; V. W. Stewart, Victoria, Grand J; J. M. Rudd, Nanaimo, Grand Treasurer; J. W. Prescott, Vancouver, Grand Scribe E; C. F. Bird, Vancouver, Grand Scribe N; J. G. Gamon, New Westminster, Grand P. S.; J. H. Hughes, Vancouver, Grand Tyler.

The visiting delegates were entertained by the members of the two Victoria Chapters.

SIR WM. MACKENZIE MUST GIVE ANSWERS

TORONTO, June 21.—The city's legal department is applying to the courts to send Sir William Mackenzie, president of the Toronto Street Railway, to prison. The sheriff served notice on the traction magnate Monday night.

This means that Sir William must appear to be examined by the city lawyers on his affidavit containing a counter-claim to the city's claim for delayed percentages amounting to $1,389,000 or run the risk of being committed to jail for alleged contempt of court.

PUNISHMENT FALLS ON CENSUS SHIRKERS

VANCOUVER, June 21.—Census shirkers appeared in Magistrate Shaw's court today, and while some managed to get away by payment of costs, one, W. Kafleish, by, according to Magistrate Shaw, deliberate lying while in the witness box, landed himself into a fine of $100, with a three months' sentence in jail as an alternative.

Kafleish, who is alleged to have told the enumerator he had no use for the King, country or anything, entered a defence of total denial, stating he had never seen the chief witness for the prosecution. His denial was so palpably false that the court admonished him severely, after which the separation of the hundred dollars took place.

C. B. Hoggan, who filed in the question as to his occupation as that of "being robbed by Vancouver grafters," but who afterwards had a change of heart and gave the proper information, was ordered to pay $2.50 costs, while one, Oporto, was called upon to pay $20 or go to jail for 20 days.

DECLARES MINERS WILL NOT WORK

BRIGHTON, Eng., June 21.—Frank Hodges, secretary of the Miners' Federation, speaking today on the coal strike, at the labor party's conference here, charged the Government with playing "an unhappy part" in the crisis, and declared that the miners would try to continue the fight "until by starvation we may be compelled to cry for help."

POLICE PRECAUTIONS FOR ADMIRAL SIMS

NEW YORK, June 21.—A thousand bluecoats will be stationed tomorrow at the White Star Line's pier to maintain order when Rear Admiral Sims steps ashore from the Olympic.

Police Commissioner Enright made this announcement today in connection with reports of demonstrations on account of his speech in England attacking Irish activities in the United States.

It was announced yesterday that the public will be barred from the pier.

IRISH QUESTION IS CONSIDERED

Brought Before A. F. of L. Convention by Resolution From Committee—"British Atrocities" Are Made Feature

DENVER, Colo., June 21. — The forecast bitter fight over the Irish question was precipitated upon the floor of the convention of the American Federation of Labor late today, and was at its height when President Samuel Gompers adjourned the convention until tomorrow.

The debate started when the resolutions committee reported a substitute for the four resolutions introduced by Irish sympathizers. The substitute ignored the effort to initiate a boycott against British manufacturers and imports.

The committee's report disposed of the Irish question by asking the convention to reaffirm its sympathy for the Irish cause by urging recognition of the Irish republic, and by urging trial and punishment for British army men guilty of atrocities in Ireland.

The resolution reaffirmed the action of the Montreal convention in supporting the Irish people in their struggle for freedom and for recognition of the Irish republic; instructed federation executive officers and asked all national and international unions to urge the administration officials at Washington and all members of Congress to immediately pass legislation recognising the Irish republic; provided for the sending of a special communication to the British Premier, his Cabinet and Parliament, protesting against the "campaign of violence in Ireland;" instructed federation officers to take up with trade unions of Great Britain, her colonies and Dominions, a proposal to inaugurate a campaign for the trial and punishment of members of the British regular and auxiliary forces guilty of atrocities in Ireland in a manner similar to that in which German officers are now being tried and punished for violence of the rule of warfare in France and Belgium.

The boycott resolution, which was eliminated by the committee's report was introduced by Irish sympathizers as the "official resolution of the Irish republic," it was also responsible for the split among the delegates, as many of them opposed any such action, claiming that a boycott would "work against the interests of the organized workers of Great Britain and her colonies and Dominions."

BRITISH BURDEN GROWS HEAVIER

Financial Editor of Times Reflects on Grevous Results of Industrial Troubles and Expenditure Unexpected

LONDON, June 21.—The financial editor of The Times today calls attention to the effect of the industrial crisis on national finance, and to the grave difficulties facing the Chancellor of the Exchequer. He says that already there is talk in the House of Commons of the necessity of bringing in a second budget to meet the altered situation. The editor remarks that though the miners' ballot has caused no particular selling pressure on the stock exchange, it must not be supposed that the city underrates the disastrous effect of the coal stoppage on national finance.

He points out that the budget estimates have been seriously deranged by the unlooked for expenditure, which has been incurred to the extent of many millions, while revenue has shrunk.

The writer claims that a fresh period of inflation has begun, the floating debt being over £71,350,000 higher than a year ago. The present indications point to a heavy deficit at the end of the year, which will probably have to be met by the expansion of the floating debt, and all that involves, says the editor.

Concluding, the critic remarks:

"This is a sorry prospect to follow the great effort which this country has made to finance war expenditure on sound lines."

WILL INCREASE ARMY IN IRELAND

British Government Has Sent Extra Battalions, and Will Despatch More as Soon as They Are Prepared

GREATER PROTECTION NEEDED FOR OFFICERS

Brutal Thugs Destroy Village Near Roscommon and Attempt to Burn Fugitives—Earl of Bandon Kidnapped

LONDON, June 21.—More troops are to be sent to Ireland, according to the Secretary for War, Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, in the House of Commons today, in reply to a motion for adjournment on the question of the need of adequate protection for officers in Southern Ireland as evidenced by recent murders.

"Extra battalions went last week, and more are going as quickly as possible. It is necessary to support the troops in Ireland, who are doing duties which are often distasteful to them, with the full might of England. Therefore all troops available should be sent to their support."

Savages Burn Village

DUBLIN, June 21.—The burning of virtually the entire village of Knockrogherry, near Roscommon, by raiders, was reported today. The village contained about fifty houses, only three of which were left standing.

The inhabitants rushed from their homes in terror amid a fusillade of bullets, and ran through the fields. Later the children and aged persons found refuge in a Presbyterian church, which the raiders attempted to burn, but failed.

CORK, June 21.—James Francis Bernard, fourth Earl of Bandon, was kidnapped this morning from his residence in Bantry, County Cork, by a band of men. Castle Bernard, his home, was set afire, and this afternoon was still burning. Earl Bandon's whereabouts is unknown.

Earl Bandon, who has been King's Lieutenant of County Cork since 1874, was born September 12, 1850, and succeeded his father in the earldom in 1877. He is the owner of about 41,000 acres of land.

The Earl was kidnapped at 5 o'clock this morning, after which the castle was set afire and virtually destroyed. Meanwhile Lady Bandon and the servants had been locked in a room adjoining the stables.

DUBLIN, June 21.—George Webb, agent of the Earl of Bandon, was fired upon and slightly wounded last night by two men who forced their way into his home. The men did not wear disguises.

CORRECTS STORY OF MR. CRERAR

Minister of Finance Gives Facts In Connection With National Debt and Revenue —Increase Due to Railways

OTTAWA, June 21.—The amount paid annually for interest on Canada's national debt is $23,000,000 less than the total receipts of the country for 1913-14, according to a statement made this afternoon by Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance. Sir Henry, referring to a statement made by Hon. T. A. Crerar at Youngstown, Alberta, Saturday, to the effect that the annual interest on the Dominion debt is larger than the pre-war revenue, stated that if Mr. Crerar had been correctly reported his statement was in error.

The total revenue for 1913-14 was $163,174,394, and for 1912-13 $168,-990,427. The annual interest payment is now about $140,000,000. Sir Henry stated that there is a revenue from interest-bearing debentures, made for the most part during the war period, which should be taken into consideration in estimating the amount of the debt and the net amount of interest which has to be provided by taxation thereon. Last year the interest on investments amounted to $29,000,000.

The statement made by the Minister of Finance also reads:

"A further statement is attributed to Hon. Mr. Crerar that last year the country's debt was increased by $100,000,000. This bare fact is not disputed, but attention is drawn to the statement given in the budget speech, which was to the effect that it covered, with revenue, not only all current charges, including some $212,000,000 due to war burdens, but also provided for capital expenditure of $36,900,000 and demobilization of $20,000,000 and left a clear balance of $13,298,000, after meeting all these obligations.

"The increase in debt was therefore more than entirely due to the outlay for railways, a good portion of it being for expenditures which ought to add to the value of the property and increase its earning capacity. Owing, however, to the fact that the railroads are not at present paying, the policy of the Minister of Finance has been to regard the whole expenditure as an addition to the debt rather than, as in the past, an investment reducing the net debt."

ROYAL PAIR REACH PORT OF HOLYHEAD ON IRISH JOURNEY

Go Immediately on Board Royal Yacht for Voyage to Belfast—Ulster Capital Is Liberally Decorated for Opening of Northern Parliament by King George Today

FIRST IRISH VISIT PAID IN TEN YEARS

Careful Precautions Taken Against Any Attempts at Violence by Misguided "Republicans"—Troops, Constabulary and Scotland Yard Force Are Stationed in City

HOLYHEAD, June 21.—The royal train arrived here tonight and the King and Queen immediately went aboard the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, at anchor in the roads.

BELFAST, June 21.—Belfast is tonight beflagged and festooned for the coming tomorrow of King George and Queen Mary, when the King formally will open the first session of the parliament of Northern Ireland. This will be the first time that the monarchs have visited Ireland since they went to Dublin a decade ago. The King has not been in Belfast since he came here 20 years ago as the Duke of York.

The greatest precautions have been taken to insure the safety of the royal visitors all along the route over which they will pass, which will be lined by at least 4,000 troops standing shoulder to shoulder with bayonetted rifles at present arms. The troops will be reinforced by some 1,000 members of the Royal Irish Constabulary.

Heavy railings have been erected on posts driven several feet in the pavement along the line of march. It would take great pressure to break down these railings.

In the city there is a strong force of auxiliaries, and also a battalion of men from Scotland Yard who, tonight, know virtually every person that is to occupy a window or a seat in the grandstand.

The roofs have been prohibited, except in the case of a few favored spectators.

FARROW AND AIDES GET PRISON TERMS

LONDON, June 21.—Thomas Farrow, founder of Farrow's bank, the failure of which just before last Christmas brought misery to thousands of small depositors, was today sentenced to four years' penal servitude on conviction of having published a report and balance sheet for the year ended in June last which he knew to be false.

William Walter Crotch, an associate of Farrow, was also sentenced to four years in prison, and Frederick Harb, an accountant, who was recommended to the mercy of the court, was sentenced to twelve months in jail.

The two latter were charged with being implicated with Farrow in publishing the false report and balance sheet.

Sugar Prices Decline

NEW YORK, June 21.—Most local sugar refiners today reduced their list quotations ten points to $6.50 for fine granulated, the lowest level in more than five years.

INSISTING UPON INDEPENDENCE

Eamonn De Valera Tells Correspondent That Dominion Status Is Impossible for Ireland—His Solution

LONDON, June 21.—Christopher O'Sullivan, an Australian correspondent, in an interview with Eamonn de Valera, the Irish Republican leader, asked him whether Ireland would accept a status similar to that of the British Overseas Dominions, to which Mr. de Valera replied:

"No such status has been offered Ireland. Until it becomes possible to translate Ireland to the antipodes, or another hemisphere, no such status can be realised."

Asked what solution he proposed, Mr. de Valera replied:

"A neutral Irish state, whose inviolability would be guaranteed by say, the United States and the states of the British Empire and any others that could be secured as signatories. "Free Ireland would never allow its territories or harbors to be made the basis of attack upon England by an outside power.

"A native Irish defence force would be many times as effective in keeping out an invader as any force England could put here, while in case of danger England's own forces would still be available. Any pledge Ireland gives, Ireland will keep. With an independent Ireland beside her, Great Britain would be more, not less, safe than she is now from foreign attacks."

Railway Wage Action Postponed for Time

Decision Is Reached to Await Result of Meeting to Be Held in Chicago on July 1 to Consider Labor Board's Revision—Staffs in Meantime Draft Schedules

TORONTO, June 21.—There will be no wage reductions on the Canadian railroads on Dominion Day, according to the brotherhood chiefs who returned to Toronto today from the conference held at Montreal with the railway executives. The railways receded from their announcement tonight, the delegates said, and as a result of the conference will not put into effect on July 1 the 12 per cent wage reduction intended. The brotherhood representatives took the ground at the conference that they could do nothing about the proposed reduction until the big railway gathering in Chicago on July 1 dealt with the official award of the U.S. Labor Board recommending a reduction in wages of 12 per cent on the railroads in the United States.

If the Chicago award is accepted by the United States railwaymen, the Canadians will summon their committees and negotiations will be reopened with the companies, with the U.S. award as the basis of negotiations. If the award is not accepted, the conference begun in Montreal will be resumed in the hope of an amicable settlement being arrived at.

Proposed Schedules Calculated

MONTREAL, June 21. — Office staffs in railway quarters are busy this week completing the reclassification of wage schedules which were to be presented to the Canadian railway employees for acceptance as of July 1.

Canadian schedules vary very slightly from those effective in the U. S. and there is slight difficulty in working out the reductions which are proposed.

The clerical staff presents a more complex problem. The advances granted last July, and which now are to be cut approximately 42 per cent, were not distributed on a percentage basis. Owing to the lack of uniformity in clerical labor a lump sum equal to 20 per cent of the total payroll was handed over to department heads and apportioned as was considered most equitable. In the downward revision, a similar idea has to be kept in mind.

Heaviest Reduction

Common labor will receive the heaviest cut from a relative standpoint. The entire increase of 5½ cents an hour which was granted last year is scheduled to be wiped out. Freight truckers' average pay will range under the new schedule about $97 a month, and track laborers at approximately $77. Section men are expected to receive about $3 a day under the revision. With regard to the running trades, it is declared the new schedules will provide an adequate livelihood. Last averages taken in Eastern Canada show the following results, the figures having been obtained by taking ten men from each branch of labor at random from various roads:

Ten passenger engineers average $311 a month; ten freight engineers average $286 a month; ten passenger firemen average $223; ten freight firemen average $206; ten passenger conductors average $288; ten passenger trainmen average $206; and ten freight trainmen (brakemen) average $190. These averages were struck before last year's 20 per cent increase was granted. The new reduction will still leave the schedules eight per cent higher than they were when the reduction was made.

Some important revision is likely in the wages paid to clerical help joining railway staffs. The existing schedule is upwards of $100 per month, and is likely to be revised to $70 per month for the first six months and $80 for the second six months. Employees in this class are usually youths and young women 20 years of age.

MANITOBA ASSISTS ITS MUNICIPALITIES

WINNIPEG, June 21.—The financial position of several municipalities of the Province has resulted in the Provincial Government guaranteeing bank loans amounting to about $900,000. The loans have been guaranteed to the following municipalities:

St. James, $300,000; Assiniboia, $315,000; Birtle, $167,000; Transcona, $100,000, and Woodlea, $10,000.

In making the guarantees to Transcona, Assiniboia and St. James, the Government sets forth its reasons as being to maintain the financial standing of the municipalities and to keep the Province, as a whole, in a sound financial position.

E. M. Wood, Deputy Municipal Commissioner, is supervising all expenditures of the municipalities.

DOMINION HELPS RETURNED MEN

Activities of Departments on Their Behalf Is Summarized in Report—Total of Expenditure Is Large

OTTAWA, June 21.—What Canada has done for her returned soldiers is graphically summarized in a report covering the activities of all departments dealing with returned men, which has been prepared and placed before Sir James Lougheed, Minister of the Interior, who has charge of returned soldiers' affairs.

The summary shows that in the Department of Soldiers' Civil Retries. Moreover, he believed that, in attreated; 50,521 vocationally trained and 109,493 placed in employment up to December 31, 1920.

The Board of Pensions Commissioners awarded to the same date 110,702 pensions, and the annual pensions in force were $31,169,530.

The number of returned men placed on farms by the Soldier Settlement Board to the end of last year was 20,121, and the total of loans granted was $31,345,948.

The amount of policies in force under the returned soldiers' insurance on December 31, was $6,325,-000. This total has been increased to more than $10,000,000 to date.

The extent to which returned soldiers were placed in employment by the civil service commission up to the end of last year is also given. A total of 29,054 returned men had been given employment to that date. A total of $164,000,000 was paid in war service gratuity and 47,000 dependents were returned from overseas at the conclusion of the war.

The cost of cashing sterling cheques at par to March 31, 1920, was $524,355.

Dealing with unemployment relief given to returned men and families, the report stated $7,058,929 was spent during 1919-20, and $1,500,000 during the past Winter.

AIR FORCE DELEGATES HOLDING CONVENTION

CAMP BORDEN, Ont., June 21.—Delegates of the Canadian Air Force Association are now in session here, solving problems regarding training, recruiting and reorganization. Major-General Sir Willoughby Gwatkin, K.C.M.G., inspector-general, acted as chairman in the absence of Hon. Hugh Guthrie, who is en route to England.

The delegates were escorted to camp by a fleet of airplanes, and expect to be in session for two days. Many important matters are being brought up.

Canadian Cattle in Britain

GLASGOW, June 21.—Messrs. Watson and Batchelor, of this city, report that 533 head of cattle from the United States and Canada have been sold as follows: Steers 18 to 21 cents; bulls 14 to 16 cents. The quality of the meat is good and prices are firmer.

GRAND TRUNK BRINGS FURTHER LIABILITY

MONTREAL, June 21.—F. E. Brown, an expert accountant for the Government, testified yesterday before the Grand Trunk arbitration commission, stating that another heavy liability in the sum of $32,500,000 for funded debt and accrued liabilities of the Grand Trunk subsidiary companies would have to be met during the next year. Adverse criticism of the accounting system adopted by the Grand Trunk was also included in his evidence.

It is not thought probable that the hearings will be concluded this week.

WHITBY, Ont., June 21.—Sir Joseph Flavelle, President Howard Kelly, of the Grand Trunk Railway, and D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, held a conference here yesterday with reference to co-ordination of plans affecting the two systems, which Sir Joseph said were "largely of a detailed and technical nature."

President Kelly, in an interview, was not pessimistic as to the future of Canadian railways, after certain needed readjustments were made.

Invitation Goes Astray

GENEVA, June 21.—The invitation of the League of Nations asking the United States to participate in the "white slave" conference here in July, has gone astray between the League offices in this city and Washington. The League has a Swiss postal receipt for the registered letter containing the invitation, but the letter never reached the American capital.

KIWANIS CONVENTION OPENS AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 21.—The fifth international convention of the Kiwanis Clubs opened here today with delegates from all parts of Canada and the United States in attendance.

Indications are that the 1922 convention will be held in Toronto, although Atlanta and Fort Worth are contending for the honor. Lobby talk indicated that inasmuch as the convention was held in Birmingham, a southern city, two years ago, Toronto was the most promising contender.

It was estimated that between six and seven thousand delegates and visitors were in the city.

ANTI-BOLSHEVIKI DEFEATED IN SIBERIA

PEKING, June 21.—Anti-Bolsheviki forces, commanded by General Baron von Ungern-Sternberg, which were invading Southern Siberia, have been completely defeated by the army of the Far Eastern Republic, says a dispatch received here from Chita. It says the "robber bande" were virtually annihilated and that the survivors have fled into Mongolia.

A Riga dispatch, quoting Moscow advices, on June 19, told of the Anti-Bolsheviki defeat.

You Just Try NR For That Indigestion

Get your organs of digestion, assimilation and elimination working in harmony and watch your trouble disappear. NR does it or money back.

One Day's Test Proves NR Best

The stomach only partly digests the food we eat. The process is finished in the intestines where the food is mixed with bile from the liver.

It must be plain to any sensible person who realizes this, that the stomach, liver and bowels must work in harmony if digestive troubles are to be avoided or overcome.

This fact also explains why sufferers from indigestion, also suffer more or less from headaches, biliousness and constipation.

If you are one of the many unfortunate persons who cannot eat without suffering afterward, if you are constipated, have bilious spells, headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, variable appetite, are nervous, losing energy and feel your health slipping away, take this advice and get a box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) right today and start taking it. Give it a trial for a week or two and just see how much better you feel. See how quickly your sluggish bowels will become as regular as clock work, how your coated tongue clears up and your good, old-time appetite returns. See how splendidly your food will digest and how your energy, "pep" and "zingo" revive. Just try it.

NR

You take no risk whatever for Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is only 25c a box, enough to last twenty-five days, and it must help and benefit you to your entire satisfaction, or money returned.

Five million boxes are used every year,—one million NR Tablets are taken by ailing people every day—that's the best proof of its merits. Nature's Remedy is the best and safest thing you can take for biliousness, constipation, indigestion and similar complaints. It is sold, guaranteed and recommended by Jr. druggist.

EVIDENCE GIVEN IN MURDER TRIAL

Okalla Prisoner Is Witness in Case of Paulson and Robinson, Charged With Shooting of W. F. Salsbury

VANCOUVER, June 21.—Kem Dale, who is serving six months at Okalla on a charge of breaking and entering, was the principal witness this morning at the continued preliminary hearing of Alex. Paulson and Allen Robinson, charged with the murder of William F. Salsbury, Jr.

Examined by Prosecutor McKay, Dale admitted that he took cocaine. At the time of the murder he was living with Robinson at the Silver Rooms, Pender Street West. At 7:30 on that night Dale and Robinson were together in Harry's bar, Powell Street. Paulson was also there. After being in the bar a short time, Paulson and Robinson left together. Robinson returned at 9:30 and Dale noticed he was without his overcoat, which he had been wearing when he left. He told the witness that he had "ditched" his coat and his gun after shooting a man on Georgia Street.

Robinson did not occupy his room with Dale that night, but the next morning they were on the street together and saw displayed a newspaper announcing the death of Mr. Salsbury. Two days later Dale and Robinson were arrested on a vagrancy charge, and both were sent to Central Butte, Sask., where there was work. While on the Prairie, Robinson frequently talked about the murder.

Referring to Paulson, the other prisoner, Dale swore he had seen him the morning after the murder. He had shaved off his moustache, and Dale identified a pair of torn striped trousers as those Paulson had been wearing the previous evening. Both Paulson and Robinson, he said, were carrying guns when they were in Harry's bar previous to the crime.

Previous to Dale's evidence, Sergeant Robertson, of the city police, testified to arresting Dale on the charge upon which he was sentenced to Okalla. G. Bushby, arrested at the same time as Dale upon a similar charge, had been given two years.

LONDON PAPERS APPROVE SPEECH

Endorse Mr. Lloyd George's Remarks on Anglo-Japanese Treaty — No Enmity Towards United States

LONDON, June 21.—This morning's papers in their editorials endorsed Premier Lloyd George's references to the Anglo-Japanese treaty and disarmament in his speech to the prime ministers of the Empire.

The Morning Post says:

"The treaty with Japan is directed against nobody. Neither England, nor, we are certain, Japan, has any idea of enmity towards the United States, and we hope and believe the United States reciprocates this friendly feeling. There have been times when we doubted it, as for example, when Mr. Secretary Daniels boasted that he intended to build the biggest navy in the world, when there seemed no occasion for it, or when the late Government of the United States seemed inclined to sympathize with the Irish rebels, but we confess that in the present American Government we see a power at least equally strong in its independence and self-respect, and its intention to stand by the interest of America, yet very much less inclined than its predecessor to twist the British lion's tail.

"Let us add that we cannot conceive of any American having any longer any respect for England if we were to change our foreign policy, solely directed as it is to our security and independence, in deference to American sensibilities. The power to protect yourself is the best guarantee of peace there is in this imperfect world."

The Daily News says one of the strongest arguments for the Anglo-Japanese alliance is the fact that its existence would facilitate an agreement for the reduction of naval forces as between Britain, America and Japan.

TWO MINISTERS PAY VISIT TO ENGLAND

OTTAWA, June 21.—Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Militia and Defence, and Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, leave Quebec today for England. They will remain about two months in the Old Country. They will join the Premier in London on June 28.

While in England, Hon. Mr. Guthrie will endeavor to settle transportation accounts between Canada and Great Britain. These accounts involve many millions of dollars and arise out of the transportation of troops during the war. In July Hon. Mr. Guthrie will attend the meetings of the Imperial War Graves Commission.

Pulpwood in Alaska

WASHINGTON, June 21. — The forest service of the Department of Agriculture, in a statement issued today, says the time is ripe to exploit Alaskan pulpwood on an extensive scale. It calls attention to successful operation of pulp and paper mills in Northern British Columbia which have similar timber and power resources. Alaska is said to contain 100,000,000 cords of timber fit for paper making.

WOMEN'S EDUCATION IN FARM SUBJECTS

EDMONTON, June 21.—The establishment of a woman's division of the Federal Department of Agriculture similar in organization to the women's division of the Dominion Department of Immigration and Colonization, was recommended by Mrs. Emily F. Murphy in her presidential address at the opening session of the convention of the Women's Institute of Canada last evening.

This department, Mrs. Murphy said, would be the federal headquarters of the provincial Women's Institute, through which a portion of the ten million dollars set aside by the Dominion Government under the Agricultural Act is used for the education of women in the agrarian arts.

The seven objects of the constitution were explained as to co-ordinate the various provincial women's institutes; to act as a clearing house for the activities of the various federated organizations; to raise the standard of homemaking; to develop agriculture; to promote educational, moral and social reforms; to encourage co-operation and community efforts; to initiate nation-wide campaigns, in accordance with the object of the federation.

Federation of Labor Urges Abolition of Gambling in Grain Futures and Investigation of Production Costs

DENVER, Colo., June 21.—Abolition of "gambling in grain futures on the Chicago Board of Trade," establishment of co-operative producers' and consumers' organisations and government regulation of corporations and monopolies, were urged today by the convention of the American Federation of Labor as a means to combat the high cost of living.

The work of the federal trade commission was commended, and Congress was urged to provide funds for investigation of all industries and publication of statistics showing the cost of production and marketing of all staple commodities.

"If the people are in full possession of the facts," the declaration said, "of costs of distribution and the profits made on the necessaries of life, public opinion would have a powerful effect in reducing prices, and there would be no necessity of prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law."

In urging the abolition of "gambling in futures" and "unnecessary reconsignments and brokerage operations," the resolution said there "are too many overturns between the producers and consumers, which ultimately increase the cost of living."

An education campaign to give the teachers and students of the country the "truth about the labor movement," and meet the propaganda in the schools of the country in furtherance of the so-called "open shop" was authorized by the delegates.

SEAPLANES SINK OLD SUBMARINE

Attack on Former German War Vessel With Bombs Is Successful — Two Aircraft Plunge Into Water

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., June 21. —Scores of aircraft swept by here out to sea this morning to seek and bomb the former German submarine U-117 in the first of a series of tests to prove or disprove claims of air service experts that the development of military aircraft has spelled the doom of surface warcraft. The attacking force today includes practically all types, from the light scouts to the heavy bombers.

A total of 168 bombs, each weighing 162 pounds, were carried in the 47 bombers included in the flight.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Naval seaplane NC-7 caught fire while 150 feet in the air and fell into Hampton Roads today with her crew of three officers and seven men, the Navy Department was advised by the commandant of the Hampton Roads naval station. The machine was reported a complete wreck, but none of those aboard were injured, though one man was made ill by swallowing a mixture of salt water and gasoline while struggling in the water.

Naval bombers made short work of the U-117 in the opening phase today of the test arranged by the government to demonstrate the efficiency of the airplane against modern warcraft.

The first division of seaplanes sent out to bomb the submarine, fifty miles off Cape Charles lightship, sent the former German craft to the bottom, Commander Ellison, executive officer at the Hampton Roads naval base, reported to the Navy Department on advices in radio dispatches from the bombing squadron.

The airship NC-7 was not a bomb carrier, the report said. Naval officials said the NC-7 was a big ship of the same type as the NC-4, first heavier-than-air craft to cross the Atlantic. They said she probably carried observers bound out to witness bomb tests by the air flotilla against a former German submarine off the Virginia Capes. She was not scheduled to take part in the operations.

Just after the submarine U-117 was sunk today off Hampton Roads by bombs, Lieut.-Colonel Culver, flying an army plane, crashed down near the U. S. S. Henderson. He and his assistants were rescued by navy boats.

Calgary Man Killed by Train

CALGARY, June 21.—George Morsetti, accountant for Wilfred Chambers, insurance agent, died at 1.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the general hospital, where he had been removed after being fatally injured when he stumbled and fell in front of the westbound No. 7 C.P.R. passenger train at the Ninth Street East crossing this morning.

SULGRAVE MANOR IS REDEDICATED

Ancient Home of Washington's Family Is Scene of Ceremony in Which British and Americans Take Part

SULGRAVE, Northamptonshire, June 21.—Sulgrave Manor, ancestral home of the Washington was rededicated here today with elaborate ceremonies after its restoration, at a cost of fifty thousand pounds, to the state in which it existed three centuries ago.

The Marquis of Cambridge, brother of Queen Mary, gave the principal address, asserting the fundamental solidarity of the peoples of the Empire and the Republic, and declaring the day's event a good augury for the future.

The Prince of Wales planned to be present, but was detained. He extended an invitation, however, to a delegation to call on him tomorrow at St. James' Palace, London, to give him an opportunity to express his personal interest in the enterprise.

Today's exercises were arranged by the Sulgrave Institution, organized to foster friendship between Great Britain and the United States.

The exercises began with short services in the Sulgrave Parish Church, where lie buried Laurence Washington, forbear of George Washington; Mrs. Washington and their eleven children. The ceremonies proper were held on the lawn of the manor house.

John A. Stewart, president of the American branch of the Sulgrave Institution, presented a bronze bust of Washington to the manor on behalf of the American donors. Letters from Calvin Coolidge, vice-president of the United States; United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, and other Americans, were read.

KING AND QUEEN GO TO BELFAST

Are Tendered Remarkable Ovation on Leaving London — Elaborate Precautions Taken at Ulster Capital

LONDON, June 21.—King George and Queen Mary were given a remarkable sendoff at the railway station here today when they departed for Holyhead, on the way to Belfast to participate in the state opening of the Ulster Parliament tomorrow.

A great crowd which had gathered repeatedly cheered the King and Queen and sang the National Anthem. At intervals in the cheering there were many shouts of "good luck and a safe return to Your Majesties."

The station was gaily decorated. The King and Queen will embark at Holyhead on the royal yacht early tomorrow and proceed to Belfast.

The royal steamer will be escorted by two light cruisers and 10 destroyers on its trip across the Irish Sea.

Elaborate precautions are being taken by the police and crown forces in Belfast to insure the safety of the King and Queen while they are in the city.

Use of the roofs of buildings for any purpose during the hours the King and Queen are in Belfast has been prohibited, and the authorities of Belfast were today engaged in a thorough inspection of the sewer system of the city to make sure no explosives had been hidden there by elements opposed to British rule in Ireland.

King George and Queen Mary will face a strenuous round of functions tomorrow in Belfast, for in addition to opening Parliament, they will be called upon to preside at a levee at Ulster Hall, where the King will confer honors upon a number of prominent Irishmen.

Considerable interest has been aroused in this city by a rumor that the Irish Sinn Fein plans to make a proffer of peace to King George at Belfast tomorrow. Confirmation of this rumor is as yet lacking.

SIR D. MACMASTER PLANS CANADIAN TRIP

LONDON, June 21.—Friends in Canada of Sir Donald Macmaster, K. C., will be pleased to learn that he is making steady, if slow, progress toward recovery from the serious operation he underwent six weeks ago.

Sir Donald states that as soon as he is sufficiently restored to health he intends, with Lady Macmaster, to take another holiday trip to Canada.

PULLMAN COMPANY LOSES LABOR CASE

CHICAGO, June 21.—The Pullman Company lost its open shop fight before the United States Labor Board today, when the Board upheld the contention of union leaders that the company had not obeyed "the letter and spirit" of the Transportation Act when it conferred with its employees in mass meetings.

The board threw out the company's petition for a cut in the wages of its employees and instructed it to go back and meet the "duly elected representatives of the employees."

The shop crafts and clerks in the Pullman works are involved in the case. The board's decision will delay any action on a reduction in their wages for several weeks. Under the Transportation Act the company must meet the union leaders, and in the event they fail to reach a decision, file a petition before the board and ask a new hearing.

WORK IN MINES IS NOT GENERAL

Number of Miners Offer for Jobs at Reopened Collieries, But Several Districts Report None Returning

LONDON, June 21.—Although some of the collieries have reopened, and a considerable number of miners have reported for work, there has been no general drift back to the mines.

The industrial situation continues as chaotic as ever, awaiting the test of the miners' call for a general strike of unions threatened with wage reductions. Some of the miners' leaders, doubting that their policy will receive endorsement, are said to be casting about to find fresh openings for peace talks, but no definite move has been disclosed as yet. At the same time the delegates who have gone back to their districts are urging the men not to break away from the federation, and to defer action until they know the results of the appeal to the other unions. Their endeavors in this direction have been successful to some extent, for district reports show that large numbers of miners who were expected to return to work yesterday were persuaded or otherwise prevented from doing so.

The principal movements back to the mines took place in the Midlands, including Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire and Staffordshire, where the owners predict a gradual resumption of operations. Apparently the Scottish, Welsh and North Country miners are standing firm.

Premier Lloyd George, answering questions in the House of Commons yesterday, said the Government would give protection to men returning to work, but intimated that no scheme was being entertained for paying a proportionate amount of the Government's offer of £10,000,000 to the mines in operation.

MENNONITE LAND CAUSE OF SUIT

Injunction Is Obtained Against Registration of Transfers Before Payment of Cash Provided for in Contract

WINNIPEG, June 21.—An interim injunction restraining the Saskatchewan Mortgage & Trust Company, also the purchasers or any other official, person, or firm, from registering or dealing in any way with transfers and duplicate certificates of the Mennonite lands, has been granted, according to Swift Current dispatchee to The Manitoba Free Press.

The petition for an injunction was filed on behalf of the Mennonites by Messrs. McWilliam & Cathrea, and the case will be heard before a judge in chambers in Regina on June 28.

The action arose over an alleged attempt to register in the land titles office at Swift Current certain transfers before the contract payment of cash thereon was made to the Mennonites or the trust company, the dispatch says.

The Old Colony, Swift Current Mennonite reserve, containing 107,000 acres, was sold to Florida capitalists headed by James J. Logan, Jacksonville, Fla., and James F. Taylor, Tampa, Fla., for $4,800,000. Transfers were deposited with the Saskatchewan Mortgage & Trust Company, of Regina, trustees of the Mennonites.

WOMAN PROSECUTED FOR IMMODEST DRESS

ZION, Ills., June 21.—Mrs. Sarah Johnson, 21, of Winthrop Harbor, near Zion, was in Zion jail today charged with triple violation of the modest dres sordinance, namely:

Wearing short sleeves which exposed the arm above the middle of the forearm.

Wearing a blouse of transparent material.

Wearing a blouse with neck cut below the junction of the base of the neck and the collar bone.

Chief of Police Becker made the arrest after the young woman told him "when you pay for my clothes you can tell me what to wear."

MADISON, Wis., June 21.—The short skirt is a blessing to emancipated women, who are only beginning fully to enjoy a world which continues to grow better, Bishop Samuel Fellows, 86 years old, told a college reunion today. "Women are not growing less moral," he declared, "their appearance in short skirts is not an indication of lowering of standard; it is a blessing. The world is becoming a better place for all of us to live in."

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

DOUKHOBORS GIVE CENSUS INFORMATION

WINNIPEG, June 21. — M. W. Casakoff, vice-president and general manager of the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, Limited, commonly known as the Doukhobors, of Veregin, Sask., takes exception to a dispatch from Ottawa on Thursday last to the effect that Doukhobors "have so far refused to give the information required by the officials taking the census."

Mr. Casakoff, in a statement today, declared that his people had placed no obstacles in the way of census enumerators, and had given all the information requested. The dispatch would hurt his people in business, he said, and added that the taking of a census had been completed in some of the Doukhobor settlements, and was proceeding in others.

VANCOUVER GETS MANY PERMITS

Sale of Five-Dollar Variety Is Much Larger Than in Victoria—Question of Beer in Veterans' Club

VANCOUVER, June 21. — After hearing representatives of returned soldier organizations in reference to the use of beer in veterans' clubs for refreshment, Commissioner J. H. Falconer left this morning for Victoria to confer with the other members of the liquor control board. Regarding the seizure of beer in the veterans' club at Fernie, Mr. Falconer said today that this was carried out by the city police of that place, not under instructions from the liquor board.

The number of permits issued in Vancouver is now "in the thousands," it was stated today. Very many have been written for non-residents, it is said, and the majority in this city to B.C. folk are of the $5 per year variety.

This is in sharp contrast to Victoria, where by far the greater number of permits are of the 50-cent single purchase class. Five hundred and ninety-three of these permits have been issued in Victoria, while, up to Monday night, only 192 of the $5 permits were given out and only eleven of the non-resident class.

Before leaving for Victoria today, Commissioner Falconer emphasized the fact that, under the new liquor act, all owners of private stocks acquired before the act came into force must have liquor in their possession sealed with the official seal prescribed under the act. Neglect to do this leaves the owner liable to confiscation of the liquor.

Fernie Club Case

FERNIE, B.C., June 21.—Interviewed today, President H. A. Bryant, of the G.W.V.A., states that he had no official notification that a charge will be laid against the G.W.V.A. arising out of the raid on their clubrooms Saturday night by the city police who found and seized two half-kegs of beer.

He also stated that he had been in conversation with Chief of City Police Lawson in an endeavore to get some information as to what the authorities were going to do about the matter, but was only informed that the police were awaiting instructions from headquarters before proceeding any further in the case.

He added that the G. W. V. A. were determined that should the authorities proceed against them that they would carry the matter to the highest courts possible if necessary, and that they had the financial support to carry the case through.

The club rooms are open again today and are carrying on the sale of beer to their members without any further interruption.

SAFEGUARD AGAINST CITRUS FRUIT CANKER

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Advisability of placing a ban on the importation of citrus fruits from Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand in an effort to prevent the introduction of the citrus canker into the United States, will be considered at a public hearing to be held July 19 by the Federal Horticultural Board. Citrus interests in this country were invited to attend.

A quarantine is now imposed against India, Siam, Indo-China, China, the Malayan Archipelago, the Philippines, Japan, Formosa and the Union of South Africa. Oranges of the Mandarin class, however, are allowed to enter under permit.

PROVIDES FOR FINES ON WOMEN SMOKERS

WASHINGTON, June 21.—A puff on a cigarette may cost Washington women $25 if a bill introduced yesterday by Rep. Johnson, Democrat, Mississippi, is enacted. The measure provides that women who smoke in "public places" shall be fined $25 for the first offence and $100 for the second.

A similar schedule of fines is proposed for proprietors of dining rooms, cafes, theatres, elevators, street cars and railway stations, who permit women to smoke on their premises.

CENTRALIA SHOOTERS GO TO PENITENTIARY

SEATTLE, June 21.—Seven men, former I.W.W., convicted of murder in connection with the Armistice Day shooting at Centralia, Wash., in 1919, passed through this city early this morning, heavily guarded, on their way to the State penitentiary at Walla Walla, where they are sentenced to serve from twenty-five to forty years.

They were brought from Montesano, Wash., where their trial was held more than a year ago. The State Supreme Court recently affirmed their conviction.

REGINA, June 21.—The deferred Provincial election in the Tisdale constituency will be held June 28. The two candidates named are H. E. Jones, the present member of the Legislature, and Hugh McPhail, Independent. No dates have been announced for the other two deferred elections.

LIFE OF CHINESE IS UNPLEASANT

Missionary on Visit to Vancouver Pictures Evil Conditions Prevailing—Brigandage Is General in Country

VANCOUVER, June 21.—It was not a pleasant picture that Captain the Rev. H. W. Lochead drew of China at the Rotary Club luncheon today in his talk on causes of the present anarchy in that country. China is not in the hands of the president, but in those of the military authorities, he said. The army when in need of money threatens mugoes for long periods without pay and tiny, and this is done frequently.

"Today a soldier; tomorrow a brigand," is a familiar expression in China, the speaker exclaimed, and the numbers of bandits are making life intolerable for the Chinese. People are kept in terror, being captured for ransom and murdered if money is not forthcoming. Famine adds to these unpleasant aspects of life.

Capt. Lochead said that one idea operating freely at this time in China was for all the good men in the country to go to their homes and remain quietly until the trouble had passed, and this was further intensifying the situation.

Captain Lochead was in Vancouver seventeen years ago en route to the mission field of China. He is home on a year's leave of absence. He is a graduate of McGill, and in his career there was a well-known athlete, being captain of the track team.

WILL NEED BY-LAW FOR WOOLEN PROJECT

Mayor Hopes to Wind Up Preliminary Negotiations at Conference Friday — Sir Charles Sykes Coming

"Everything is so far indefinite, but it seems as though a by-law will be absolutely necessary before we can get very far," said Mayor Robert J. Porter yesterday, discussing the negotiations going on between the City Council and representatives of a Yorkshire woolen mill concern which is said to be anxious to locate mills here if conditions are favorable.

Members of the City Council and the woolen mill agent held a private meeting in the Mayor's office Monday night, and the Mayor stated yesterday that another conference will be held Friday.

"It may not be possible to get the matter settled for some time, but I would like to have the preliminary phases cleared up this week," said the Mayor, who pointed out that the company desired certain concessions from the city, such as free sites, free water and tax exemption for a period of years.

It was stated on Monday that private owners of a few of the lots which should be included in the area taken over by the woolen mills if the deal goes through had jumped their price as soon as they knew the purpose for which the property was required, but it is expected that this will not constitute a formidable obstacle.

Ald. W. F. Fullerton, of the City Council's Industrial Committee, stated yesterday that Sir Charles Sykes, M. P., one of the leading woolen manufacturers in Great Britain, has left for Canada, and it is probable that he will come to Victoria. The alderman, who is a personal friend of Sir Charles, believes it is quite probable that the manufacturer may establish a subsidiary concern in Western Canada, as Old Country mills are now cluttered up with spindles and other machinery required for big scale war production but useless now. It is the policy of many of these mills, he says, to expand and establish branch factories in the Dominions closer to the newly-developed markets.

OLD CIVIL SERVANTS RELUCTANT TO RETIRE

OTTAWA, June 21.—A memorandum is being prepared for presentation to members of the Cabinet by civil servants who are affected by the recent order-in-council in regard to retirement of those who have reached the age of 65.

In it the civil servants affected point out that age is not necessarily a handicap to the performance of duty, and that some members of the Cabinet, themselves, including Sir George Foster, Hon. C. J. Doherty and Sir James Lougheed are well past the three score mark, but are still going strong.

Moscow's Paper Money

TOKIO, June 21.—According to a Kokumai news agency dispatch from Vladivostok, a message from Chita says that in return for goods the soviet government will render financial assistance to the Far Eastern Republic to the extent of three billion roubles in paper currency and three hundred thousand roubles in gold for the fiscal year of 1921.

Strawberries Cheap at Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21. — Strawberries retailing at $1.10 a crate were an attraction in the markets here today. Many growers who brought their day's picking to town declined to dispose of them on the market at the price quoted and began peddling them from house to house, but the best price obtained for the day for choice varieties was $1.25 a crate.

For Thin Waists and Sleeveless Gowns

(Toilet Tips)

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface about 3 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine delatone. Mix fresh as wanted. (Advt.)

IMPERIAL SOLIDARITY

Mr. Lloyd George, in welcoming the delegates to the Imperial Conference, studiously avoided any statement which would have been likely to inject anything of a controversial character into the sessions now in progress. In the main, the tenor of what he said was to invite an expression of opinion from the Overseas Premiers on the various matters which are to be discussed, and particularly interesting was his invitation for a statement on how the status of those Dominion can be rendered clearer to their own communities and to the world at large. This utterance followed the pronouncement by the British Premier that "the Dominions have achieved full nationhood and now stand beside the United Kingdom as equal partners in the dignities of the British Commonwealth.' This is an admission cheerfully made, and in the due recognition that has been accorded to their tion that has been accorded to their part, should realize that they have new and increasing responsibilities affecting themselves and the Empire as a whole.

The British Prime Minister said nothing of the question of naval defence, for he felt that any suggestions in that regard must come from the Overseas representatives. Britain is not asking to be relieved of any portion of the burden she now bears. When advice from her is sought as to the best policy to be adopted, it is always given on the basis of full responsibilities and strategic requirements. Britain's naval and military prowess belongs unreservedly to the smallest of her possessions, as well as to the greatest of her Overseas Dominions. It stands ready always, and has been given before now without stint or limit on their behalf, without any return whatever being required. If the Dominions do not let Britain know that, both in peace and war, their strength is also that of the Empire's, then they are recreant to the new duties and obligations which their present status of nationhood implies.

Past history and present responsibilities both alike emphasize the importance of Imperial naval defence as the outstanding subject which should engage the attention of the present Conference. The Empire should be more concerned with its own power to guard itself and to measure up to its responsibilities than with decisions affecting an alliance with any outside Power. It is inherent strength which is, and will continue to be, the preservative of the British domain, for the more this Empire continues to rely on others, the more its own initiative and resource will be sapped. A renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance is something that is desirable from the sectional viewpoint of Pacific problems. What is more essential still is a recognition that the British Empire will stand by realising and nurturing the elements which made that Empire possible, or fail, through failing to appreciate the full measure of the responsibilities which power and greatness entail. Now, Britain alone is bearing an altogether disproportionate share of the burden of the Empire. It is for the Dominions to assume their share, and to show that they regard it as a continuous obligation and not one to be taken up only in times of crisis.

The true measure of the status of full nationhood which the Dominions have achieved will be apparent from their attitude on this question of Imperial naval defence. Any disposition to temporize with the subject will imply a failure to recognize that nationhood is more than a mere term of grandiloquence. The Overseas Dominion cannot, with any show of reason, claim a voice in the foreign relations of the Empire unless they are bearing their proportionate burden of the naval and military strength which would be employed in case of international complications or strife. It is within the power of the Dominions to consolidate their status within the Empire by acknowledging their responsibilities and sharing them in proportion to their populations and the territories they have to defend. Nothing more than this can better insure Imperial solidarity and promote the progress of the British peoples.

ORIENTAL TRADE

The Chamber of Commerce is to appoint a committee on foreign trade, with particular reference to the desirability of encouraging closer commercial relations between Canada and China. The effect of such a committee will be largely educative, but in this respect it has a field ripe for exploitation. China offers an illimitable market for Canadian products, and, in return, can send here many commodities that are needed. The trade between the two countries has not developed as it should, simply because this Dominion has been lax, almost to the point of absolute neglect, in availing itself of the opportunities that exist. Few, if any, representatives of Canadian firms go to China to secure orders, and the extent to which the market among the teeming millions of the Orient is forgotten, is one of the reasons why industrial development is so slow in the Dominion, and particularly in British Columbia. This Province alone could have a trade worth several millions with China, and one that would expand consistently year after year. By assisting in catering to China's needs, British Columbia could become a centre of great industrial undertakings with a rapidly growing population, and prosperity in evidence everywhere.

One perquisite to the development of the trade desired is a cessation of the petty persecution of those Chinese who are now residents of the Province. There is a pretty general agreement that no further Chinese immigration is wanted here, but that constitutes no reason whatever why the industrious nationals of that country, who have been permitted to come in and who have paid a head tax for that privilege, should be the butt and target of those who disagree with their habits and hard working proclivities. The Dominion Government has it in its power to thin out our present Chinese population by offering to refund half the head tax money which was collected on their entry. If this offer were made there is no doubt that many of the Chinese now here would avail themselves of the opportunity of returning to their native country. So long as they are here, and here legitimately, they deserve better treatment than is now accorded to them. We say emphatically that if Canada desires to build up closer trade relations with the Orient, the pinprick policy against the Orientals here should cease. If it is continued, then the Chinese, who know better than others the efficiency of a boycott, will retaliate by putting obstacles in the way of trade with Canada, and it is this country that will suffer the most.

There is no reason why there should not be cordial relations between Canada and China. It has been pointed out again and again that the Government at Peking would, without a doubt, be prepared to make an agreement with Ottawa to limit the number of Chinese seeking entrance to this country. Sooner or later such an agreement will have to be made, for Canada cannot always, and especially in view of China's development, impose the head tax which is now in force. An agreement made now, and some educative propaganda which would show the people of this country how materially they are injuring their own prospects by baiting the Chinese residents of Canada, would have good effects, especially in the matter of trade development. A Chamber of Commerce committee knows as well as we can tell it what are the steps necessary to promote trade. We have hinted at some of these, and what is equally important is a definite policy of having Canadian representatives of business firms on the spot to secure orders. In doing so they should cultivate the Chinese conception of commerce and realize that in all their dealings, honesty is the only policy which will pay.

WOODEN SHIPBUILDING

The hundreds of Victoria shareholders will be anxious to learn under what terms the Federal Government is taking over the construction of the vessels being built for the Victoria Shipowners, Limited. The step being taken is probably the best, since it implies that the work will be resumed, and thus the ships being turned out will be given the opportunity of earning a dividend for the company. There is another feature that will commend itself to the public, and that is the likelihood of the renewed work helping to give employment to a few hundred men. The closing down of the yard was felt very severely, as it came at a bad time. The resumption of work will, therefore, be welcomed, and we may feel assured that Dr. S. F. Tolmie will have brought about the intervention of the Federal Government in a manner which will not prove unfair to Victorians who have invested their money in the enterprise. In the meantime the Government cannot renew the work at the yard too soon, for the hulls laid down and the vessel nearly completed have been suffering through deterioration.

Women's Attire

Sir,—As one interested in dress reform, I should like to congratulate the City Council, or whoever were responsible for the suggestion, "that it was time we had a law governing women's street attire," for as I said in one of my reports upon this subject before the Local Council of Women, that "it is nobody's business what a woman wears in the privacy of her own home; but it becomes everybody's business what she wears in public, when by her clothing or the lack of it, she endangers public morals."

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Charles G. Dawes, the Chicago banker, has been selected by President Harding as director of the budget under the budget law recently enacted by Congress, it was announced at the White House today.

"RALPH CONNOR," WRITER, PREACHER

Montreal Gazette

We say of a great centre lacking a library that it has no soul. Our Keltic friends have always said of Ulster that as it could only make ships and whisky, and not poetry—it had no soul. And it could have been said of our great Northwest, until a few years ago, that it had no soul, or sense of the spiritual—which is the same thing. The C.P.R. gave the Northwest form and body and value. It quickened it into life. It put a pulse into a great inertia. It placed vastness on the map, and prescribed its bounds. It gave shape to an amorphous mass. It opened up a great new world to enterprise and daring and cupidity!

As it needs the centuries to develop a folklore, so the Northwest, in its earlier years, was consecrated to material tasks, needed something more abiding, more redemptive, than wheat or oil or cattle. A minister who had been stationed for four years in the West said to the writer that in all the time he was in the country he never heard men, when they foregathered, talk about anything higher than money. That happens when you are fighting for life, and sudden gain, when you are wrestling with the naked earth, whose bosom you rend for her golden secrets.

Inspired West

The Rev. Dr. Gordon—"Ralph Connor"—was not a spiritual pioneer in the West, but he spoke with an endearing sympathy. He was, to begin with, a vital creature. He thrilled to the miracle, the tragedy, the comedy of life. He set forth certain national characters and everybody said they were real. He made his characters do and say things which were congruous to reality. Thus he made the West familiar and dear and homely. He took the bare look off it. He called it home, and made home express itself in luring ways. He put a geranium in the window. He imaged forth the happy endearments of home, and thus he became an eloquent and efficient immigration agent. In the West he was an authentic voice, full of power. It is said that the writing man is rarely a speaking man. Dr. Gordon is a thrilling speaker. He rises to a lofty height. He glows with apostrophic eloquence. He stood for character, and in so doing, with his power and eloquence, he made the West, measurably, the desirable place it is today.

This is the man who is the titular head of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. He is, perhaps, our foremost litterateur, but he is a great churchman, using the word in its broad meaning. To the causes of the church of his love he has given ungrudging and effectual support. As Moderator he will maintain the traditional dignity of the high office. Whether in or out of the church the precious thing is that Dr. Gordon is a real man. There are many platitudinous creatures who say nothing with easy vapidity, and of whom the world is weary, both in church and state. Dr. Gordon is authentic. He is alive, he thrills with generous ardors. He is real, he is living on this planet, and is more concerned for its integrity than for the sidereal system.

His Living Message

In the pulpit or, on the platform he has vital things to say. The man with a message feels its import first, before he can make it impinge on any creature. As a preacher and writer Dr. Gordon soon became a power in the West. It is not too much to say that he put soul into the West.

He was tender and inviting, but he sought for soul among the people, and if we have the eloquent evidence of spiritual growth in the West today as expressed in noble seats of learning, set down on the prairie, not a little is due to the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church. The people loved his books because he sought in them to give warmth and home-likeness to scenes too young for beauty and soul—and the "little people." Dr. Gordon was overseas as chaplain, but during the war he returned to hearten our people, and all over the West thrilled with his burning periods. He felt all the horror and also all the nobleness involved, and he quickened to the pictures he drew. Keen of face, with eyes that can be as tender as a woman's, or burn with feeling, slim and lean and tense, Dr. Gordon is a haunting figure.

Creatures of Imagination

When one remembers, too, that this man has drawn from his imagination so many alluring characters as real as life itself—children of his brain, who were as familiar as the people you would meet in the West; the interest in the minister deepened. It was something to find in the Presbyterian Church a man who, while preaching the gospel, was also evolving characters full of the allurement which draws the young more potently than the average sermon. In his double capacity Dr. Gordon is a figure to win upon the regard. He has Highland blood in his veins. Something of the pathos of the lonely Highlands is in his texture. One might see the hint now and then a poignant melancholy. The enswathing mists of the wild Atlantic, generations ago, could produce in the Glengarian today that pensiveness which is deep in the Scots nature.

On the other hand, Dr. Gordon is a splendid optimist, and during the war, when our fortunes were at low ebb, he never despaired. But we love him most for the haunting sense of poetry and feeling and imagination in his books, because then he is linked to the people in most desirable expression.

To be the head of the Presbyterian Church is a great honor. He will be a picturesque figure; but to consider that while he is examining the church union question he is, at the same time, fashioning the elusive creatures of his brain—that will be the constant lure during his term of office.

Fire in Montreal

MONTREAL, June 21.—Twenty families were driven from their homes early this morning when fire broke out in a house under construction on Fullum Street. It is estimated that the damage is $30,000. The cause of the fire is so far unknown. Several firemen were slightly injured by a falling wall.

PRESS COMMENT

Wasted Time

We cannot play our full part until we assume our share of responsibilities and obligations, not only in bringing about peace, but in maintaining it. The tragedy of it all is that two years and more have been lost before making a beginning.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Don't Lose Any Sleep Over the Comet

Don't worry any more about the liability of the Pons-Winnecke comet coming into collision with the earth. The astronomers have now got it all figured out that the comet will reach the point where its path crosses that of the earth nine days before the earth gets there. The two bodies will, therefore, be about 18,000,000 miles apart—which is not very far, after all, as the astronomers measure distances.—Boston Post.

Egypt and Home Rule

Egyptian Home Rule is on its trial trip, and much will turn on the manner in which it comes through the ordeal. We are not at all anxious to go on bearing the "White Man's Burden" in Northeast Africa, if we can safely and honorably relinquish it without abandoning the natives of the Nile Basin to anarchy, and the foreign residents to plunder and outrage. But the people of Egypt must prove themselves fit for the ample liberties with which we are prepared to invest them.—London Daily Telegraph.

The Tide Is Stemmed

In Italy the tide of anarchism and Bolshevism, which has for the past year been steadily ebbing throughout Europe, is now completely spent. Italy has recovered as marvellously and as gloriously from this subterranean attack as she recovered from the Hun onset at Caporetto. Her friends may well congratulate her not only on the victory of the forces of order within her territory, but also on the example which her people have given to the world. Civilization when it is courageously defended is infinitely strong—much stronger than its dishevelled assailants dream.—London Daily Mail.

The One Thing Needful

The time is ripe, now, for a full and frank discussion on armaments by the three great remaining naval powers. A definite agreement on naval limitation will do more than columns of vague talk to secure peace and economy. Whatever may happen to the Anglo-Japanese alliance, the need for such an agreement is plain. The statesmen of England, of America and of Japan have all given the idea their backing. The earnest spirit in which the Dominion premiers approach this conference cannot but reinforce it. All that is now needed is a firm lead by one of the powers concerned.—Manchester Guardian.

In the World's Markets

Germany's financial policy of inflating her currency must necessarily enrich the rich and impoverish the poor. The German worker being among the most docile in the world, the German manufacturer is able to undersell his competitors in practically every other country in the world. This means that the German rabbit is eating the English sheep off the pasture, and it is, therefore, the business of the latter to devise means of meeting this flank attack upon his standard of living. The war-stricken countries of Europe, on account of their poverty, must become as every student of economics foresaw they would, our keenest competitors in the world's markets.—London Times.

The Only Alternative

France needs and ought to have an assurance that she will not be at the mercy of her former enemy, but she will never get it, in any sense that will enable her to be really at ease in her mind, out of the politics of the late war. She will get it only in a fair peace guaranteed by all the nations, her former enemy included. This becomes more and more evident as the months pass and the unsettlement continues, and we hope it will lead the public in all countries to devote themselves much more seriously than hitherto to the great idea of the League of Nations. That, in one form or another, is the only alternative to the groping and grouping which Mr. Lloyd George foresees.—Westminster Gazette.

In Murky London

In the very human desire to discover and make the most of a silver lining the populations of London and our great industrial cities are exclaiming with gratitude at the pure atmosphere which, in the regrettable absence of coal, is adding a new joy to city life. Even the Coal Smoke Abatement Society, which used to be regarded as an organization of interfering faddists, is now being openly referred to in terms of sympathetic appreciation, and, as on a more celebrated occasion, sunburnt revellers in "health-giving rays" are declaring with emphasis, "Never again." But the chances are just about a hundred to one that when work in the mines is resumed and the chimneys are once more belching forth their filthy fumes these transports of delight and determination will be forgotten, and we shall go our accustomed way—in a twilight of smoke—soiled, spluttering and passively impotent.—London Daily News.

Famous Sticks

Sir Walter Scott's favorite walking-stick, described as a blackthorn, or, again, some say hazel, has been presented by Lord Knutsford for preservation in the Scottish Museum of Antiquaries, Edinburgh. It is the stick which is depicted in many of his portraits, and bears an inserted silver plate with the inscription, "Sir Walter Scott, Abbotsford." In case it might have been lost, Rohnd it is still tied a faded silk cord and tassel. As famous a stick in American eyes is one much venerated in Washington. It is Benjamin Franklin's crab-tree walking-stick, with a gold head quaintly wrought in the shape of the cap of liberty. In a codicil to his will he bequeathed it to "the friend of mankind, General Washington," adding that "if it were a sceptre, he has merit it, and would become it."

Japanese Proverbs

Instead of "More haste, less speed," the Japanese say, "If in a hurry, go round." "Accidents will happen in the best regulated families" becomes "Even a monkey will sometimes fall from a tree." We say, "Oil and water will not mix," and they say, "You can't rivet a nail in a custard." When we say, "Out of evil may good come," the people of the Flowery Kingdom say, "The lotus springs from the mud." Mrs. Partington's futile effort with a mop is, in Japanese, "Scattering loes with a fan."

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The British Colonist of June 22, 1871.)

Christ Church.—A meeting of the committee and subscribers towards the Christ Church fund was held in Angela College last evening to consider the best steps to be taken towards rebuilding the said church. The meeting was well attended, Dean Cridge presiding. The chairman explained at length the efforts which had been made by the committee and friends of the church in order to secure the construction of a stone edifice of a good style and character, but they had found it impossible to do so. The whole amount of available cash on hand was $17,000, and about $2,000 more was subscribed, a portion of which could be relied on. His Lordship the Bishop would provide £500 if the building were of stone. The question, therefore, before the meeting was should the building be of wood or stone? After Mr. J. D. Pemberton Mr. Alston, Mr McDonald, Mr. Pearce and Mr. Williams had expressed diverse opinions, Mr. Spark moved "That the committee be instructed to call for tenders to build a wooden church according to plans approved by the committee, and that the resolution now on the minutes relating to the said building be rescinded." The resolution passed without a dissenting voice. It is understood that the building will be on a stone foundation and will have a seating capacity of about 500.

ARGUE DIFFERENCES BEFORE THE CABINET

Police Commissioners and Council Representatives Discuss Police Salary Increases With Premier

The respective stands of the City Council and the Board of Police Commissioners relative to the question of salary increases for members of the Police Department, increases recently approved by Commissioners Hall and North, but opposed by the City Council, were argued before the Provincial Executive Council yesterday morning. At the conclusion of the sitting Premier Oliver announced that the Government would take into consideration the representations made.

The appeal to the Government was taken under the provisions of the Municipal Act, which permits such when the City Council and Board of Police Commissioners differ, Mayor Porter, chairman of the Board, with Aldermen Andros and Sangster, of the Civic Finance Committee, represented the City Council's views in opposition to those of Commissioners North and Hall.

Opposes Increase

Mayor Porter outlined the facts of the case, how Commissioners Hall and North had proposed to increase salaries of the police by $15 per month per man, an aggregate annual increase of about $10,000. His Worship pointed to the 10 per cent increase granted in 1919 and to the fact that last year's request for an increase had been refused the members of the department. There was no justification at the present time for further increases, Mayor Porter claimed, and he asserted the Council simply did not have the money to provide for such. With the exception of Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver, he said, Victoria is now paying higher salaries to the police than any other city in the Dominion, and at present there were many applications being received for positions on the police force from qualified men willing to accept a lower rate of pay. The members of the department, the Mayor stated, are satisfied with what they are now getting. It could not be argued, he said, that any increase was needed because of rising living costs. On the contrary, the cost of living is steadily declining, he said.

When the Mayor suggested that to grant the increases proposed by Commissioners Hall and North would bring them up to the level of the Vancouver police scale, and there is not the same risk to a police officer in executing his duties as there is in Vancouver, Attorney-General Ferris inquired whether the Mayor was suggesting that the Mainland city is more lawless than Victoria.

Alderman Sangster held that Vancouver was a larger city, to which undesirables were attracted more so then to Victoria, and police officers there ran greater risks. It was cheaper, too, the alderman opined, to live in Victoria than on the Mainland, a statement with which the Attorney-General stated he could not agree.

"New Men"

Alderman Sangster dubbed Commissioners Hall and North "new men without experience on a public body and with no responsibility for providing for taxation." He stated Mr. North was not even a taxpayer.

Commissioner North interjected to state that he is a taxpayer, that he owns property in his wife's name and paid the taxes himself.

Alderman Andros opposed any salary increase and declared the trouble with Commissioner North was he had too big a heart, that organ running away with his brain. The commissioner was attempting to make a good fellow of himself at the expense of the ratepayers of the city.

The action of the City Council in bringing the matter to the attention of the Government rather than obeying the decision of the majority of the Board of Police Commissioners was declared by Dr. Hall to be a "violation of the principles of democracy and responsible government." The commissioners had been elected to conduct the affairs of the police department and were responsible not to the Council but to the people, he argued. He cited the difference between the Victoria and Vancouver scale of pay, the chief there receiving no less than $1,800 more than the Victoria chief, while first class patrolmen received $150, compared with $185 here. He held the police should be paid wages commensurate with the risks they run in the execution of their duty, and be placed above the necessity or temptation to graft.

His Promise

Commissioner North referred to his pre-election promises to, if elected, give Victoria a clean police administration and increased salaries for the police. He had been elected at the head of the poll on that programme, and in approving of salary increases he had been but carrying out his promise. He could not see where the City Council had any right, legal or otherwise, to interfere with the work of the Police Board.

Attorney-General Farris wanted the Mayor to explain why the Government should interfere at all in the matter unless some principle were involved. Was it proposed to make the Cabinet the adjusters of every policeman's salary?

Mayor Porter stated the City Solicitor had advised that the appeal be taken to the Government. He pointed out that policemen are given two weeks' holidays on full pay each year, and they work an eight-hour day, with one day off each week.

Premier Oliver promised the contending factions that their representations would be considered. Beyond that he was not prepared to go.

PROMINENT PEOPLE DEPART ON EMPRESS

MONTREAL, June 21. — Many prominent persons are leaving for England on the Empress of France, which is due to sail from Quebec this afternoon for Liverpool. Among those in the saloon will be General Sir Arthur Currie, who will represent McGill at the Universities of the Empire Conference at Oxford, with Lady Currie, son and daughter; Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, with Mrs. Ballantyne and sons; Right Hon. James W. Lowther, late Speaker of the British House of Commons, with Mrs. and Miss Lowther; Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Militia, with Mrs. Guthrie, Charles and Miss Helen Guthrie; Hon. Charles Lanctot, K.C.; Hon. P. C. Sethna, of Bombay, India; Sir Campbell Stuart, managing director of The London Times; H. F. Southam, president of The Ottawa Citizen, Mrs. Southam and family; and Lord and Lady Hartington, returning to England from Government House, Ottawa.

TO OPEN UP MORE LAND AT ROSS BAY

Service of Cemetery Will Be Lengthened About Six Months by Latest Project—Anxious to Get New Site

The caretaker's house and outbuildings at Ross Bay cemetery will be removed shortly in order to make room for approximately 124 new burial plots, it was learned at the City Hall yesterday.

Although this work will make Ross Bay cemetery capable of caring for Victoria's normal requirements for nearly six months longer than provided at present, the majority of the City Council is understood to be strongly in favor of pushing ahead the inter-municipal cemetery scheme, and the city's two representatives on the Board of Trustees will probably be selected within the next two weeks.

As foreshadowed in The Colonist some weeks ago, the City Council has found the most formidable obstacles to progress in the municipalities outside, and negotiations at present are being held up by the apparent disinclination of Saanich and Oak Bay to agree to terms at once. The Esquimalt Council, according to Reeve Alex. Lockley, does not see any reason for early action, either, and as the city authorities do not see any cause for getting two or three stages ahead of the partner municipalities, the whole matter is hanging fire.

"The municipalities seem to want to hang back until the eleventh hour, and that seems to be a mistaken policy," said Mayor Porter yesterday. "No matter when we get a new cemetery, it is going to take a long time to prepare it for use, so that it is important to have a site chosen and the work commenced. We cannot do that until the trustees are appointed, and I am afraid that some of the church and fraternal organizations that have promised us support will bolt to private cemetery enterprises unless we do something soon."

There will be no cause for delaying removal of the caretaker's house at Ross Bay, as the cost of the work has been provided for in the year's estimates.

NO ALTERNATIVE TO ROCK BAY SCHEME

Ald. Sangster Claims City Engineer's Plan to Use E. & N. Span Is Cheapest—Must Have Movable Swing

It would cost more to rebuild the Rock Bay bridge with lumber than by using the steel span of the old Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway bridge, according to City Hall authorities.

The reason that a movable span has been provided for in all the estimates so far prepared is that this form of construction is required by the Dominion Government. There must be a sixty-foot swing, according to an Ottawa ruling, which was given some years ago as protection to the industries established on Rock Bay and dependent on transport of materials through or under the bridge.

The original by-law providing for restoration of the Rock Bay bridge, and which was rejected by the property owners in 1913, was prepared by former City Engineer C. H. Rust, and specified a wooden span. Alderman George Sangster, chairman of the Streets Committee, claims that the cost of this structure was not much less than the estimate for transferring the E. & N. steel span, and that this original figure would now have to be much increased, as provision would have to be made for rebuilding the wooden approaches, which in 1913 were fairly sound, although in a weak condition today, and badly in need of reinforcement. City Engineer F. M. Preston's estimate for making use of the E. & N. span at Rock Bay, submitted to the Council Monday night, totals about $92,000.

"I believe that the estimate given us by Mr. Preston represents absolutely the lowest figure for which the Rock Bay bridge could be rebuilt," said Alderman Sangster yesterday. "Utilization of the E. & N. span, already the property of the city, would cut off a large item, and would also result in making a more permanent structure than if it were wooden."

The Rock Bay project has been shelved, however, and it is probable that it will not be revived again this year.

Constipation

It is never necessary to take strong calomel or harsh castor oil to relieve constipation. Try a combination of simple herbs with pepsin, sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. It is a mild, gentle medicine so safe that thousands of mothers give it to tiny babies, and yet effective enough to relieve the most chronic constipation in grownups. The formula is on the package. A sixty-cent bottle lasts an average family many months, and is guaranteed to do as claimed or your money will be refunded. Eight million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin were sold in drug stores last year.

If you would like to test Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin free of charge before buying it in the regular way of your druggist, send your name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 19 Front St., Bridgeburg, Ont., and a free trial bottle will be sent you promptly, postpaid.

THOMPSON INDIANS CIRCULATE PETITION

Want Charles Spintium Installed as Chief to Succeed His Father—Representatives Visit Victoria

On behalf of Indians of the Thompson tribe, a petition is being circulated to instal Charles Spintium, son of the late David Spintium, chief of the Thompson tribe, as his father was before him. The petition is being made direct to Ottawa and is signed by several hundreds of the Indians of the tribe. The Thompson tribe embrace the Indians within a radius of 50 miles of Lytton. The signatories say they have undoubted faith in his ability to do what is right on behalf of the Indians, and at the same time prove friendly to the whites. They point out that this was ably proved by the late Chief David Spintium at the time of the advent of the white man on the banks of the Thompson and Fraser Rivers.

Representatives of the tribe visited Victoria yesterday and saw officials of the Provincial Government in connection with their petition.

GO AHEAD WITH HIGH SCHOOL PROBE

Investigators Conduct Inquiry Behind Closed Doors—Task Is Not Expected to Last Long

Working behind closed doors with the intention of making nothing public until the case is settled, Mr. D. L. McLaurin, principal of the Victoria Normal School, and Mr. G. A. Ferguson, principal of the King Edward High School, Vancouver, commenced their investigation into Victoria High School conditions yesterday afternoon.

Mr. McLaurin and Mr. Ferguson are appointees of the Provincial Department of Education to conduct a thorough inquiry into the causes of dissatisfaction among Principal Alexander Robinson and members of his teaching staff. The inquiry is the outcome of an agitation started by a committee representing twenty-nine High school teachers. "The "Committee of Twenty-nine" asked the School Board to co-operate with it in examining conditions on the ground that the state of affairs at the school was conducive to inefficiency and friction.

Members of the City Council have expressed dissatisfaction with the failure of the School Board to conduct the investigation itself, but now that the investigators have been appointed and the scope of the inquiry defined, the tendency of aldermen to criticize the Board has passed. Although the investigators declined to make any statement, it is the general belief that the probe will not last more than a couple of days, as nearly all the evidence to be taken will concern methods of administration almost solely, and it is improbable that classwork will be examined.

CHIEF TO REPORT ON CABARETS FRIDAY

Police Commissioners Not Likely to Meet Council This Week—Ald. Sangster Contradicts Commissioner North

As a result of Monday night's fiasco, it is improbable that the Police Commissioners will confer with the City Council this week, but they will have a meeting of their own Friday night, Mayor Robert J. Porter, chairman of the board, announced yesterday.

"We are going to ask Chief Fry to report on conditions since the enforcement of the Moderation Act, and perhaps he will have something to say about cabaret regulation," said the Mayor.

It is understood that Commissioners Joe North and Ernest A. Hall have a number of other matters to discuss at the meeting Friday.

The two commissioners attended Monday night's meeting of the City Council and expected to be given an opportunity to make certain recommendations regarding cabaret regulations. They were ignored.

"I told them quite plainly that they should come to the Streets Committee meeting Friday," said Ald. George Sangster yesterday. "Everyone ought to know that the Council does not hear deputations on Mondays. There is no use in Joe North trying to make out that I told them something else. Chief Fry and Inspector Perdue will bear me out when I say that it was Friday and not Monday I invited the commissioners to be present."

Ald. Sangster said that if the commissioners desired to attend next Friday's meeting of the Streets Committee they would be heard.

TO OVERLOOK NO ONE IN CENSUS

With most of the returns now in, Census Commissioner W. G. Gounce expects to wind up operations here within the next few days.

Mr. Gounce stated yesterday that anyone who believes he has been overlooked in the enrollment should communicate with his office by telephone (No. 4916) between the hours of 9 and 12 and 2 to 4 any day this week.

"It is important from every standpoint that our returns shall be as complete and reliable as possible," said Mr. Gounce. "The enumerators are nearly through with their work. They have been painstaking and conscientious. In many instances they have been obliged to return to homes several times because of absence, engagement or indifference of the people they have sought to interview. Such cases have been exceptions, however, the great mass of the people having extended every possible help to them in their work. With all their care, however, it is more than probable that some names have been omitted."

LAID PLAN TO TRAP CHINESE GAMBLERS

As Result Charlie Bo, Arrested on Warrant Charging Him With Attempting to Bribe Chief of Police Fry

Charlie Bo, Chinese tailor, and for many years a merchant in this city, was arrested yesterday morning on a warrant based upon information sworn out by Chief of Police John Fry, charging him with attempting to bribe the chief.

The arrest was effected by Detective Inspector George M. Perdue and Detective Sergeant Carlow, and within half an hour the accused was arraigned in the police court and formally charged. Magistrate Jay, at the request of Mr. R. C. Lowe, solicitor for Bo, remanded the case until Friday morning next. Bail was fixed at $2,000, which was promptly forthcoming and the accused released from jail.

The warrant, on which the arrest rests, sets forth that the alleged offence was committed on June 16 and recites that the accused "unlawfully attempted to give money or valuable consideration to a peace officer, to wit, John Fry, Chief of Police, for the City of Victoria, with intent to protect from detection persons intending to commit crime, contrary to the Criminal Code."

Chief in Ignorance

Not until Chief Fry was handed a roll of $400 last Thursday night in the office of Commissioner Hall and in the presence of the latter and Commissioner North did the chief have any idea that a scheme which the two commissioners had originated had been operated by the two commissioners in an effort to "clean up" Chinatown. At no time had the chief any communications, direct or indirect, with accused, the negotiations designed to aid the commissioners in their avowed intention to clean up the Oriental quarter having been conducted by them without the knowledge of the chief.

The commissioners' plan went even further, and only the determined opposition of Chief Fry prevented what was planned to have been a spectacular roundup in Chinatown. The commissioners, it was intimated by Chief Fry last evening, had urged that the plan of opening up Chinese gambling resorts, the plan which, it is alleged, was discussed by the commissioners with Bo, should be carried out. Some twenty-eight resorts in all were to be allowed to open with the supposed compliance of the commissioners, and then, after a day or two, a grand concerted raid by the police force would be made, and inmates, keepers, etc., found in the opened resorts would be rounded up.

But Chief Fry refused to countenance any such plan on the ground that such Chinese resorts as can legally be closed had already been closed, and he did not consider that he could properly, either legally or otherwise, resort to such measures to secure convictions of offenders.

Plan Curtailed

Hence it is that the whole plan as schemed out by the commissioners was not carried into effect. Instead the present prosecution against Charlie Bo is the extent to which the plan of a "clean up" will go for the time being at least.

Chief witnesses against the accused Bo, when the trial comes on next Friday will be the two Police Commissioners, and a third witness who, Commissioner North has informed the press, were present in the latter's home on several occasions when Charlie Bo, it is alleged, met Commissioner North and negotiations were undertaken whereby Bo was to pay North $500 to "fix" the Chief of Police and Dr. Hall; $500 more in July to permit fan-tan games to operate, and to give another $1,000 to Mr. North before next Christmas.

Chief Informed

Following an alleged interview between Commissioner North and Bo, at the former's residence on his invitation, Dr. Hall telephoned to Chief Fry, who was home in bed. The chief was summoned to meet the commissioners at Dr. Hall's office, where Commissioner North handed over the $400 alleged to have been paid by Bo to the chief, and then the latter was informed of what had transpired. This was the first intimation the chief had that any one, as alleged by the commissioners, had been attempting to bribe him.

The next day the commissioners met the chief and as the chief states, suggested to him to agree to allow the plan to go still further to the extent of allowing the resorts to open up for a few days, and then execute the grand finale in the campaign against gambling in Chinatown by making a general raid.

Last Saturday three premises, formally operated as Chinese lottery, opened on Cormorant Street, but were promptly closed when detectives, seeing signs of life therein, entered and ordered inmates to clear out. It looked then to the officers as if the Chinese proprietors of the places were preparing to resume operations. On Sunday, several other places were opened and promptly closed by the police.

When the prisoner was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning he was not called upon to plead as Prosecutor Harrison pointed out that under sections of the Code under which the charge was laid, sections 73 and 157, the accused would have to take a jury trial at the higher court.

BIG CROWD GOING TO MOUNT DOUGLAS

Civic Picnic Expected to Draw Many Victorians—Special Facilities for Entertainment Are Provided

Victorians will be introduced to some of the charms of Mount Douglas Park this afternoon and evening while the civic picnic, to which all citizens are invited, is in progress.

The Chamber of Commerce has completed arrangements for the event, an energetic committee under the chairmanship of Mr. John Wood having yesterday disposed of the last details of organization. Beginning at 2:30 and at frequent intervals, jitneys will leave the Victoria Public Library headed for Mount Douglas Park. This service has been promised by the Vic-arranged for a sufficient number of cars to handle the traffic. In addition, a large number of private cars will transport partisa to the park.

One of the big features of the outing will be a hill-climbing competition. The leaders in reaching the top of Mount Douglas (Cedar Hill) will be presented with theatre passes. The climb has been greatly facilitated within the last few months as a result of trail-clearing carried out by order of the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee.

Maypole and butterfly dances will be given by eighteen girls under the direction of Mrs. M. Welker, and the band of the Great War Veterans' Association will give a concert, providing accompaniment later for dancing.

It was announced yesterday that Mr. W. R. Field has been granted exclusive rights by the Victoria-Saanich Beaches and Parks Committee to sell refreshments in Mount Douglas Park, and he is establishing an up-to-date tea house. This will not be completed in time for the picnic today, but Mr. Field will be prepared to serve ice cream, fresh strawberries and cream, soft drinks and confectionery. The tea rooms are to be finished in rustic effect to harmonize with the natural beauty of the park.

Provision has been made for car parking and traffic control, this being in charge of the Saanich police force.

It will be a basket picnic, and hot water for tea and coffee will be provided by the park officials.

Exaggerated Reports—Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, who has returned to the city from a trip to the Delta section where he inspected the extent of flood damage done at Nieomen Island and other sections owing to high water in the Fraser Valley, states that reports of damage done have been exaggerated. The water is falling rapidly, and farmers will plant the flooded areas with grain and other late crops, and will stand an excellent chance of securing a good harvest.

City and District in Brief

Girls' Camp—The 'teen age girls' camp at Beaver Lake will be held from June 24 to July 2. There are still a few vacancies which the committee hopes to see filled.

Rotary Luncheon—The fellowship committee will be in charge of the programme at tomorrow's luncheon of the Rotary Club at the Empress Hotel.

Executive Meets—A meeting of the executive committee of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., is called for tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the headquarters, Jones Block.

G. A. U. V. Meeting—A meeting of the executive of the Grand Army of United Veterans will be held in their headquarters, 1216 Government Street, tomorrow evening promptly at 8 o'clock.

At St. Mark's Hall—A military five hundred will be held at St. Mark's Hall tonight, commencing at 8:30, in aid of the church restoration fund, and it is hoped that there will be a big attendance.

St. Mary's Picnic—The annual picnic of St. Mary's Sunday School, Oak Bay, will be held on Saturday, June 25. Pupils and their friends are asked to meet at the Sunday school at nine o'clock to go to Cadboro Bay.

Dogs Kill Pullets — Twenty-three pullets was the sum total of casualties in a raid which dogs made upon the hen roost belonging to Mrs. McKenzie, 2821 Shelbourne Street, on Monday night. The case has been reported to the police.

Chinaman Fined—A fine of $200, with the option of three months in jail, was imposed by Magistrate Jay in the police court yesterday morning on Gim, a Chinaman, found guilty of being in possession of opium in Government Street premises in Chinatown.

Abolishing Disease—Dr. T. W. Butler will speak at the New Thought Temple, 935 Pandora Avenue, tonight at 8 o'clock, on "How to Abolish Disease," to be followed by treatment to any who may request, either present or absent. All are cordially invited.

Enjoying Stay—Sir Alfred Yarrow, Bart., is enjoying his stay here immensely. "Anyone would like it," he remarked at the Empress Hotel yesterday, when asked for an opinion. He would say nothing on other matters, merely stating that he was here for a holiday.

Action Proceeding — Further evidence was taken yesterday in the Supreme Court in the action of Peatt versus Caulfield, before Mr. Justice Clements. The case, one affecting riparian rights, has brought forth a mass of testimony. Yesterday's evidence had to do with water levels of Glen Lake.

Gordon Head Dance—The Gordon Head Young Men's Club, assisted by the Gordon Head Women's Institute, will give a dance at Gordon Head Hall next Monday evening. Dancing will commence at nine o'clock and will conclude at one. Mr. Heaton will have charge of the music. Refreshments will be served.

Thanks for Assistance—Thanks to the police and to those who assisted the members of the motoring party which suffered in the accident on Sunday morning on North Quadra Street, when the motor car driven by Mr. R. E. Thomas, of Woodland Street, overturned, is extended by Mr. Thomas.

Guild of Health—Rev. T. E. Rowe will hold a service in the cathedral schoolroom this evening at eight o'clock, at which an address will be given by Mrs. A. M. Christie. Until further notice, the librarian will be at the schoolroom on Wednesday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock, for the convenience of those members who wish to exchange their books.

Centennial Church—There will be a garden party at the grounds of the Centennial Methodist Church this afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock. Tea will be served at 6 o'clock and a continuous entertainment will start at 7:30 o'clock. There will be stalls for the sale of various goods and a cafeteria will be conducted all afternoon.

Starting for Halifax—Mr. J. B. Haynes, of the 7th Battalion, and a veteran of both the Canadian and Imperial armies, is starting a hike this afternoon from Vancouver to Halifax. Mr. Haynes, who has taken record-breaking walks in India and China, expects to average thirty miles a day and subsist along the way by the sale of postcards and by lecturing in small theatres.

St. Ann's Closing — The annual school closing exercises of St. Ann's Academy are to be held this week, commencing this afternoon with a programme for the intermediate and junior grades, and concluding with the senior grades' programme on Friday evening. Rev. Father Wood will give the address to the pupils this afternoon, and Rev. Mgr. Laterme will give the address on Friday night.

Girls' Corner Club—Professor Ellis, of the Bible Training School, Vancouver, will be the guest of the club this week, and will give a short address. Supper will be served at 6:15 p.m., and all members are asked to be present. Tickets are now ready for the annual picnic, which will be held on July 6, the girls going in tallyhos to Finlayson Arm.

Margaret Jenkins School—The midsummer closing exercises of the Margaret Jenkins School will be held in the assembly room of the school on Thursday, June 23, commencing at 1:30 p.m. There will be a short programme, followed by the giving of the honor rolls, and prizes, and the announcement of promotions for the coming term. Parents and friends of the school are cordially asked to be present.

Home Cooking Stall—The home cooking stall in aid of the Seamen's Institutes, which is being held by the kind permission of Messrs. D. Spencer's, Ltd., on Saturday next, is bidding fair to have a good supply of cakes, bread, eggs, jams, fruit, candies and flowers. Friends who are contemplating the sending of goods are asked to kindly leave them at the Connaught Seamen's Institute, Superior Street, on Friday, or at the stall at 9 a.m. on Saturday.

Amalgamation Meeting—The committee appointed by the Victoria unit of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association to consider a scheme whereby the ex-service organizations could amalgamate, after giving due consideration to same last night, decided to call a special general meeting of the unit for the purpose of presenting their report. This meeting will be held in their headquarters, Hamley Building, on Thursday evening, June 30.

Provincial Bonds—It is stated by Mr. H. A. Ross, who negotiated the recent purchase of Provincial bonds on behalf of the firm of A. E. Ames & Co., and Wood, Gundy & Co., that the issue has so far been very well received in the Eastern markets, and he fully expects the bonds to be distributed within the time anticipated. His advice from the syndicate is that the bonds are two-thirds sold, although they have only been offered since Thursday to other investment houses, and since Friday to the public.

A Child's Sympathy—Little Rosalind W., aged six years, overheard the conversation between her parents, the other afternoon, as regards the home cooking stall for the Seamen's Institutes, which is being held at Messrs. D. Spencer's on Saturday next. She immediately took her money box, opened it, and drew out her savings, which amounted to 17 cents, saying, "Here, daddy, will you please give this to the man who is asking for cakes for the stall, so that he may buy one, for the poor fellow must be hungry."

To Elk Lake—Automobiles making the trip this afternoon to "Norfolk Lodge," Elk Lake, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oldfield, should follow the East Saanich Road past Elk Lake to Brookleigh Road, turning to the left to "Norfolk Lodge." Tea and ice cream will be served on the grounds. For the benefit of visitors and others desiring transportation, sight seeing cars will leave the city as announced in another column. The afternoon's outing and arrangements are made in behalf of the Precincts Furnishing Fund of Christ Church Cathedral.

Garden City W. I.—A garden party, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Garden City Women's Institute Hall fund, will be held at the home of Mrs. Harrison, Jasmine Avenue, today, and will be opened at 3 p.m. by Mrs. Watson, of Gordon Head. There will be home cooking, candy and superfluities stalls. Tea, ice cream, strawberries and soft drinks will be served, and the amusements provided will include aunt sally, shooting gallery, fortune telling, quoits and tennis. At 8 p.m. an open air concert and community sing will be held if the weather is favorable.

Electors Disfranchised—At yesterday's sitting of the Court of Revision for the electoral ridings of Victoria and Esquimalt fifty new names were added to the voters' lists and a like number of reinstatements of electors who failed to vote at the recent Provincial Elections and who, therefore, would have been struck off the revised list had they not applied for reinstatement. The revision of the list is now completed by Registrar Mabon, and in the two ridings about 4,000 electors who failed to apply for reinstatement will not have their names on the revised list.

Students Receive Diplomas — Five students of the Sprott-Shaw Business Institute have recently completed their course in higher accountancy. This is the first course in this advanced subject to be given by personal instruction, and the results obtained justify the continuation of this course in the Fall. Those who received diplomas were: C. Morrison, J. Fitzgerald, H. Munday, F. Walker and A. Eals. The course was directed by Mr. Leo A. Grogan, C.G.A., who was assisted in auditing by Mr. W. Benvie Anderson, C.A., and in economics by Mr. Thomas J. Goodlake, B.A.

Diamond Snakes—Two Australian diamond snakes, measuring respectively 9 feet and 6 feet, are at present in this city, with their owner, Mr. Herbert T. Robert, of Melbourne, Australia. Their owner remarks that in their native country they are valued for their assistance to the farmers, in that they eat the rabbits and field mice. The snakes, he assures the public, are perfectly harmless, and their appetite is by no means a menace to the H. C. L., as they are only hungry seven or eight times a year, and are then appeased with a rabbit or two during the remainder of the year, and when they are in captivity Mr. Robert feeds them with an egg forced down by the means of a syringe. At present Mr. Robert is demonstrating Vito-Lac at the corner of Fort and Government Streets, where his pets are drawing large crowds of spectators.

Pullman Air Service

The Royal Dutch Air Service, which, is a private enterprise aided by the Dutch Government, has commenced operating a luxurious airplane service between Croydon (near London), England, and Dutch cities. These flying "Pullmans" provide softly cushioned armchairs, with writing tables for each passenger, and the interiors of the cars are fitted with satinwood panels, mirrors and so on. The arrangements include one departure each day from Croydon, at 10 a.m., halting at Rotterdam for fifteen minutes, and continuing to Amsterdam. The fare from Croydon to Amsterdam is £16-16s. Between the latter place and Copenhagen air connections are provided. The through fare to Copenhagen is £34 6s.—Scientific American.

PARIS, June 21. — The Grand Steeplechase has been won by an obscure horse, Roi de Beige, which was purchased by Leon Volterra, a Paris theatrical producer, in a moment of jesting. He bid on the horse when it was auctioned recently at Auteuil, offering 11,000 francs. Being a producer of musical shows he did not know what to do with a racehorse, and left it in the care of the stable man.

Making History.

INFANT MORTALITY in past ages has been something frightful, something almost beyond belief, and even today it occupies the time and the mind of leading physicians in all countries. The death rate among infants is being gradually reduced through new methods of hygiene, new preventatives and new remedies for infants. This reduction in the death rate has NOT been accomplished by adapting the precautions taken and remedies used by adults. Rather has it been to keep clear of the old methods, and choose after long research the precautions and remedies specifically applicable to infants.

This being so, is it necessary for us to caution mothers against trying to give her baby relief with a remedy that she would use for herself? Will she remember that Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for infants and children?

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Of Course You Love Your Baby.

You love it because of its very helplessness, because it can't tell you what is the matter when it feels bad. It can only cry and look to you for help. But the more you love baby, the more you want to help baby, the more you ought to realize what a wonderful remedy Fletcher's Castoria is. It has been used for babies' ailments for over thirty years.

An experienced doctor discovered Fletcher's Castoria especially for babies' use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Doctors who know what is safe and best for babies have only good to say of it.

Don't neglect your baby. Get a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria and give baby a few doses of it. See how the little one smiles at you as if trying to thank you for helping it. Soon you will learn to depend on Fletcher's Castoria, made just for Infants and Children, and of course you would not think of using anything for them that was not prepared especially for Infants and Children. So keep it in the house.

Fresh Beef Tongue—Italian

For this dish one should have a nice fresh beef tongue. Dip the tongue in boiling water for 5 minute, remove and scrape off the skin with a knife. Parboil the tongue in boiling water for one hour. Place the parboiled tongue in a saucepan with four tablespoons of butter, a sliced onion, two branches of parsley, a sliced carrot and brown slightly. Add half a cup of orange juice, five cups of brown stock and two tomatoes cut in pieces. Place a cover on the pan and allow the tongue to simmer in the oven for two hours, turning it occasionally. After two hours the liquid should be reduced to a thick brown sauce. Remove the tongue and slice it; place it on a hot platter as if it were whole. Strain the sauce and remove the fat. Parboil in half a cup of orange juice three blanched and chopped almonds, three tablespoons of seedless raisins and three tablespoons of sultana raisins; when the raisins are plump add to the hot sauce, mix well and pour over the tongue. Serve with this dish a green salad and a dish of spaghetti mixed with some of the sauce from the tongue.

Tip of Beef With Horseradish Sauce

Roast sirloin tip of beef was very tasty served with a fresh horseradish sauce. Place a four or five-pound piece of sirloin tip of beef in a pan and bake in a moderate oven until medium rare. When more than half done, add to the pan a dozen peeled raw potatoes and bake them with the meat, basting them with the gravy in the pan.

For the horseradish sauce, place one cup of freshly grated horseradish in a bowl, add half a teaspoon of salt, half a teaspoon of sugar and enough thick cream to make a thick sauce. Serve separate in a sauce boat.

Veal Cutlets a la Wall Street

At one of the old-time lunch cafes near Wall Street they served for lunch a veal cutlet paprika that is very nice. Fry to nice brown one sliced onion in four tablespoons of butter, add two teaspoons of paprika and a tablespoon of flour and cook two minutes; moisten with a cup of brown stock and add two tablespoons of capers, the juice of half a lemon and a small piece of the lemon rind; boil five minutes and strain. Meat extract can be used to make the brown stock. Have the butcher cut four slices of veal from the loin or leg, one-half an inch thick, free from bone and gristle, season them with pepper and salt, dip in flour and fry slowly in butter to a nice golden brown. Place the cutlets on a hot platter, pour over the prepared paprika sauce and garnish with boiled rice, well drained.

ENG.-LIEUT. CLARKE TO BE AT ESQUIMALT

To Succeed Commander H. E. Holme, R.C.N., whose Duties Expire June 30—Commander Nixon for Senior Officer

Information was received from Ottawa yesterday that Engineer-Lieutenant Commander G. P. Clarke has been appointed to succeed Commander H. E. Holme, R.C.N., as commander in charge at the Naval Dockyard, Esquimalt, with Commander Nixon as Senior Naval Officer of the port.

Engineer Lieutenant Clarke came to Esquimalt last June as Chief Engineer, having left the Queen Elizabeth in order to take on his duties here. He trained as a naval cadet at Keyham, Devonport, England, and has had considerable experience both during the war and previously. For some time he served on the Niobe, subsequently being on the Lord Nelson, later being appointed to the Monarch, then to the Sutlej, which he took during the war down the West Coast of Africa. He was occupied for some time in the building of the light cruiser Coventry, and between that time and his appointment to the Queen Elizabeth as senior engineer under Admiral Sir Charles Madden he was for a period on the Harwich. Ottawa recalled him for Canadian service in order to bring him out to the Esquimalt station about a year ago.

Commander Holme's duties expire on June 30, and he will sail on July 29 for England.

NEW ATHLETIC CLUB IS FULL OF PROGRESS

Spencer's Athletic Association Is Now Participating in Many Forms of Athletic Activity With Success

Spencer's Athletic Association, which was recently organized, has taken quite a stride into the many athletic activities, and now boasts of participating in tennis, bowling, swimming and cricket enterprises. The organization, which is headed by Mr. S. Cooper, president, and Mr. W. Lees, secretary, has a membership of 160, most of whom are employees of the establishment.

The tennis department of the club is under the guidance of Mr. Laver, and is making much progress. Courts have been obtained at Craigdarroch, where every evening, members of the association enjoy the popular pastime. This afternoon the members of the club will play a tournament with the Cedar Hill Tennis Club at the latter's courts at Cedar Hill. The challenge from the Cedar Hill folk was recently received, and the local people are out to capture today's matches. The games will consist of ladies' doubles, men's doubles and mixed doubles.

Mr. Wescott has taken charge of the bowling arrangements of the club and plans are now being made towards challenging other bowling associations in the near future. The bowling lawns are also at Craigdarroch, where the club secured the use of the castle for their club-rooms. The place has been renovated to meet the requirements of the club, and is very convenient to the members.

The swimming activities of the association are being well looked after by Mr. W. Lees, and the club is now affiliated with the Vancouver Island Athletic Association's swimming club. Their headquarters are at the Gorge, and through the kindness of Mr. W. H. Davies and the members of that association, the club has the use of the premises for swimming during the Summer.

Mr. Fred Smith, who is convener of the cricket club, announces that the club will play the Broad Street aggregation this afternoon. The cricket team will play the Vancouver store's team in the Terminal City on July 13, and a return match will be played here on August 17.

The Spencer's Athletic Association intends during the next few months to actively participate in most of the athletic events in the city, and with such a large membership, they will have good material to pick from. Many of the club's affairs are wound up with informal dances at their club quarters which have greatly aided and increased the spirit of sociability amongst the members of the association.

WAIRUNA ARRIVED FOR LOCAL CARGO

The Canadian-Australasian freighter Wairuna finally reached port yesterday, docking at eight in the morning from Sydney, N.S.W., and Samoa. A Cordial Invitation to Disease

This is an apt description of Constipation. It's an unnatural condition to begin with—but it's dangerous because it leads to indigestion, fills the system with poisons, brings on anaemia. You don't need a purgative, you don't want to weaken the system by a harsh, griping medicine—what you need is a mild natural stimulant to the bowels. You get just what you need in Dr. Hamilton's Pills which tone up the liver, restore the bowels to perfect action and positively end constipation. You feel tip-top after regulating your system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Good for young and old—a real family medicine. 25c all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Montreal. (Advt.)

FOOTBALL TEAM DID NOT ARRIVE

Kiwanians Held Luncheon in Honor of Visitors, But They Were Too Late for Function

The Scotch football team failed to appear for the special luncheon put on in the Elks' Club yesterday by the Kiwanis Club in honor of the visitors. They did not reach the city from Nanaimo in time and it was impossible to postpone the affair.

A special Scotch feature on the programme was the selection on the bagpipes by "Billie" McGregor. Songs were rendered by Mr. Adams. There was a considerable number of guests at the luncheon and a special attendance prize was given for them, it being won by Mr. Percy Watson. Dr. Burgess was the winner of the members' attendance prize. Kiwanian Walter Maguire was the chairman for the day.

Kiwanian Sid Newton announced that the orphans' committee had decided to hold a picnic for the children on July 1, at Oak Bay.

It was announced that Kiwanian Dave Macfarlane would stage a baseball game between local amateurs, the proceeds to go to the Jubilee Hospital Building Fund.

In place of the usual luncheon next Tuesday, the committee in charge announced an outdoor supper at Gordon Head.

WILL PICNIC AT GORGE

I.A. to Army and Navy Veterans Will Hold Outing on July 6

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Army and Navy Veterans was held last night in the Hamley Building, with the president, Mrs. H. Chapman, in the chair. A number of committee reports were presented.

The question as to whether the organization should hold a picnic in the near future was raised, and it was decided to conduct one on Wednesday, July 6, at the City Park, at the Gorge. Members of the Auxiliary are requested to meet at the end of the carline on the morning of the picnic day at 10:30 o'clock, and members of the men's organization are asked to attend about noon. Dinner and supper will be partaken of at the park, and during the afternoon children's sports will be conducted, towards which the meeting last night donated a small sum for the purchase of prizes.

The gathering decided to hold a sale of work, candy and home cooking in the Hamley Building, on the afternoon of July 23, the proceeds of which will go to augment the organization's funds. Mrs. Spavin was appointed convener for the affair.

The proceeds from the last "500" drive which the Auxiliary held, were turned in last night, and a substantial amount was secured. The ladies have decided to discontinue their fortnightly "500" tournaments until Autumn.

Toronto Printers' Strike

TORONTO, June 21.—A suggestion that negotiations be entered into between the striking printers in this city and the employers was made yesterday by officers of the Typographical Union, but little headway was made on account of the union printers sticking out for the 44-hour week. It is possible negotiations will be begun before long, but the employers profess to be as determinedly set against the 44-hour week as at the beginning of the trouble.

OBITUARY NOTICES

STOKES—The funeral of the late Mrs. Phoebe Stokes, wife of Mr. Harry Stokes, of 2044 Orillia Street, took place yesterday afternoon from the B.C. Funeral Chapel, where service was conducted by Rev. F. H. Fatt. Many friends of the deceased were present and the casket was covered with floral tributes. During the service the hymns "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" and "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er" were sung. At the conclusion the cortege proceeded to Ross Bay Cemetery where the remains were laid to rest. The following acted as pallbearers, all being officers of Court Northern Light, A.O.F., of which court Mr. Stokes is a member: Bro. W. F. Fullerton, Bro. A. W. Gill, Bro. J. H. Comber and Bro. G. D. Eden.

APPELDORN—On the 21st inst., at his home 1514 Haultain Street, Otto Wilhem Appeldorn, aged 42 years, a native of Copenhagen, Denmark, and a resident of Canada for the past 18 years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter two years old. The deceased was a returned soldier, leaving here with the 103rd Battalion as quartermaster-sergeant, with headquarters in London. He served with great distinction during the war and was associated with the secret service as interpreter, being able to speak several languages. He was a member of Alberni Lodge, A.F. & A.M. The funeral service will take place from the Thomson Funeral Home, Thursday afternoon, June 23, at 2:30, with full military honors.

POLSON—The death occurred yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital, of Annie Isabelle Polson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Polson, of 736 Cloverdale Avenue. Deceased was born in Khidonan, Manitoba, and had been a resident of this city for the past thirteen years, and is survived by her parents and one sister. The remains will repose at the Sands Funeral Chapel until Thursday morning, the 23rd inst., when the casket will be removed to the above residence, where the funeral will take place at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

LORDS DISCUSS IRISH AFFAIRS

Marquis of Salisbury and Others Blame Government for Want of Action—Lord High Chancellor's Reply

LONDON, June 21.—The House of Lords today resumed the debate on the Irish situation adjourned from June 16. Lord Salisbury blamed the Government for its failure to postpone the elections in the south. He said the elections had simply provided an opportunity for the Irish people to declare for in favor of a republic, for moderate opinion was completely controlled by extreme opinion. The Government could only continue to experiment, but ought to announce any amendments to the Home Rule Act it was prepared to propose.

Lord Dunraven emphasized the confusion prevailing in Ireland, and said that deliverance could only come by legislation amending the act in a direction which would be supported by moderate opinion.

The Government, he declared, had made a mistake in not appealing straight to the Irish people. He did not believe that they were republicans at heart. While nobody could say that a liberal measure would be accepted now, he was positive it would have been accepted six months ago. He urged the Government to put it to the test.

Viscount Birkenhead, Lord High Chancellor, alluding to the viceroy's recent speech, which he construed as implying that the Home Rule Act needed prompt and drastic amendment, said it was not the object of the Viceroy to make any important pronouncement on policy. The Viceroy's attention was concentrated on some relatively minor points to which amendments might be necessary, Lord Birkenhead declared. The Viceroy had no intention of raising the impression that it was the policy to introduce any considerable number of amendments to the bill at an early date.

The Lord Chancellor ridiculed the idea that the Home Rule Act or its failure was responsible for the state of affairs in Ireland. It was no small gain that a representative parliament of six counties in Ireland had been brought into existence. The history of the last few months was, in his opinion, the history of failure of the Government's military measures to keep pace with and overcome the military measures taken by its opponents.

This, he added, would lead to the conclusion that whatever efforts might be required to deal with the situation would be forthcoming, whatever sacrifice it involved to the people of this country.

Referring to the position which would be created in the event the Southern Parliament failed to function, the Lord Chancellor said the Government had provided for such a possibility. The Viceroy of South Ireland would then be in the position of a constitutional sovereign, and would be assisted by his Ministers. The Chancellor was confident that if a wise accommodation was reached between the North and South, it would be by using the machinery provided by the act for bridging the difficulties which existed.

The Earl of Donoughmore's motion, which started the debate, that the Government should determine forthwith what amendments it was prepared to propose to the Irish Act and authorize negotiations calculated to, terminate the deadlock, was defeated.

SOCCER PLAYERS ARE GUESTS AT CONCERT

Visiting Scottish Team Last Night Entertained by United Scottish Societies and Local Football Association

The hilarious skirl of pipes which welcomed the Scottish footballers on their arrival at Caledonia Hall last evening was typical of the reception and entertainment given there to these athletic visitors by their compatriots in Victoria.

The 16th Canadian Scottish Pipe Band escorted the visitors from the Empress hotel to the hall on View Street, and for a short time enlivened the district with their spirited music. Afterwards they followed the noted football players upstairs and took their seats in the front of the hall, immediately across from those occupied by the visitors, who came in charge of Colonel Wilson to enjoy the excellent entertainment prepared for them by the United Scottish Societies (the Knights of the Thistle and the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society), and the Victoria District Football Society.

His Worship Mayor Porter, who took the chair, was introduced by Mr. "Jimmy" Adam, president of the Victoria Football Association, who previously, on behalf of his organization, welcomed the visiting team as "the finest organization of footballers that had ever visited Canada, and which he hoped after tomorrow would continue their winning career throughout the Dominion."

Mayor's Welcome

"It is my pleasing duty, on behalf of the citizens of Victoria, to welcome you to the city," said Mayor Porter, in addressing the visiting soccer players. "We have anticipated your visit for some time with a great deal of pleasure, and we are at last delighted that you have reached our city. As a people we are devoted to sport, and many of our citizens have won distinction in some branch of it. We have noted with pleasure that you have always played your game fairly and squarely; that you have beaten and vanquished every team you have met; but I anticipate that you will find greater difficulty tomorrow," added the speaker, with humor. His address of welcome concluded with a reiterated expression of the hope that their visit to the city would be pleasant and that they would find it possible to come back at some future time.

Later Colonel Wilson, who came in charge of the aggregation of selected "internationals," responded to the kind words of welcome. They had met with nothing but the heartiest of greetings wherever they had gone in Canada, and they would go back to the Old Land with very happy memories of their visit. Victoria had put down something in the way of a challenge, he said, referring to the Mayor's smiling allusion to the mettle of the local team — but Scotsmen, it must be remembered, always fought best with their backs to the wall. This last sally was greeted with a roar of laughter.

The Programme

The evening's entertainment consisted of a musical programme, followed by an alfresco supper and a dance, Wallace's orchestra supplying the music for the last. An excellent committee, headed by Mr. R. McIntosh, president of the Knights of the Thistle, and Mr. R. Laughland, president of St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society, included Messrs. M. McDuff, James Henderson, Alec Wallace and William Angus. The concert opened with some selections by Miss Agnes Wallace on the pipes, "Blue Bonnets Over the Border," "Miss Drummond, of Perth," and the reel, "The Kilt Is My Delight," starting the entertainment with the right Scottish atmosphere. There followed a very good menu of Highland and Lowland numbers:

Mrs. Ogilvie sang "Scottish Blue Bells"; Mr. "Bob" Morrison, "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton"; Mrs. Robert Baird, "It's Quiet Down Here"; Mr. J. G. Brown, "We're A' Scottish Here," and "Sing a Song of Bonnie Scotland"; Mr. J. R. C. Ogilvie, "Hurrah for the Highlands"; Mr. Neil Black, Scottish comedian, "The Troosers Tha' Me Faither Used to Wear-r-r," and "I Love to Be a Sailor"; and Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvie in duet, "The Crooked Bawbee."

Mr. Dan Wallace played the accompaniments, and the Pipers came in charge of Pipe-Major Donald Cameron.

Against Oriental Exploitation

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., June 21.—At a meeting attended by representatives of all soldiers' organizations held in the G.W.V.A. clubroom tonight it was decided to cable to Premier Meighen, now in London, urging that in the new Anglo-Japanese agreement, which is under consideration, provision should be made against the continued exploitation of British Columbia by Orientals.

Favors Exclusion of Asiatics

DENVER, Colo., June 21.—The American Federation of Labor convention today went on record as favoring total exclusion of Japanese and other Orientals from the United States. The executive council was instructed to take steps to prevent any modification of the Chinese exclusion act. They were also urged to work for the repeal of the "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan under which Japan was said to have "outwitted the intent of the law."

MANY TENNIS MATCHES DECIDED YESTERDAY

Fine Weather Allowed Excellent Progress to Be Made in Victoria Club's Tournament —Many Close Games

The change of weather yesterday was welcome to nobody more than the members of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club who were able to resume play in the club's handicap tournament which had been interrupted by the heavy rain at the start of the week. A large number of matches were decided yesterday and the closeness with which the greater number were contested speaks well for the way in which the handicapping committee has done its work and guarantees a very interesting tournament throughout with prospects of some rare tussles in the final stages.

Games decided yesterday were as follows:

HAS DOUBTFUL STORY ABOUT SUBMARINES

NEW YORK, June 21.—Two submarines, flying the Irish republican flag, maintain a regular under-sea passenger service between this country and Ireland for officials and agents of the "Irish republic," according to Captain B. J. Shanley, secretary of the New York council of the American association for the recognition of the "Irish republic."

Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish republic, arrived in this country in 1919 in an airship-submarine, Shanley declares, and left for Ireland several months later in the same fashion. Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who disappeared from the United States after he had been given until June 6 to reship for Ireland as a seaman by the Department of Labor, is said to have returned to Ireland by the submarine route.

EXPLOSION IN MINE KILLS EIGHTY-THREE

BERLIN, June 21.—The toll of death in the explosion in the Mont Cenis mine, near Herne, Westphalia, Sunday, has reached 83 today.

The wounded aggregate 100, some of whom, it is reported, may not live. The disaster was due to an explosion of fire damp.

Twelve hundred men were in the mine when the explosion occurred, some were working half a mile away. Many miners are still entombed in the mine.

SPINSTERS' CONVENTION

Three M. Society Last Night Produced One-Act Farce at Congregational Church

Over two hundred people crowded the schoolroom of the First Congregational Church last night to witness the one-act playlet, "The Spinsters' Convention," which was produced by members of the "Three M" Society of the church. The entertainment proved a decided success.

The activities of the "Convention" kept the audience in a continual state of laughter. Mrs. W. D. Spence, as "Josephine Jane Green," was the president of the body; Miss Muriel Kelly, as "Priscilla Abigail Hodge" was the secretary, and Miss Dorothy Kerr, as "Calamity Jane Higgins" was treasurer. Miss Rita Hicks appeared in a fairy dance, and musical numbers were interspersed throughout the "Convention," the assisting artistes being Mrs. Patterson, Miss Elsie Hole, Miss Margaret Patterson and Miss Dora Curtis.

Mr. William Erickson acted as Professor, who addressed the "Convention," and was assisted in his part by Mr. A. Crawshaw. During the evening two well known local entertainers, "Yorkie" and Parson Blair, contributed numbers, which were greatly enjoyed.

The entire cast of the play was as follows: Mesdames Curtis, Smith, Locke, Patterson, Oxard, Birkett, Spence, and the Misses M. Bjolander, A. Bjolander, D. Kerr, M. Kelly, S. Kelly, W. Scowcroft, M. Simpson, M. Girling, G. Shephard and R. Hicks, and Messrs. Erickson and Crawshaw.

THINKS DANCE CRAZE WILL BE MODERATED

TORONTO, June 21.—The effect of the public dance halls in the city is most pernicious, according to Rev. J. E. Hunter, of the Euclid Avenue Methodist Church, commenting upon a dispatch from the Methodist Conference of Manitoba, now in session in Winnipeg, where the statement was made "that if dancing is here to stay the Methodist Church might as well shut up shop."

But Rev. Mr. Hunter, professedly not a crank on dancing, thinks that dancing in its modern acute form is not here to stay.

"Like most forms of pleasure crazes, I think that you will see that it will pass away. It is pretty largely the outcome of the years of strain of the war, it seems to me. I am not a crank on dancing, by any means," said Mr. Hunter. "You have to be careful when you talk of suppressing dancing. There is some rhythmic instinct in human nature that finds expression in the dance, and you have to be careful how you handle it."

Cuticura Soap —Is Ideal for— The Complexion

ELOPEMENTS IN AULD LANG SYNE

The sixth and seventh clauses in the Sumerian law found at Yale some four years ago, and again in the public eye because of the find at the University of Pennsylvania Mussum of a code similar to the Sumerian, and the Code of Hammurabi, deal with elopement in 4000 B. C. For many years the Code of Hammurabi was thought to be the oldest legal lore in existence, although scholars were all agreed that it was undoubtedly revised from a much older document. Dr. Albert T. Clay claimed a greater antiquity for the Sumerian law found in the Babylonian section at Yale, although not declaring that his proofs were incontrovertible, and Pennsylvania now believes that its latest find is the oldest of all. Undoubtedly one antedated the other by a little and overlapped by a great deal. Each code has derived something from the other.

The light on elopement shed by the Sumerian law is arresting. It was a brave lad who would elope with a Sumerian girl.

In those days the fathers and mother's place in the home was fixed and definite and powerful. Marriages were arranged somewhat after the present fashion in France. It was the parents who decided the marriage price or dowry. Laws then in force regulated the future disposal of that dowry in case of death or divorce.

Eloping was more difficult of accomplishment then than now, and more culpable. The herdy lover had one loophole: he might evade legal death penalty for a guilty male eloper by omitting to obey the law and ask the consent of the parents of his loved one. If he expected a refusal, he was a fool to court it. But it is possible that some poor boy would not know he was frowned upon until he had put his suit to the test. But "if he had not consulted the parents of the girl a penalty or price was imposed, and after his assent to it the girl was given him in wedlock."

"Doubtless, the penalty of price was regarded as terhatu, or bride price, and formed the basis of a contract, which was then 'drawn up.'" (Clay.) "In such cases the young man having little or no means doubtless simply assented to the amount specified. Even at the present time in Syria, the amount paid and given to the girl, which with a like sum from her father forms the dowry when the contract is made, may only be a portion of what is agreed upon. The balance of the price is paid to the wife in the event of a divorce."

KAMLOOPS WAS SCENE OF PRETTY WEDDING

Frances Winifred McQuarrie Became Bride of Percival Jeeves, of This City—Will Reside Here

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's Church, Kamloops on June 14, when Percival, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jeeves, of Victoria, and Frances Winifred, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McQuarrie, of the Harper Ranch, Kamloops, were united in marriage by the Rev. H. R. McGill.

The bride wore a traveling suit of embroidered taupe tricotine with hat en suite, with corsage bouquet of bridal roses, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Helen E. Morton, as matron of honor, wearing a pretty gown of pink silk voile with hat to match of pink mohair. The bride's mother wore a gown of plum satin with vestee of lace.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a handsome necklet of pearls, and to the matron of honor a string of novelty beads. The happy couple left Kamloops on the noon train for Victoria and later made a tour of the Island.

A reception was held on Monday evening last at the home of the bridegroom's parents, 2811 Rose Street, the bridegroom's mother receiving the guests in a gown of black silk with collar of lace. The drawing room was tastefully decorated with a profusion of flowers and the bridal couple received the congratulations of their many friends standing under a floral arch from which a large wedding bell was suspended. The bride's girlish beauty was enhanced by a lovely gown of peach colored georgette over satin with panels of beaded georgette. In the dining room, where the guests partook of a dainty buffet supper, the color scheme was carried out in pale yellow and white, colored lights from the ceiling giving a delightful effect. In the centre of the table stood the beautiful wedding cake surrounded by tiny rose buds and maiden hair fern.

The many beautiful presents which the happy couple received, testified to the esteem in which they are held.

CHAPTER WAS GIVEN INTERESTING REPORT

Mrs. R. S. Day Delegate From Bishop Cridge Chapter to National Convention at Toronto Presents Report

The meeting of the Bishop Cridge Chapter, I.O.D.E., which was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Mess, proved to be of an exceptionally interesting character, the main feature of the afternoon being a splendid report given by Mrs. R. S. Day, who was the Chapter's representative at the recently held National annual meeting of the I.O.D.E. in Toronto. The members of the Chapter are very grateful to Mrs. Day for the care with which she compiled her report, and a standing vote of thanks was accorded her at the conclusion of her address. Mrs. Day presented the Chapter with a souvenir copy of the Agenda of the Toronto meeting.

The Chapter has decided to hold an ice cream social afternoon during July for the patients of the tubercular ward at the Jubilee Hospital. Yesterday's meeting will be the last meeting until September, and at the conclusion of the business Mrs. Mess served tea and refreshments to the members.

Nova Scotia Farmers' Grievances

STELLARTON, N. S., June 21.—Resolutions expressing regret that members of the Federal Parliament and the provincial House of Assembly had seen fit to propose increases in sessional indemnities without authorization from the electorate; calling attention to inequalities in municipal assessment in Nova Scotia and recommending a uniform assessment for the whole province, featured the session of the annual convention of the United Farmers' Association of Pictou County here yesterday.

JAPANESE TREATY TO BE RENEWED

Washington Makes Statement on Information Said to Be Authentic—Amendments to Be Proposed by Britain

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Japan will be notified this month of the purpose of Great Britain to renew the treaty between the two nations, according to information obtained today from an authoritative source.

It is said that the State Department has been kept informed of the plans of the British Government, and that the latter has given assurance that in the renewal of the treaty every precaution will be taken to guard against the inclusion of anything inimical to American rights.

According to information here, while the Imperial conference in London will deal with the subject, the discussion will be with the purpose of enabling Dominion representatives of Great Britain to express their views upon the general subject with special reference to its relation to America, and to suggest amendments.

The British Government is expected to propose one amendment, which would make it plain that Great Britain would not take up arms against the United States in the event of hostilities between this country and Japan.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES DO VALUABLE WORK

EDMONTON, June 21.—Speaking before the Federated Women's Institutes' convention, Mrs. Jean Muidrew, director of the home branch of the soldier settlement board, urged the closest co-operation between home workers in all parts of the Dominion

There should be no distinction between the eastern and western provinces, but complete harmony and unity ought to characterize the efforts of all citizens in Canada's interests Mrs. Muidrew told her audience.

As an official of the soldier settlement board, Mrs. Muldrew had come closely into contact with the Women's Institutes in various parts of Canada, and recognized the value of its work. In rural communities, particularly, the institute, she had found, had done much to bring about a spirit of neighborliness and friendliness.

The newly formed National Federation was praised by the speaker.

This evening's programme was purely social, consisting of a reception at the home of Mrs. Nellie McClung.

FOODS THAT POISON

The case of an American student who committed suicide because he was unable to tolerate eggs in any shape or form, has brought into prominence a fact, well known to the medical profession for some time, that to certain people the apparently most innocent articles of diet are extremely toxic. Truly, "One man's meat is These food idiosyncrasies are more common than is generally supposed. A list of over one hundred articles of diet which have produced more or less definite symptoms of poisoning has been made. This list is most varied and includes eggs, fish, pork, potatoes and other vegetables, strawberries, tomatoes, and honey.

But all these do not produce violent symptoms; the poisoning may be shown by extreme collapse, nausea, vomiting, and colicky pains, or perhaps merely by slight headache or a rash on the skin.

In some subjects an attack of asthma will be brought on by eating some particular food, while honey may produce a typical attack of "hay fever" in persons subject to that complaint.

These untoward symptoms are due to a protein in the food eaten being incompatible with the proteins of the blood and tissue fluids, and nature gives warning of this by means of the reaction induced.

When the exact nature of the foreign protein is unknown, or only suspected, tests are made with several until the offender is detected.

To accomplish this an extract is made, and this, sufficiently diluted, is rubbed into a slight abrasion made in the skin of the arm. At the same time a drop of distilled water is placed on a similar abrasion to act as a control. The presence of an injurious foreign protein is shown by a red flush round the scratch at the end of 24 hours. Indeed, the whole arm may even be covered with a rash.

When some uncommon or unnecessary article of diet is at fault it may easily be avoided and the adverse effects prevented. But when it is an everyday article of food things are more serious, as then complete avoidance is almost impossible.

However, the strain rarely becomes so serious as to necessitate taking one's life, and usually much may be done by treatment. A series of injections of the offending protein in the proper graduated doses will gradually produce immunity to its effects.—Medical correspondent, Daily Mail.

CHAPTER RECEIVES VARIOUS DONATIONS

Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I. O. D. E., Benefits by Five Hundred Club and Money Used for Milk Fund

The Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its regular meeting last night, when the regent, Mrs. Ivel, presided. There was a very good attendance of members, and the names of three ladies were put up for membership, while six new members were welcomed.

The treasurer of the Milk Fund reported that the milk bill for the month was $213.50. The members' thanks were tendered to Mrs. Prior's Five Hundred Club for their kind donation of $40 to the milk fund. Reference was made to the fact that the Chapter had won second prize for the decorated car in the Victoria Day parade, thereby adding $35 to the same fund. The profits of the rummage sale on June 7 were $98.30, of which amounts $35 was voted to the operating table fund, and the net proceeds of the dance held on June 3 were $61.69.

The thanks of the Chapter were tendered to Mrs. Simpson for kindly lending the Lorraine Academy for this occasion. Five dollars was voted towards the Brownies' Summer camp.

The secretary was instructed to write to Mr. Duck to convey to him the thanks of the Chapter for his kindness in lending his store for the rummage sale.

It was decided to hold a sale of work on the first Saturday in December, and members were asked to work during the Summer for this.

A request was received from the Gonzales Chapter for entries for the Baby Show, to be held on July 13 at "Gonzales," St. Charles Street.

After the business meeting tea was served, and the Chapter took this opportunity of bidding farewell to Mrs. Mooney, one of its most energetic workers, who is shortly leaving the city.

VANCOUVER, June 20.—The Provincial voters' lists for Vancouver and South Vancouver constituencies were diminished by approximately 12,000 and 3,500 names respectively today, when those left off failed to apply to the Court of Revision for reinstatement.

Sherlock Holmes Stories

The Boscombe Valley Mystery

We were seated at breakfast one morning, my wife and I, when the maid brought in a telegram. It was from Sherlock Holmes, and ran in this way:

"Have you a couple of days to spare? Have just been wired for from the West Coast of England in connection with Boscombe Valley tragedy. Shall be glad if you will come with me. Air and scenery perfect. Leave Paddington by the 11:15."

"What do you say, dear?" said my wife, looking across at me. "Will you go?"

"I really don't know what to say. I have a fairly long list at present."

"Oh, Anstruther would do your work for you. You have been looking a little pale lately. I think that the change would do you good, and you are always so interested in Mr. Sherlock Holmes's cases."

"I should be ungrateful if I were not, seeing what I gained through one of them," I answered. "But if I am to go, I must pack at once, for I have only half an hour."

My experience of camp life in Afghanistan had at least had the effect of making me a prompt and ready traveller. My wants were few and simple, so that in less than the time stated I was in a cab with my valise, rattling away to Paddington Station. Sherlock Holmes was pacing up and down the platform, his tall, gaunt figure made even gaunter and taller by his long grey travelling cloak and loose fitting cloth cap.

"It is really very good of you to come, Watson," said he. "It makes a considerable difference to me, having some one with me on whom I can thoroughly rely. Local aid is always either worthless or else biased. If you will keep the two corner seats I shall get the tickets."

We had the carriage to ourselves save for an immense litter of papers which Holmes had brought with him. Among these he rummaged and read, with intervals of note-taking and of meditation, until we were past Reading. Then he suddenly rolled them all into a gigantic ball, and tossed them up onto the rack.

"Have you heard anything of the case?" he asked.

"Not a word. I have not seen a paper for some days."

"The London press has not had very full accounts. I have just been looking through all the recent papers in order to master the particulars. It seems, from what I gather, to be one of those simple cases which are so extremely difficult."

"That sounds a little paradoxical."

"But it is profoundly true. Singularity is almost invariably a clew. The more featureless and commonplace a crime is, the more difficult is it to bring it home. In this case, however, they have established a very serious case against the son of the murdered man."

"It is a murder, then?"

"Well, it is conjectured to be so. I shall take nothing for granted until I have the opportunity of looking personally into it. I will explain the state of things to you, as far as I have been able to understand it, in a very few words.

"Boscombe Valley is a country district, not very far from Ross, in Herefordshire. The largest landed proprietor in that part is Mr. John Turner, who made his money in Australia, and returned some years ago to the Old Country. One of the farms which he held, that of Hatherley, was let to Mr. Charles McCarthy, who was also an ex-Australian. The men had known each other in the colonies, so that it was not unnatural that when they came to settle down they should do so as near each other as possible. Turner was apparently the richer man, so McCarthy became his tenant, but still remained, it seems, upon terms of perfect equality, as they were frequently together. McCarthy had one son, a lad of eighteen, and Turner had an only daughter of the same age, but neither of them had wives living. They appear to have avoided the society of the neighboring English families, and to have led retired lives, though both the McCarthys were fond of sport and were frequently seen at the race-meetings of the neighborhood. McCarthy kept two servants—a man and a girl. Turner had a considerable household, some half-dozen at the least. That is as much as I have been able to gather about the families. Now for the facts:

"On June 3, that is, on Monday last, McCarthy left his house at Hatherley about three in the afternoon, and walked down to the Boscombe Valley. He had been out with his serving-man in the morning at Ross and he had told the man that he must hurry, as he had an appointment of importance to keep at three. From that appointment he never came back alive.

"From Hatherley Farmhouse to the Boscombe Pool is a quarter of a mile, and two people saw him as he passed over this ground. One was an old woman, whose name is not mentioned, and the other was William Crowder, a gamekeeper in the employ of Mr. Turner. Both these witnesses depose that Mr. McCarthy was walking alone. The gamekeeper adds that within a few minutes of his seeing Mr. McCarthy pass he had seen his son, Mr. James McCarthy, going the same way with a gun under his arm. To the best of his belief, the father was actually in sight at the time, and the son was following him. He thought no more of the matter until he heard in the evening of the tragedy that had occurred.

"The two McCarthys were seen after the time when William Crowther, the gamekeeper, lost sight of them. The Boscombe Pool is thickly wooded round, with just a fringe of grass and of reeds round the edge. A girl of fourteen, Patience Moran, who is the daughter of the lodgekeeper of the Boscombe Valley Estate, was in one of the woods picking flowers. She states that while she was there she saw, at the border of the wood and close by the lake, Mr. McCarthy and his son, and that they appeared to be having a violent quarrel. She heard Mr. McCarthy the elder using very strong language to his son, and she saw the latter raise up his hand as if to strike his father. She was so frightened by their violence that she ran away and told her mother when she reached him that she had left the two McCarthys quarrelling near Boscombe Pool, and that she was afraid that they were going to fight. She had hardly said the words when young Mr. McCarthy came running up to the lodge to say that he had found his father dead in the wood, and to ask for the help of the lodge-keeper. He was much excited, without either his gun or his hat, and his right hand and sleeve were observed to be stained with fresh blood. On following him they found the dead body stretched out upon the grass beside the pool. The head had been beaten in by repeated blows of some heavy and blunt weapon. The injuries were such as might very well have been inflicted by the butt-end of his son's gun, which was found lying on the grass within a few paces of the body. Under these circumstances the young man was instantly arrested, and a verdict of 'wilful murder' having been returned at the inquest on Tuesday, he was on Wednesday brought before the magistrates at Ross, who have referred the case to the next assizes. Those are the main facts of the case as they came out before the coroner and at the police court."

"I could hardly imagine a more damning case," I remarked. "If ever circumstantial evidence pointed to a criminal it does so here."

"Circumstantial evidence is a very tricky thing," answered Holmes, thoughtfully. "It may seem to point very straight to one thing, but if you shift your own point of view a little you may find it pointing in an equally uncompromising manner to something entirely different. It must be confessed, however, that the case looks exceedingly grave against the young man, and it is very possible that he is indeed the culprit. There are several people in the neighborhood, however, and among them Miss Turner, the daughter of the neighboring owner, who believe in his innocence, and who have retained Lestrade, whom you may recollect in connection with the Study in Scarlet, to work out the case in his interest. Lestrade, being rather puzzled, has referred the case to me, and hence it is that two middle-aged gentlemen are flying westward at fifty miles an hour instead of quietly digesting their breakfasts at home."

"I am afraid," said I, "that the facts are so obvious that you will find little credit to be gained out of this case."

"There is nothing more deceptive than an obvious fact," he answered, laughing. "Besides, we may chance to hit upon some other obvious facts which may have been by no means obvious to Mr. Lestrade. You know me too well to think that I am boasting when I say that I shall either confirm or destroy his theory by means which he is quite incapable of employing, or even of understanding. To take the first example to hand, I very clearly perceive that in your bedroom the window is upon the right-hand side, and yet I question whether Mr. Lestrade would have noted even so self-evident a thing as that."

"How on earth——"

"My dear fellow, I know you well. I know the military neatness which characterizes you. You shave every morning, and in this season you shave by the sunlight; but since your shaving is less and less complete as we get farther back on the left side, until it becomes positively slovenly as we get around the angle of the jaw, it is surely very clear that that side is less well illuminated than the other. I could not imagine a man of your habits looking at himself in an equal light and being satisfied with such a result. I only quote this as a trivial example of observation and inference. Therein lies my metier, and it is just possible that it may be of some service in the investigation which lies before us. There are one or two minor points which were brought out in the inquest, and which are worth considering."

PRESENTED WATCH TO PROFESSOR STEVENSON

Interesting Event Took Place at Monthly Meeting of South Saanich Farmers' Institute —Other Business

The monthly meeting of the South Saanich Farmers' Institute was held in the Temperance Hall last Thursday, when a large number of members were present. President Lemon was in the chair.

The result of the strawberry crop competition was read and the prizes, which were silver spoons in a plush case, were handed to the winners by the president: 1st, Mr. C. B. McCarthy; 2nd, Mr. J. H. Sutton; 3rd, Mr. T. Gold. The judges were Prof. Stevenson and Mr. White, of the Department of Agriculture.

A communication was received from the Department of Agriculture regarding the Journal and after considerable discussion a resolution was passed as follows:

"The South Saanich Farmers' Institute wish to adhere to the decision of the delegates at the annual convention held in Victoria that the matter of a subscription towards the cost of the Agricultural Journal be left over till the end of the year."

The loganberry competition was considered and it was left to the president to arrange a date for the judging and the secretary was instructed to write to the Department asking it to send a man out for the purpose of going over the plots.

Farewell to Professor.

After the meeting was adjourned the ladies of the South Saanich Institute joined with the men in a social evening and to wish goodbye to Professor Stevenson, a former president of the Men's Institute and a guest for the evening. The president on asking Professor Stevenson to come forward read the following address:

"Keating, B.C.,
June 16, 1921.

"Lionel Stevenson, Esq.,
Dominion Experimental Station,
Saanich.

"Dear Sir,—We, the members of the Women's and Farmers' Institutes of South Saanich, take this opportunity to express our sincere regret that you are leaving the district. We appreciate to the fullest extent the valuable work you have done, not only for this district, but for the whole of Vancouver Island and British Columbia generally. We thank you for the generous manner in which you have at all times assisted the Institutes, and we beg your acceptance of this watch as a token of the high esteem in which you are held by the people of Saanich.

"In wishing you goodbye we desire to express our hearty good wishes for your future success and trust in the near future we may have the pleasure of having Mrs. Stevenson and yourself in our midst again.

"EDITH SUTTON,
"President, South Saanich Women's Institute.
P. T. LEMON,
"President, South Saanich Farmers' Institute."

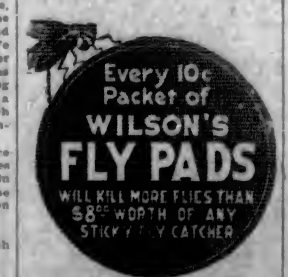

After the address Mrs. Sutton, president of the South Saanich Women's Institute, presented Professor Stevenson with the gold watch, with his initials on the back and inscribed on the inner case:—"Presented by the South Saanich Women's Institute and the South Saanich Farmers' Institute, June, 1921.

Prof. Stevenson's Reply.

In replying Prof. Stevenson said he was very pleased to think that his work had been thought of so much value and he very much regretted leaving Vancouver Island, and especially Keating, where he had made so many friends, but he hoped very soon to come back, as he thought there was no better place to live in. He thanked the members for the valuable gold watch and would ever keep it in memory of the givers and the many pleasant times he had spent in the Temperance Hall.

On conclusion of his remarks Mrs. Stewart played "For he's a jolly good fellow," which was heartily joined in by all. Refreshments were served by the ladies, during which interval Mrs. Stewart very kindly played some beautiful selections on the piano.

The next meeting will be held on July 21, when Mr. Geo. A. Robinson, of Elk Lake, a well known horticulturist, has been asked to address the members.

EASY CHAIR MENACE

Once I stayed with some French people, and throughout the length and breadth of the house there was not a single easy chair.

Madame X. who had lived many years in England, apologised for the deficiency.

"I know you English are miserable without your armchairs!" she said. "But, ma cherie, I could not have armchairs in my house, because if I did my husband would sit in them!"

"Alas, yes!" agreed Monsieur X. "Armchairs are the enemies of efficiency. If you English abandoned your armchairs I hesitate to think how far you would go—"

We all laughed, of course; but I am not sure that the armchair habit is not growing too strongly upon us.

An armchair, especially the deep and luxurious kind, is so very hard to get out of. Who wants to go for a walk or play golf or lawn tennis when an armchair beckons from its downy depths? And who can resist the drowsy feeling that steals over one as the words on the newspaper begin to dance and one's head finds a cosy nest among the cushions? Not the average Englishman, certainly!

The late Lord Fisher used to maintain that punctuality was the curse of comfort. And so, I firmly believe, is all good business.

The armchair habit, so excellent for the hour's rest with book or paper, hardly won, and well earned at night, has been encroaching too far into our daily lives.

What Government office is without its great leather-upholstered armchairs? And what modern business man thinks his premises fully furnished without two or three commodious receptacles for cogitation, or shall we say sleep?

In the business world of today, and in the domestic world, too, there is too much sitting about.

It may be well for a master-mind to do its thinking from the depths of an easy chair, but the smaller man is getting too soft.

When I urged upon Madame and Monsieur X that they had nowhere to sit, I also realized that except for meals they never sat.

"When we are tired we go to bed," they explained. "And as for work, the day is not long enough."

NANAIMO SPORT NOTES

NANAIMO, June 21.—At a trophy shoot on Sunday by the Nanaimo Gun Club W. Hoggan and. Chas. Martin, Jr., tied for the James Caldwell trophy with 23. For the D. Spencer trophy K. Cameron was high with 20, and for the Geo. A. Fletcher trophy R. Hilton and F. McKie tied for high score with 18.

Baseball

The Nanaimo baseball team defeated Granby on the Cricket Fields on Sunday 8 to 5. Woods pitched for Nanaimo and put up his usual good game, with the exception of the sixth inning, when Granby, on some lucky hits, secured their five runs.

The local intermediate baseball team played and lost their first game Sunday, when Cumberland defeated them in a match on the Cricket Grounds by a score of 13 to 13.

Cricket

The Nanaimo Cricket Club played its second game of the season on Sunday, meeting the Cowichan B team on the Caledonian Grounds, and going down to defeat by 8 rune and 9 wickets, the Cowichan team retiring in the second innings with a total of 159 with but two wickets down. Nanaimo made 151 rune, 94 in the first innings and 57 in the second. Cowichan ran up 121 in the first innings and 38 for two wickets in the second.

Tennis

The following will represent the Nanaimo Lawn Tennis Club, who journey to Duncan tomorrow for a series of inter-club games: Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Sheldon, Miss Rose, Miss Kitchen, Dr. Margeson, D. Ford, Rev. S. Ryall, H. Ryall, W. Mitchell, E. G. Rendall.

The South Cowichan Tennis Club will play an inter-club match here on Saturday next.

V.I.A.A. MAKES BID FOR JUNIOR MEMBERS

Special Inducements to Encourage Youngsters in Sport Activities — Plans for Dominion Day Programme

The V.I.A.A. has decided to reduce the annual fees for junior members to $1.00 as an inducement for them to become interested in aquactic and other sports during the Summer holidays. The age limit for juniors in the club is 16 years, and it is expected that a special rate will be made very shortly for students of the High School who happen to be over that age.

The privileges offered intending members cover instruction in swimming and diving by Ralph Alcock, who has been engaged by the club for that purpose; instruction in boxing and speed swimming by Supt. W. H. Davies, also tennis, basketball, gymnastics, dancing, baseball, etc.

Through the kindness of the Producers' Rock and Gravel Co. and Capt. Gardner the club can now boast of having one of the finest sandy beaches in the city. This section of the waterfront at Curtis Point is being logged off for the exclusive use of non-swimmers, and Mr. Alcock will be on hand every afternoon and will look after the kiddies while they are in swimming. He will also conduct classes in swimming twice weekly throughout the Summer months.

Quite a number of school children have already joined the club, and it is expected that, when the school holidays start, Curtis Point will be one of the most popular resorts in or around Victoria.

On July 1 the club intends to stage a series of sports for the entertainment of Victorians who are staying in the city on that day. Supt. W. H. Davies is at present working with the V.I.A.A.'s canoe club in regard to getting up a programme of canoe events, including novelty events of the nature of centipede races, tug-of-war in canoes, tilting, relay racing in canoes, etc. The swimming part of the programme will include special events, in which Miss Audrey Griffin and the other V.I. lady stars will compete, while Buck Calder and Billy Muir will be active in the diving part of the programme.

It was hoped that the new 100ft. high diving tower, which will eclipse anything of its kind on the Coast, would be ready for July 1, but owing to so much work being done in beautifying the grounds and making the sandy beach, its construction has been postponed for a few weeks. The grounds at Curtis Point will be thrown open to the public on July 1, and they are invited to visit the club and to witness the sports. They will also be privileged to hold their picnics on the grounds, the only stipulation being that they clear up all refuse when finished.

KID NORFOLK LANDS JOB AS SPARRING PARTNER FOR JACK

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., June 21.—Kid Norfolk, negro heavyweight, who has been clamoring for a match with Jack Dempsey, today joined the heavyweight champion's staff of sparring partners. Norfolk is aggressive, a clever boxer, and Jack Kearns regards him as the fighter who can develop Dempsey's speed.

OXFORD-CAMBRIDGE ATHLETES MAY MEET CALIFORNIAN TEAM

BOSTON, June 21.—The Oxford-Cambridge team of English athletes may meet a team of California collegians at Pasadena, Cal., after the games with the joint Harvard-Yale and Princeton-Cornell teams, it was learned today.

R. G. D. Rudd, captain of the invading team, and President Robert Weaver, of the A. A. U., are said to be corresponding preliminary to arranging such a meet to be held early in August.

Long Losing Streak Broken by Knights

Macfarlane's Reorganized Aggregation Does Credit to Its Energetic Manager by Walloping Moore's Political Gang by Nine to Five at Stadium Last Night

Macfarlane's rejuvenated Knights of Columbus certainly lived up to expectations last night at the Stadium, outplaying, outhitting and just naturally walloping the daylights out of Frank Moore's gang of politicians, breaking their losing streak and ending up at the big end of a 9 to 5 score. To Macfarlane should be given great credit for the gang of youngsters he has gathered together; they sure played great baseball considering this is their first appearance together. They pulled off no less than three snappy double plays, and although five errors were chalked up against them most of these were due to nervousness. After a few more practices these boys will make them all hustle. Dunn, playing second for Mack's crew, accepted thirteen out of fourteen chances besides making a star catch of McIlmoyl's liner in the seventh.

The score by innings follows:

Conservatives — McIlmoyl hit to Dunn and was thrown out at first. Newman was safe on Brynjolfson's bad throw to first. Moore hit into a double play, Nobel to Dunn to More.

Knights — Allen fanned, Turpel walked, Dunn drove out a single, Turpel going to third. Brynjolfson walked, filling the bases. Oatman walked, forcing in Turpel. Nobel flied to Newman. Jones walked, Dunn scoring. More walked, Brynjolfson scoring. Oatman scored on a wild pitch. Davis was thrown out at first by McIlmoyl.

Conservatives—Green flied to Turpel. Potts was safe when Oatman lost his fly in the sun. W. Taddle hit into a double play, Jones to Dunn to More.

Knights—Allen singled, Turpel also singled, Allen going to third. Newman replaced Saunders. Dunn fanned. Brynjolfson was thrown out by McIlmoyl, Allen scoring. Taddle threw out Oatman.

Conservatives—Murray singled and went to second on Cottet's sacrifice. Coleman fanned. McIlmoyl walked. Davis' throw to catch Murray got away from Brynjolfson, and Murray scored. Newman singled, scoring McIlmoyl from second. Moore doubled to left, scoring Newman. Green singled, but was caught trying to stretch it. Davis to Dunn, Moore scoring.

Knights—Nobel fanned. Jones was safe when Moore let his easy grounder roll through his legs, but was caught napping at first. More and Davis singled and scored when Allen drove out a single to centre. Turpel also singled. Dun popped to Moore.

Conservatives—Potts out, Dunn to More. Taddle singled. Murray forced Taddle at second. Cottet doubled. Murray scored when Dunn fumbled Coleman's grounder. McIlmoyl out, Jones to More.

Knights—Brynjolfson got a life on Taddle's error. Oatman hit into a double play, Taddle to McIlmoyl to Green. Nobel singled, but was left stranded when Jones fanned.

Conservatives—Newman flied to Allen. Moore drew a pass. More handled Green's hot one, Potts out, Nobel to More.

Knights—More was thrown out by Newman. McIlmoyl threw out Davis and Allen.

Conservatives—W. Taddle safe on Jones' wide throw to first. Murray was safe when they played for Taddle at second and missed him. Cottet hit into a double, Jones to Dunn to More.

Knights—Turpel was thrown out by Newman. Dunn walked and went to second on a passed ball. Brynjolfson singled, scoring Dunn. Oatman flied to Coleman. Nobel fanned.

Conservatives — Coleman flied to Turpel. Dunn drew a hand when he picked McIlmoyl's liner out of the clouds. Newman was safe on an error. More breesed.

Knights—Jones flied to Taddle. More scratched a single. Davis was safe when his grounder took a bad hop and got away from McIlmoyl. More was caught napping at second. Allen flied to Coleman.

Conservatives—Green walked. Potts singled. W. Taddle singled to right and Green was caught at the plate. Taddle was caught in a pickle between first and second, and Potts was caught trying for third, Taddle going to second. Murray flied to Dunn.

Knights — Turpel flied to short. Dunn fanned. Brynjolfson flied to Cottet.

Conservatives—Cottet fanned. Coleman also breesed. McIlmoyl flied to Turpel.

CHANCES POOR FOR ENGLISH VICTORY

Second International Polo Match at Hurlingham Today Will See Same Line-Up as in First Game

HURLINGHAM, Eng., June 21.—Fears were expressed tonight by the polo experts that unless the American four have gone into a hitting slump since Saturday, or the home team has developed a marked improvement, the International Polo Cup is likely to go to the United States after tomorrow.

Both Devereaux Milburn, American captain, and Major Vivian Lockett, British leader, intend to use the same team tomorrow as last Saturday, when the Americans won, eleven to four. Another victory for the Americans will ensure their taking the cup back home.

The Americans are to enter the championship event, which will be played at Hurlingham next week.

The teams tomorrow will line up as follows:

American	Position	English
	No. 1
Louis Stoddard	Lt.-Col. Tompkinson

ANOTHER HARD GAME AHEAD OF VICTORIA

The Cricket League Leaders Will Be Pitted Against the Crack Bowlers of the Five C's Team

On Saturday the Victoria Cricket Club will again be struggling to maintain its unbeaten record in the Virtue Cup series. They are drawn for that day's match against the Five C's, who, like the Incogs prior to their conflict with the Victoria eleven, have suffered only one reverse in the series, this being on the occasion of their opening game.

Although the Five C's were beaten in that match, the result was exceedingly close, and, as Mr. Edwards, the popular skipper of the Five C's explains, their players at that date had not got their eyes in. He is looking forward with confidence to Saturday's encounter.

Each eleven, it is expected, will be at its full strength, the Cathedral team including Wilkinson and Lawrence, the latter being a cricketer of a very high order, who has played in very good company in the Old Country prior to coming to Canada. With these two highly skilful bowlers the Five C's team will undoubtedly take the field the stronger as regards attacking power. On the other hand the Victoria team is the stronger batting side, and it will be interesting to watch the battle between the batsmen and the bowlers and to speculate as to which will be masters of the day.

The Victoria committee has announced that it will include Mr. J. V. Murphy in its eleven. This will lend additional strength to their batting. Murphy is an old member of the Cowichan team, which had the honor of annexing the Pacific Coast Cup in 1914. Besides being a strong bat he is a very fast and reliable man in the long field. Very few boundaries will be recorded, provided that the ball is sent anywhere near him.

Tea will be served on the ground during the course of the match, and all indications point to a big crowd being in attendance at the Jubilee Hospital ground when the first ball is bowled at 2 o'clock.

ETHELDA BLEIBTREY IS BACK FROM AUSTRALIA

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Ethelda Bleibtrey, New York, noted girl swimmer, accompanied by her mother, and Miss Margaret Dowd, also a New York swimmer, arrived on the steamer Ventura today from a tour of Australia. Miss Bleibtrey is to compete in the senior national mile championship of the A.A.U. at Capitola, Cal., on Sunday.

NEW YORK, June 21.—J. Harry Ertle, of Jersey City, will be selected by the New Jersey State Boxing Commission tomorrow to referee the championship Dempsey-Carpentier fight on July 2. This announcement was made by Joseph Caddisy, secretary of the commission, who declared it was found at an informal conference of the committee that Ertle was satisfactory to all parties concerned.

VICTORIA GOLFERS WIN AT PORTLAND

Macan and B. Witson Each Have Fairly Easy Victory In First Round of Championship Fight

PORTLAND, June 21.—Favorites won in the first eighteen holes of match play at the Pacific Northwest Golf Association's amateur championships at the Waverley Country Club course today. In all the sixteen matches there were no upsets to predictions.

The match which drew most attention perhaps was that between Dr. O. F. Willing, Waverley Country Club champion, and Jack Neville, of San Francisco, ex-Pacific Northwest titleholder. The Waverley star won from Neville in the first elimination round, four up and two.

Rudolph Wilhelm, ex-Northwest champion and present titleholder, defeated Robert Gelletly, of the Vancouver, B.C., Golf and Country Club, four up and three.

H. Chandler Egan, Pacific Northwest champion, eliminated E. J. Bragg, of Waverley, two up and one, and Russell Smith, of Waverley, won from E. Kay, of the Portland Golf Club, four and two.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21.—Results of matches in the first round of the golf championship flight in the northwest tournament played at the Waverly County course this morning include: F. J. Bossons, Vancouver, defeated R. W. Berry, Portland, 1 up.

Rudolph Wilhelm, Portland, defeated R. Gelletley, Vancouver, 4 and 3.

Carl Spiers, Seattle, defeated H. Gardner, Vancouver, 8 and 7.

B. Wilson, Victoria, defeated B. E. Stein, Seattle, 4 and 3.

Ed. Neustadter, Qualatin, defeated R. Bone, Vancouver, 2 up and 1.

A. V. Macan, Victoria, defeated C. H. Pidgeon, San Francisco, 5 and 4.

H. Chandler Egan, Pacific Northwest Golf Association champion, and Dr. O. F. Willing led the field at the end of the first half of the qualifying round at the opening of the tournament yesterday, each with a 73. Rudolph Wilhelm, of Portland, was third with a 75.

Other high scores are: Forest Watson, Waverly, 75; Clark Speirs, Seattle, 75; Bon Stein, Seattle, 75; Russell Smith, Waverly, 77; Heinie Schmidt, Aberdeen, 78; Jack Straight, Waverly; George von Elm, Salt Lake; Claire Griswold, Portland, each 79.

Jack Neville, of San Francisco, got away bad and finished with a 82. Biggerstaff Wilson, of Victoria, B.C., and Robert Gelletely, of Vancouver, B.C., turned in scores of 81. Errol Kay, of Portland, had an 85 and C. H. Pidgeon, of San Francisco, finished with an 82. H. T. Gardner and Robt. Bone, of Vancouver, B.C., finished with 83 and 85 respectively.

MANY CHAMPIONS WILL COMPETE AT WINNIPEG

Best Amateur Golfers From All Provinces Will Contest Canadian Amateur Championship in August

WINNIPEG, June 21.—Arrangements are advancing in connection with the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship to be held here in August.

The tournament opens on Monday, August 22. As there is no qualifying round this year a sufficient number of games will be played in the forenoon to reduce the number of competitors in the championship to 128, and by Monday night only 64 players will be left in the championship.

Thursday will be filled in by a handicap competition open to all amateurs. On that day there will also be played the interclub team match and a match between teams representing East and West. Friday and Saturday will be devoted to semi-finals and finals of the championship and other events.

There will undoubtedly be a large local entry, and intimation has been received that there will be a strong representation from Saskatchewan and Alberta, as well as some of the best players from Vancouver and Victoria. From the East will come the present champion, C. B. Green, of Montreal, along with a number of other crack players from Quebec. The Ontario delegation will be led by the many-time champion, George S. Lyon, and will include the three Thompson brothers and many others.

COWICHAN PREPARES FOR BIG REGATTA

Annual Event on July 1 Will Be Held in Conjunction With International Yachting Association

DUNCAN, June 20.—Friday, July 1, and Saturday, July 2, will find Cowichan Bay the mecca for hundreds of lovers of water sports on the occasion of the fourteenth annual regatta of the Cowichan Bay Yacht Club, held in conjunction with the first two days' events of the regatta of the Pacific International Yachting Association, which includes Victoria, Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma and Everett Yacht Clubs. Friday, the 1st, sees the programme open with an international event of long distance sailing, and this is followed by events staged under the Cowichan Bay Yacht Club, including sailing and motor boat races, Indian war canoe race, klootchman's race, upset canoe race, log rolling and greasy pole.

The international judges will act as judges for all except local events.

The officials of the international programme include Mr. C. B. Temple as starter; Mr. R. M. Stewart as timekeeper, and Mr. John Graham, Seattle, Mr. Alex. Marshall, Vancouver, and Mr. F. J. O'Reilly, Victoria, as judges.

Captain Arthur Lane fills the position of commodore, Mr. T. H. Kingscote, of vice-commodore.

Captain L. W. Huntington, General Sir Jocelyn Percy, Messrs. W. D. Turner, H. W. May, H. J. Ruscomb Poole, W. S. Mitchell, A. Kennington, and C. J. Waldy act on the committee.

General R. L. A. Pennington will officiate as honorary secretary and treasurer.

Judges: Messrs. T. H. Kingscote and F. O'Reilly; starters: Messrs. W. S. Mitchell and W. D. Turner; patrols of the course: A. Kennington and J. S. Robinson; race secretaries; Messrs. H. W. May and C. J. Waldy.

J.B.A.A. REGATTA PROGRAMME IS DRAWN

Club Event Will Be Held at Brentwood on Dominion Day —Dance Will Conclude the Day's Sport

The James Bay Athletic Association's Club Regatta at Brentwood on Friday, July 1, promises to be one of the leading athletic events of the year, and a large number of Victoria people have signified their intention of patronizing the affair. Splendid prizes have been offered by the merchants of the city, and the people of Sluggets and Brentwood, and undoubtedly some splendid races will be pulled off.

The regatta will be started promptly at 2 o'clock, and will continue until 5:30, after which supper will be served at the Brentwood Hotel, while some will probably picnic at the place, and partake of their evening meal on some grassy slope. The officials of the water meet will be announced later.

The programme is as follows:

Four-oared lapstreak races.
Single skiff race for novices (club members).
Single canoe race (pleasure model).
Tandem.
Four paddle.
Mixed tandem.
Single canoe for ladies.
Crab race.
Upset canoe race.
Double dinghy with lady cox.
Challenge dinghy race between Boys' Naval Brigade and Boy Scouts.
Canoe tilting.
Fifty yards swimming race for club members only.
Four-oared race between crews from the Gyro, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs.
Motorboat bang and go-back race. This race is open for all motor boats. Racers are to open engine full, and at a given signal all turn and come back, with the first boat crossing the line winning.

Six crews have been picked from the J. B. A. A. members and will take part in the four-oared lapstreak races. The personnel of the various crews are: Frost, O. C. Wallis, Gregory and McDermott; Roberts, Walker, Roberts and Wallis; Treleur, Lumsden, Mellor and Renfrew; Monteith, Wheatley, Kerr and McLean; Greig, Bond, Robins and Ferris, and V. Beadrodt, McKenna, Terry and Henshall. It is expected that the band of the Boys' Naval Brigade will be on hand to enliven the proceedings with musical selections.

After supper, an informal dance will be held at the Brentwood Hotel, with Heaton's Orchestra providing the music. This will round off the day's events, and it is anticipated that the affair will be well attended, and much interest taken in the many events of the afternoon. Full particulars regarding the regatta may be obtained from Mr. John A. Wickson, secretary of the J. B. A. A.

Scottish Footballers Play Victoria Tonight

Local Footballers Get Chance Today

Victoria Soccer Team Meets Far-Famed Scottish Professionals at the Stadium at 6:30—Win for Victoria Would Mean Their First Defeat Since Starting Canadian Tour

Punctually at 6:30 this evening the ball will be kicked off at the Stadium for the start of the big soccer football game, which has for so long been eagerly anticipated, between Victoria's representative team and the braw lads from Bonnie Scotland, who are all world-famed for their excellence at the round ball game, and who have now toured from one end of Canada to the other without so far having had any very real difficulty in keeping their string of victories unbroken. Whether the local exports of the game will be able to achieve that very highly coveted honor or not will be seen this evening.

Most of the games played so far by the visitors have been distinctly one-sided, but every one has been exceedingly interesting to the thousands who have watched it, as being a revelation to the majority of them of what soccer played by men picked from the world's best professionals really means.

At the start of the tour there was some doubt whether the Amateur Athletic Union officials would not make objections to Canadian amateurs engaging in matches with professionals where a gate was taken, but they have taken the obviously sensible view that no harm can possibly be done to the amateurism of the footballers and that a great deal of good will be done for the game throughout Canada by these exhibitions.

Truly Representative

The team chosen to play for Victoria has come in for some criticism, but the committee entrusted with its selection took a great deal of pains to get together what they considered the best possible team for the occasion, and, although some players may have been left out who were nearly, if not quite, equal in skill to some others who are included, it would be difficult for a strictly impartial critic to pick holes in the work of the selection committee. There is no reason to believe that the team which takes the field tonight against the redoubtable Scots is not fully representative of Victoria soccer, and there seems every reason to feel confidence that it will worthily maintain the honor of Victoria on the football field, and, even though it may not be good enough to beat eleven of the world's best at the game, will at any rate be good enough to extend them and make them show Victorians their very best wares.

The Victoria team will line up as follows:

Shrimpton; Whyte and Taylor; Muir, J. Allan (captain), and Munro; Bridges, Brewster, Pattierew, A. Allan and Totty.

The visitors had a busy time yesterday after coming down from Nanaimo by motor cars, seeing the sights of the city and finishing the day with a concert and dance as the guests of the United Scottish Societies and the Victoria and District Football Association.

Previous to their match today they will have plenty to occupy their time, with golf and bowling included in the programme, and a motor trip to Butchart's gardens. In the evening, after the game, they are to be entertained at a banquet given by the City at the Dominion Hotel.

AMERICAN CHAMPION FAILS TO QUALIFY

Fourteen of His Countrymen Remain to Play for Open Golf Championship — Two Make Record Scores

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 21.—Fourteen American golfers won their way through the qualifying round of the medal play over the links of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club yesterday, and today will compete in play for the British open golf championship on Thursday and Friday. The winner will be the man with the lowest aggregate number of strokes for four eighteen-hole rounds. Charles Evens, jr., American amateur champion, and Wilfred Reid, of the Wilmington, Del., Country Club, failed to qualify.

In addition to the fourteen Americans there will be two Australians, three Frenchman and one Spaniard in the play. The remainder of eighty contestants are British.

Jock Hutchison, of Chicago, and Jim Barnes, of New York, created new competition records for the Eden and old courses in the qualifying round of the British open golf championship here today.

Hutchison covered the Eden course in sixty-nine, as against the record of seventy, and Barnes went over the old course in seventy, as against the old record of seventy-one, held by George Duncan, the British open champion.

THOMSON TO COMPETE AT NATIONAL MEET

BOSTON, June 21.—Earl Thomson, the Canadian Olympic champion hurdler, now a student at Dartmouth University, and Harold Cuthill, of Boston University, have been selected by the Boston Athletic Association as members of the New England delegation to the national track and field championships at Pasadena, Cal., on July 4.

THE SQUARED CIRCLE

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 21.—Earl France, of Los Angeles, 136 pounds, got the decision by a shade over Monk Fowler, of New Orleans, 131 pounds, in their 45-round main event of an American Legion boxing card here last night. The decisions were given by two judges and a referee.

Pete Bross, of Great Falls, 155, won a decision in six rounds over Bill Savage, of Cleveland, 153-pounder.

OMAHA, Neb., June 21.—Andy Schmadsr, of Louisville, Neb., won over George Debray, of Chicago, here last night, in the first round of a scheduled ten-round fight on a technical knockout. They are heavyweights.

Navy Rostan, of Chicago, won over Jimmy Delaney, of St. Paul, on a foul in the seventh round.

SEATTLE, June 21.—Clare "Kid" Bromeo, of San Francisco, fought a six-round draw with Travie Davis, of Seattle, coast welterweight champion, here last night.

Johnny Trambitas, of Portland, knocked out Frank Peto, of Seattle, in the second round.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Joe Lynch, world's bantamweight champion, knocked out Sammy Sandow, of Cincinnati, in 55 seconds of fighting in the opening round of a ten-round match at an open air arena tonight. Joe Burman, Chicago bantamweight, and Jack Sharkey, of New York, went ten rounds to a draw.

NEW YORK, June 21. — Sandow opened with a left swing on the champion's jaw which sent Lynch halfway across the ring. Then Lynch tore in with left hooks and right smashes to the jaw, sending the Cincinnati boy down three times for counts of seven, nine and ten, ending the bout in a hurry.

Leach Cross, New York lightweight, who recently returned home from the Pacific Coast, earned the judge's decision over Gene Delmont, of Memphis, in ten rounds.

BERLIN, June 21. — Sixty-eight men were killed and 78 others injured through the explosion, due to fire damp, which destroyed the greater part of the Mont Genis mine, near Herne, Westphalia, yesterday. Three hundred men were in the mine when the disaster occurred.

JUNIOR BASEBALL

As a result of last night's battle the Centrals have another sad story to relate, namely, the Ward Athletes walked off with a 16-7 win over the cellar champs.

"Tiny" Bothwell, who was obtained from the Fairfields, did the twirling for the Centrals, and pitched a good game, allowing 12 hits. McNaughton, the Ward slabster, hurled good ball, and limited the Centrals to 10 hits. Three home runs were contributed during the game, Richdale and Bentley, of the Wards, waded into Bothwell's offerings for one each, while Gilliland, the Central third sacker, punched one of McNaughton's grooved ones for the circuit. Bently also got two three-baggers, being the heavy hitter of the game. The score:

Wards	10	12	1
Centrals	7	10	2

Batteries: McNaughton and Thacker; Bothwell and Johnston.

Baye Win Again

The Baye won over the Fairfields 7-4. The Fairfields led until the eighth, when the Baye evened the score. The Baye went ahead in the ninth. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Baye	7	9	2
Fairfields	4	7	2

Batteries: Roskamp and Semple; Moffat and Worthington.

KINGSCOTE WILL GIVE TILDEN HARD FIGHT

English Tennis Player Is Showing Wonderful Form in Tournament Now in Progress at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England, June 21.—The feature of the play in the British tennis tournament today was the victory of Major A. R. F. Kingscote, the famous English player, over C. P. Dixon, English ex-international.

A surprise was the defeat of L. S. Deane, India's Davis Cup player, by the young South African, Wheatley.

The Spanish Davis Cup representative, Alonzo, won from L. F. Davin, champion of West Scotland.

Miss Elisabeth Ryan, of California, who defeated Miss Kemmis Betty, of England, won by using a hard overhead service, and for the most part chop strokes to the base line. Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, American champion, won by default.

WIMBLEDON, England, June 21.—Major A. R. F. Kingscote, who for the last fourteen years has been a prominent figure in the tennis world, was considered here today as the probable opponent of William T. Tilden, of Philadelphia, in the challenge round of the British turf lawn tennis tournament in progress here this week. He played a magnificent game against F. B. Fisher, of New Zealand, yesterday, and critics express the opinion that, if he maintained the standard he set, Tilden would have a most difficult task in defending his title as champion.

Some results of Monday's preliminary tennis sets were:

Francis T. Hunter, United States, defeated Jock Hillyard, 6-3; 6-2; 6-5.

S. M. Jacob, India's Davis Cup captain, defeated A. W. Gore, England, 6-3; 8-3; 6-2.

Randolph Lycett, England, defeated L. E. Gaunt, champion of Singapore, 8-6; 6-2; 6-4.

A. Diemerdool, Holland's fourth player, defeated A. B. Graves of California, 6-4; 4-6; 5-7; 8-6; 6-3.

The match, which lasted two and a half hours, was a heroic struggle, featured by hard driving and good smashing.

Zenso Shimidsu, the Japanese star, who defeated Hotham, of Great Britain, yesterday in a one-sided match, won with equal ease in the second round today from Count de Bousiez, of France, 6-4; 6-2; 6-0.

Demobilization in France

PARIS, June 21.—The cabinet today authorized the War Minister to begin demobilization of the entire class of 1919, June 25. This decision was reached on receipt of a report that the classes of 1920 and 1921 had been trained adequately.

HOYLAKE LINKS WERE NOT TO THEIR LIKING

Course Was "Burned Out" and Eighteen Holes Too Few—Therefore the Americans Were Dismally Defeated

The American amateur golfers who were defeated in the British championship tournament at Hoylake recently are apparently taking their defeat very much to heart. Ouimet, who landed in New York on Monday, lost no time after setting foot on his native soil before publishing his "alibi." According to a dispatch from that city he said arrangements would be made for a return match, adding that the American defeat was due to "unfamiliarity with conditions on the links."

Here is what an American writer has to say about it:

British Not In It

"Despite the dismal showing of the Americans at Hoylake, it is still the firm opinion of the writer that England's three best amateur golfers are no match for our three best—Evans, Ouimet and Jones.

"We'll go even further, and say that a team match between twelve of the leading amateurs in both countries would result in a decisive victory for Uncle Sam.

"Furthermore, the number of capable young players being developed here greatly outnumbers the list in England, and mainly because of this it is inevitable that links supremacy will pass to the United States.

"And to wind up this little effort, we'll add, not as an alibi, but only as our candid opinion, that the Americans lost at Hoylake because eighteen holes are not a sufficient test, and that Hoylake, which was burned out, was greatly inferior to golf courts that Evans, Ouimet, Jones and other members of the invading team are accustomed to playing on in their home land.

"That conditions at Hoylake were unsatisfactory and a huge gamble for the entire field, was borne out by the way the best English players were eliminated by inferior golfers."

Difference in Opinion

All of which is very characteristic. With regard to the assertion that eighteen holes is not sufficient test, the following extract from the report of the tournament in The London Field may be of interest to golfers:

It has been widely suggested, in consequence of events which occurred in last week's tournament at Hoylake, that a single round does not provide a sufficient test of the relative skill and power of golfers undeniably qualified to enter for the greatest amateur competition of the year; for a small minority of the entrants at Hoylake a couple of holes suffices to demonstrate their superfluity.

The American players in particular were emphatic in expressing a preference for the conditions obtaining in their own country, where thirty-two entrants select themselves by score play to contest a series of thirty-six hole matches. The opinion held is obviously based on the premise that the object of the amateur championship tournament is to discover the best amateur golfer of the year.

If that premise be accepted the choice is not between matches of one round or two, but between medal play and match play. The four rounds under score play rules which are prescribed for the open championship subject competitors to a truer test than any match play tournament, even if it be preceded by an eliminating scoring competition, can provide, but medal play does away with the personal antagonism of man to man which is the pastime most attractive to the amateur of golf.

The Real Object

And the real object of the amateur championship is to give to the most highly skilled amateurs opportunity to enjoy it under the best possible conditions. Therefore the substitution of medal for match play is out of the question. The test of the card and pencil might very well be used for eliminating the unfit entrants. Subsequently it would be immaterial whether the survivors play thirty-six holes or eighteen, were it not that the decision of the issue by the statutory single round imposes a more severe strain on the physical and nervous resources of the player who comes to win, because on each day he is required to meet and dispose of two opponents instead of one. The task can exhaust even the most muscular and equable of golfers.

TODAY'S CRICKET

Wednesday cricket matches on today's schedule are Spencer's vs. Broad Street, on the Albion ground, at the Willows, and Five C's vs. Congos, at Beacon Hill. Garrison have a bye this week. The Congos will be represented by: D. Fletcher, C. Fletcher, J. Donaldson, E. Pearson, H. Wyles, J. L. Wyles, A. Johnson, C. Ellis, A. Barber, R. Atkin and A. Kirkham.

A "DEUCH AN DORIS"

The following verses, written in greeting to the Scottish football team by a countryman who signs himself "Wully," were intended originally as a song to be given at the concert in their honor last evening, but circumstances made this impossible.

Air—"Will ye no come back again?"

Lads frae Scotia's far-aff shore
(Beloved land we aye da' Hame).
Hark! now to the Pacific roar;
Will ye no come back again.

Chorus—Will ye no come back again?

We geamed ye on th' Tlantic wave,
Oor een were straining ewre the sea;
The maist o' ye were unco brave—
The haddlee gat th' maist yer tea.
Chorus.

Nae doot ye wer'na awfu' weel
When ye were hingin' owre the side,
Ye wished Can-a-da tae the Deil
Whan ye had naethin' left inside.
Chorus.

But whan ye loupit aff the boat
A' Canada wis at yer fit;
The Pheeleestanes were never emote
A patch on what we were tae git.
Chorus.

An' whan intae yer breeke ye gat,
The Scottish banner waving high,
Frae Montreal tae Malahat
The vanquished I' thoosands lie.
Chorus.

Bit cock yer lugs, ma buirdly chiels,
Yer gaun tae get yer record wrecked;
They Victoria chaps are awfu' dells,
They'll "show what side the door is enecked."
Chorus.

Here's "deuch an' doris" an' Gude speed.
A crackin' game, a' square an' fair,
As muckle scoring as ye need—
The same tae us—an' yae goal mair.
Chorus.

An' noo ye've goamed this glorious land
An' trailked her, frae East tae Wast,
Mind weel the Jewel yer faithers faind
Yer first-fit sailna be yer last.

Lincoln's Promise

A story of Lincoln's early political life is told in John Wesley Hill's new book, "Abraham Lincoln, Man of God" (Putnam). It seems that in 1846, during a canvass for Congress, Lincoln attended a preaching service at Peter Cartwright's. Cartwright called on all desiring to go to heaven to stand up. All arose but Lincoln. Then he asked all to rise who did not want to go to hell. Lincoln remained still seated. "I am surprised," said Cartwright, "to see Abe Lincoln sitting back there unmoved by these appeals. If Mr. Lincoln does not want to go to heaven and does not want to escape hell, perhaps he will tell us where he does want to go?" Lincoln slowly arose and replied, "I'm going to Congress."—The Christian Register (Boston).

Were Vanished Ships Seized by Soviet Crews?

Piracy Suspected in North Atlantic—Three American Steamers Disappear From Calm Seas Within Few Weeks of Each Other—Believed Carried Off to Ports of Bolshevik Russia

NEW YORK, June 21.—A mystery tale of the sea which bids fair to outrival the imaginings of the most fervid fictionist began to unroll here today when Government agents admitted for the first time that they have good reason to believe that Bolshevist crews have literally stolen three American cargo steamers and run them to ports of Soviet Russia.

One of the ships is the American steamer Hewitt, which disappeared January 26 last when bound from Sabine, Texas, to Boston with a cargo of sulphur. The disappearance occurred about the same time the derelict, Carol A. Deering, was found floating off the North Carolina coast without a man aboard. The ship was in good condition, and its case has been a puzzle to the authorities.

Vanish Without Trace

Government agents investigating the Hewitt and Deering cases say they are baffled and that thus far they have not found a single clue that might lead to a solution of the mysteries. Equally as baffling, they say, are the cases of the British steamer Albyn and the Russian bark Yute, which disappeared last Fall off the North Carolina coast.

The Albyn sailed from Norfolk last October and never was heard from again, while the Yute, when off Cape Hatteras, sent a radio message asking for aid, but when steamers reached the position given in the message an hour later no trace of the vessel was found, and it is said she has never been heard from since. Reports from the Government are that the weather was perfectly calm.

Investigators here say they do not take seriously suggestions of Bolshevik raiders or deep sea pirates, but they add that one guess is as good as another.

Reminder of Marie Celeste

They are inclined to the opinion that the two cases will go down in history with other unsolved mysteries of the seas, the greatest of which on record, they declare, is that of the American bark Marie Celeste, which was found off the Azores three months after she left Europe, in 1872, with all sails set, undamaged, in calm weather, but with the crew missing. A boarding party from the ship which sighted the bark found the table set for dinner, with hot coffee in the pot and everything aboard the ship in the same condition it would have been had the crew left only a few minutes before. On a sewing machine was a waist which the captain's wife had been making, while toys used by the captain's son were on the floor. In the forecastle was a table with playing cards distributed around as though members of the crew had leisurely left a game of cards.

Besides the captain, his wife and son, there were ten men in the ship's crew. The vessel was taken to port and again put in service, but about six years later she disappeared completely with her crew and no word has ever come from her.

Five Departments Working

WASHINGTON, June 21.—It was announced today that five different departments of the United States Government have started investigations of the reported mysterious disappearance of three United States coastal steamers and a schooner. According to reports in circulation here, the crew of one ship are believed to have been kidnapped and all trace of the other ships has been lost for over a month.

A theory put forward unofficially is that the vessels have been seized by revolutionary crews or the crews have been kidnapped and the ships taken to Russia to be used by the Bolshevik government. No evidence has been disclosed, however, to support this theory, and it is believed that it may develop that the ships have been disabled through storm or mishap and are unable to communicate with other ships or with port.

Secretary Hoover refused today to express his opinion of reports coming into his office. His subordinates, however, said they believed that representatives of the Bolshevik government had waylaid the merchantmen on the high seas and, except in the case of the Deering, seized vessels and carried them off to Russia. The Carroll A. Deering was sighted last January by the tug Rescue. The ship, a five-masted schooner of 3,000 tons, had all sails set and apparently was in distress. The tug was unable to get men on board, but reported that it had seen no one aboard. A few days later the Deering, unmanned, as the tug had found her, swept in and piled up on Diamond Shoals. No trace of the crew had been found.

The vessel was found on the beach in what the state department describes as "in such condition that there is every suspicion of foul play having occurred."

Suspicious Steamer

The department's summary also says that a short time after the Deering passed the lightship, a steamer, the name of which has not been ascertained, passed the light vessel and was asked to stop and take a message for forwarding, but no response was received to the "numerous attempts on the part of the master of the lightship to attract the vessel's attention."

The department's summary then says that on April 11, the following message was picked up in a bottle near Cape Hatteras:

"Deering captured by oil burning boat something like chaser, taking off everything, handcuffing crew. Crew hiding all over the ship. No chance to make escape. Finder please notify headquarters of Deering."

"The schooner carried a motor lifeboat and a dory," the state department's summary continues, "but neither of them has been picked up and no wreckage from them has been found. Most of the provisions, clothing and supplies of the vessel had been removed."

Bottle Message Genuine

PORTLAND, Maine, June 21.—The theory that pirates are afloat in the North Atlantic has found credence here. Belief in this explanation of the fate of the missing ships has grown with establishment of the fact that the message in a bottle picked up two months ago north of Cape Hatteras, purporting to explain the disappearance of the crew of the five-masted Bath schooner Carroll A. Deering, mystery ship of Diamond Shoals, was written by Henry Bates, of Islesboro, Maine, a member of the crew. A question of its genuineness was settled by handwriting experts, who compared it with letters written by Bates.

The unsigned note stated that the schooner had been captured by an oil-burning craft, something like a submarine chaser, the crew handcuffed and that everything was being taken off.

TWO SHIPS SPEEDING HERE FROM YOKOHAMA

Speculation as to Whether Wenatchee Will Overhaul Africa Maru — Left Two Days Behind Osaka Boat

The next vessel from the Orient to dock here will be the Osaka Shosen Kaisha steamship Africa Maru, not due however until late next week, June 29, to be exact. Messrs. Rithet Consolidated, Limited, local agents for the Japanese line, were advised yesterday that she would arrive on that date, having cleared from Yokohama June 16.

The Admiral liner Wenatchee sailed from the Japanese port two days behind her, and is expected to show up here about the same date. The latter ship has now had her engine trouble rectified, and Captain Guptil reports from sea that he is making fair progress and will be at Seattle June 28. This would bring the Wenatchee into port a day ahead of the Africa. Whether she will succeed in outspeeding the Nippon boat is a matter that will excite some interest locally.

Two Hundred Passengers

Some two hundred passengers comprise the complete list on the Africa, including 16 first class and 196 steerage. Of these, 47 are listed to leave the vessel at this port, two only being saloon travelers. The others aboard ship are for various United States points.

In the matter of cargo, close to 200 tons are on the ship for Vancouver, under 100 for Victoria, and the bulk for Seattle and Tacoma, some thousands in all.

Cargo Booking Heavy

Outward the Africa will load 500 tons of pulp and 800,000 feet of lumber on the British Columbia Mainland. The Osaka ships have not been finding it difficult to pick up British Columbia cargo lately, as is evidenced from the fact that the Hawaii Maru will take exactly the same quantity of pulp and 500,000 feet of lumber following her somewhat delayed arrival on this side. The Alabama Maru, due late in July, has 550,000 feet of timber waiting for her, and 500 tons of pulp as well. All three ships will also load up with spelter.

Steamer in Distress

HALIFAX, June 20.—The U. S. steamer Onoto is in distress with boiler trouble approximately 200 miles due south of Halifax.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian West. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The Height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water.

Equimalt—To find the depth at water on the sill of the Drydock at any tide, add 12.8 feet to the height of High Water as above given.

ALICE IS FULL SHIP ON SKAGWAY VOYAGE

Tourists Fill Cabins and Liquor Occupies Bulk of Cargo Space—Northern Rush Begins in Earnest

The biggest list of tourists to go North so far this season sailed on the Canadian Pacific steamer Princess Alice from Vancouver last Saturday night, 183 being northward bound on pleasure trips. Of the total, 107 were "round trippers," who will return with the vessel when she turns about at Skagway and heads south again. The rest were for Dawson, Atlin and other points along the Yukon River. The tourist rush is now believed to have begun in earnest, and from now on the Skagway boats will be carrying the maximum number of passengers that accommodation will allow. That the season as a whole will be one of the heaviest experienced in many years is the belief of transportation agents. Reservations have been very numerous, and inquiries multitudinous from points all over the continent.

Traffic in the main goes through to Alaska, but in many cases passage is booked only as far as Prince Rupert, and thence by the Grand Trunk road East.

Apart from the big list of tourists aboard the Alice, her present trip is notable in the fact that she carries one hundred and forty-three tons of wines and liquors as the major portion of her cargo. The liquid refreshment is billed to various parts of the northern British Columbia coast, and will be distributed over the counters of the Government liquor stores to the thirsty ones of the North.

SAYS SOCKEYE SALMON FACING EXTINCTION

Dr. Gilbert, Stanford University Scientist, Warns Fishing Interests—More Fish Must Reach Spawning Grounds

SEATTLE, June 21.—Warning that unless drastic protective measures are taken by the governments interested, the sockeye salmon fishery of Puget Sound is doomed to perish, and the humpback salmon fishery is in like peril, was sounded by Dr. C. H. Gilbert, of Stanford University, one of the corps of scientists employed by the United States Bureau of Fisheries, to an audience of commercial fisherman in the Chamber of Commerce assembly room this morning. His remarks featured a public hearing called by the state Fisheries Board to discuss the problems Puget Sound fisheries are facing.

Dr. Gilbert told the fishermen in effect that the sockeye fishery was on its last legs largely because a canned salmon cannot spawn. By lifting their gear and permitting a larger number of fish to reach the spawning grounds, he said, the life of the industry might be extended, but it never can be made what it once was.

Sockeye Industry Perishing

"The situation I am going to tell you of today is nothing new," said Dr. Gilbert. "We have been sitting by the bedside of the patient, prescribing bread pills and hoping that he would come out all right, for several years, but now it looks more like an autopsy than a deathbed scene. The sockeye industry is perishing, and is near an end unless something is done, and done quickly.

"The sockeye fishery was not profitable in the off years when it was in its prime. All the money was made in the big runs that came every fourth year. The big runs are a thing of the past. Don't cherish any delusions about that. The big run of 1917 was poor. The run of 1921 will be worse. It will, we who have investigated predict, be about the same as it has been heretofore in the off years.

Spawns in One Stream

The sockeye, the most valuable of the Puget Sound salmon, spawns in virtually only one stream—the Fraser River of British Columbia, and Dr. Gilbert ascribed the rapid decrease in the sockeye runs of recent years partly to the fact that in 1913 Hell Gate Canyon in that stream was dammed temporarily by a great slide of rock, caused by railroad building operations. This prevented most of the sockeyes from reaching the upper river spawning grounds that year.

Giving his views on the possibility of keeping the sockeye industry from utter destruction, Dr. Gilbert said more salmon must be permitted to reach the spawning grounds. Nature he said, had been prodigal and far more salmon were hatched than were needed to keep up the supply if ordinary precautions against overfishing had been taken in the past.

Worse Every Year

"But we have permitted the business to be operated in a most unbusinesslike way," he remarked, in closing. "The fishery has been conducted without heed to natural laws and gear destructive of fish has multiplied year by year, and will be multiplied further if inventive genius can do so."

Chairman Sims told in his opening address of the efforts the board had made to get a conference on sockeye protection with the Dominion fisheries' commission. The efforts had been more or less fruitless, he said, and no further negotiations looking to joint efforts to inaugurate protective measures would be taken this year. Joint action, he explained, was necessary because the Fraser River spawning grounds are British Columbia waters, though the fish on their way to them from the ocean are caught in American as well as British Columbia waters.

SOLDIERS' INSURANCE SHOWING INCREASE

OTTAWA, June 21.—Approximately $10,500,000 insurance is held by veterans under the provisions of the Returned Soldiers' Insurance Act. This represents about 2,600 policy holders.

During the past two weeks there has been a marked increase in the number of applications, chiefly for the smaller policies of $500 and $1,000 due apparently to amendments to the act made at the recent session of parliament.

ASIA CLEARS FRIDAY WITH 850 PASSENGERS

Dr. Ferguson, Finance Expert for Chinese Government, Will Be Passenger—Suwa Maru Sails Same Day

The Canadian Pacific Ocean Services liner Empress of Asia, clearing from Vancouver at nine o'clock Thursday night, will sail from this port for Yokohama, Hongkong and other Far Eastern points on Friday morning. Among the 850 passengers listed on the vessel will be Dr. Ferguson, financial advisor to the Republic of China. Of those booking passage by the steamer, 250 are first class, 60 second, 40 third, and 500 in the steerage. Migration of Chinese homewards continues as heavily as ever.

A second departure posted for Friday is that of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha steamship Suwa Maru. She has been loading on the Sound and at Vancouver. While here she will pick up some forty Chinese deportees, debarred from entering Canada in the guise of merchants by the immigration authorities on the arrival of the liner inbound from the Orient.

On Saturday the Osaka Shosen Kaisha steamship Manila Maru will sail.

TRIAL ABANDONED TO LET SHIP GET AWAY

VANCOUVER, June 21.—When counsel for T. E. Crombie, a member of the crew of the steamer Canadian Carrier, charged with being absent without leave, refused to consent to a certified copy of the ship's articles being put in as an exhibit, but insisted on the original being impounded, he "broke up the party."

It was explained that such a step meant that the vessel, which was about to leave port, would be tied up until the conclusion of the trial; but Mr. Bryce, counsel for Crombie, was adamant.

He cared nothing for the tie-up of shipping, but stood upon his legal rights.

After a consultation extending over a considerable period, during which other cases were disposed of, City Prosecutor McKay announced that the only alternative was to withdraw the charge, which was accordingly done. The prosecution of Crombie was not important enough to delay the ship.

ROYAL RECEPTION GIVEN FOOD SHIP

Russian Sailors Cheer as Vessel Passes Into Harbor—Dockers Unload Herring in Record Time

RIGA, June 21.—Honors such as usually are accorded to royalty or to officials of high rank, were given the Dutch steamer Alexander Polden when she arrived at Petrograd recently, says the newspaper Izvestia, of Moscow. The steamer brought the first large cargo of food that has entered the harbor for about three years, and as she passed Kronstadt she was saluted by the battleship Marat, while Russian sailors lined the decks and cheered.

With years of starvation behind them, dock workers by day and night shifts unloaded 5350 barrels of the ship's cargo of herring so swiftly that the next day twenty carloads of herring were dispatched to Moscow, while the remainder left for distribution in Petrograd.

Since the Alexander Polden made port two more steamers have arrived at Petrograd, carrying 17,000 barrels of herring, which were quickly unloaded.

STRIKER KILLED IN BRUSH WITH POLICE

PORTLAND, June 21.—John Darrell, a striking sailor, was shot dead and five others were in jail here today following an affray on the waterfront last night between police officers and striking marine workers, who were alleged to have attempted to ambush members of the crew of the tank steamer City of Reno, now in port.

The police declared their investigation following the shooting showed that eight strikers had formed the the gang which was lying in wait for City of Reno men. When the police surprised them the strikers ordered "hands up" and the officers opened fire. Darrell fell at the first fire. Search was being conducted today for another man who was thought to have been wounded and for one who escaped.

Numerous attacks on non-union members of vessels' crews have been made here in recent weeks.

EATING TOO MUCH

In every restaurant I go to I see men eating two or three times as much at lunch as they ought to eat if they had any regard for either good health or efficiency in work.

Most of them are men of mature age, and it is common experience that men of this age become sleepy after a full meal.

Here is a sample luncheon diet chart as seen in the restaurants:

Soup: More than twice the quantity that should be taken at that time of day.

Roast beef with Yorkshire pudding and two vegetables—again more than twice the sufficient quantity.

Some sort of pudding, generally a very heavy and indigestible mixture, and again twice too much.

Coffee followed by a cigar. Very often the coffee is taken with milk and thereby loses all its stimulating qualities. The cigar is decidedly a soporific drug.

When a man who has eaten such a lunch goes back to business he is in a better condition for a snooze than for work.

But to the solid food has to be added the drink. If a luncher takes beer with his meal he reduces his subsequent working power by at least 20 per cent.

In my experience I have found that the worst time of day to do business with a man is after lunch. Instead of being made cheerful and efficient by his meal he has become dull, disagreeable and irritable.

The fact is that the blood which should go to his brain is all taken up by the process of digestion.

Let anyone who has been used to a heavy meat lunch try how he feels after an omelette and black coffee, or a small piece of fish with bread and a single glass of wine. Instead of going back to his office heavy, dull, and bad tempered he will feel invigorated and fit for work.

The best rule for the business man is a substantial breakfast and a very light lunch.

For dinner he may eat what he likes up to the limit of his digestion.

But it should be remembered that we all eat too much when we can afford it, especially after we have passed middle age.—Physician, in Daily Mail.

NEW EXCHANGE PROVES USEFUL INNOVATION

Shipping Men Listen in on Far Distant Conversations at the Vancouver Shipping Organization

The new Merchants' Exchange at Vancouver is proving both an entertaining and useful institution. Inaugurated last week, shipping men gather daily to hear the latest bulletins from coast ports and ships at sea, and are unanimous that the exchange will be of great benefit to both maritime and commercial interests. A small committee started the undertaking last December and through its efforts brought it to its present stage.

About fifty members were at Monday's session, says The Province. In one corner Walter Walton was standing with the headdress of the wireless outfit on his head and rolling his eyes as he tried to catch the dots and dashes of a German message from a New Jersey station to Hamburg. Beside him Mr. Stewart was waiting, and when his turn came he heard a conversation by international code between Lyons, France, and an Atlantic station. Andy Graham, of the Pacific Steamship Company, came along in time to hear the clicks of the Admiral Line steamer Edmore 2,000 miles out in the Pacific. Back in a corner K. J. Burns, of the Canadian Robert Dollar Company, was closing a deal for a few million feet of lumber for China and San Pedro, while a half-dozen shipping brokers were clustered at the shipping board checking up the positions of ships they were interested in. Other members were looking over the Pacific Coast files.

To Encourage Research

PARIS, June 21.—Baron Edmond de Rothschild, administrator of the Eastern Railway Company of France, has given ten million francs to found a scientific institute to encourage students to consecrate their lives to the work of research, including the application of science to industry and agriculture.

VARIETY THEATRE Frances Marion, celebrated scenario writer, is now Mary Pickford's director. The first picture, "The Love Light," released by United Artists' Corporation, will be shown at the Variety Theatre today. Miss Marion has signed a long term contract with Miss Pickford to direct her in her forthcoming productions. The present photoplay is an original story by Miss Marion. Miss Marion will continue her activities as a scenario writer also. Since her wonderful success with Miss Pickford's photoplay, "The Foundling," which was adapted from Miss Marion's story, this clever young woman has risen to the very top of scenario writers in the motion picture business. She has been responsible for nearly a dozen of Miss Pickford's most successful stories, and in addition has had the opportunity of writing photoplays for Clara Kimball Young, Seesue Hayakawa, Alice Brady, Billie Burke and the late Olive Thomas. She also did "The World and His Wife," "The City of Dim Faces," "The Temple of Dust," "The Land of Promise," "Misleading Lady" and her splendid recent success, "Humoresque." Miss Marion started on her writing career as a newspaper woman in San Francisco, both as reporter and special writer on several of the San Francisco dailies. Later she came to New York to do similar work, and it was in New York that she first did her stories for the screen, following her having played a part in "The Girl From Yesterday."

ROYAL VICTORIA In reproducing on the screen the historical climax to his spectacular Western film, "Bob Hampton of Placer," Marshall Neilan enlisted the co-operation of the famous Blackfeet tribe. The Blackfeet are scattered over many miles on the reservation in Montana, and the task of getting a thousand of them together with the picturesque attire of the Indians as sported at massacres in the American frontier days proved no easy task. Through the co-operation of Bob Mills, whose former association with the Great Northern Railroad brought him in personal contact with the Indians and resulted in his becoming the friend of every member of the tribe, Mr. Neilan was enabled to bring about a gathering of the red men. The matter of rehearsing a thousand amateurs, many of whom have never seen a motion picture, much less acted in them, proved another big undertaking for the producer, particularly in view of the fact that these men were to appear in the most important scenes of the production. A real "find" was discovered by Mr. Neilan in the person of Chief Two-Guns-White-Calf, the Indian who was used as the model for the head appearing on the "buffalo" nickel. Chief White Calf portrays the role of Sitting Bull in "Bob Hampton of Placer," which has just been released by Associated First National Pictures, and which will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre again today. As an added attraction this week, T. Kelway has been engaged to sing two well-known ballads, "Down Texas Way" and "Western Land." A good comedy and weekly round out an excellent programme.

DOMINION THEATRE Enid Bennett's latest Paramount picture, which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre this week, deals with the question of whether or not romance is dead and buried. No doubt existed in the minds of Frank M. Dazey, the author, or Agnes Christine Johnstone, who wrote the continuity, for as soon as their work on the picture was completed they quietly slipped into a village church on Long Island and became man and wife! Miss Johnstone and Mr. Dazey met shortly after the prospective bridegroom came to California to take up his screen work. And now Mr. Dazey, in the presence of Mrs. Dazey, at least, finds it impossible to argue that romance is dead, for the nee Miss Johnstone is a most convincing argument to the contrary. "The Haunted House," the newest Buster Keaton comedy, is also shown. One would never imagine that so much laughter could be obtained from a house that was haunted until they see Buster Keaton in this rip roaring comedy special.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Gladys Walton, the diminutive Universal star to be seen here in "Rich Girl, Poor Girl," almost went on strike during the production of that picture, when Henry B. Harris, her director, informed her that some of the most humorous and important scenes in the picture would show her in a bath tub. In the story the poor girl, little Nora of the slums, takes a full course in soap and water as a part of transition into the silken-clad rich girl, Beatrice. The transition supplies some of the most amusing scenes ever put on the screen. Miss Walton finally was persuaded to realise the importance of the "Saturday night" scenes, and at last consented to pose for them, but specified that only women would be allowed on the set during bathroom scenes. At the Columbia for the last time today.

PRINCESS THEATRE Tonight the Mildred Page Players will present "Hello Bill," a musical farce with popular song hits as well as a number of good old favorites interpolated. This is a comedy of such well known merit that it hardly needs to be recommended to the public. "Hello Bill" is being produced in place of "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," the musical offering promised for this week, but owing to delay and misunderstandings at play bureaus, the manuscript did not arrive in time for production this week, but will, however, be given a full and careful production at some future time. Mr. Coots will appear as "Bill," and Miss Page as his sweetheart. The entire cast will be seen to advantage and "Hello Bill" promises to be a record breaker at the Princess this week. Tonight a cash prize of $5 will again be given in the guessing contest. "Hello Bill" tonight and the balance of the week, with the usual Saturday matinee. Little folks remember Captain Kidd's contest; see the chest in Peden Bros.' window, Yates Street, and send in your guess. $50 in the prize for the winner if guessed this week.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL AT METROPOLITAN

Young Ladies' Club of Church Give Programme Before Audience Which Filled Schoolroom

The ice cream social held in the schoolroom of the Metropolitan Methodist Church by the Young Women's Club last night proved sufficiently attractive to fill the hall, there being several hundred people present. There was an excellent programme of music and recitation provided, and, following its conclusion, ice cream and other refreshments were served by the ladies. Mr. J. H. Baker presided. In the club choruses the young ladies were dressed in old-fashioned costume. The programme was as follows:

ORPHANAGE RECEIVES MANY CONTRIBUTIONS

Annual Pound Party of Home, Held Yesterday Afternoon, Was Largely Attended—Contributions Acknowledged

The annual Pound Party of the Protestant Orphanage Home took place yesterday afternoon at the home, where a large number of visitors gathered and brought donations for the institution. The guests upon their arrival were met by Mrs. McTavish, president of the Ladies' Committee, and the members of the committee, who received the contributions in behalf of the home.

Gifts of groceries, jams, sugar and flour, books and cash donations, which latter totalled $250.47, were received during the course of the afternoon. The visitors were shown over the building, and afterwards entertained at tea. Several contributions from children who formerly resided at the home but have gone out and are making their own way in life were given yesterday, which shows the pleasant memories they hold for the institution.

Yesterday's donations were not so numerous as were received last year, and additional gifts of any description would be greatly welcomed. The ladies committee wish to express their gratitude to those who were so generous in responding to yesterday's appeal, by which a large amount of necessary articles were obtained. The orphaned children were present yesterday afternoon, and their conduct and courtesy were the occasion for more than one favorable comment from the visitors.

Cash Donations

SCOTCHIE MORALIZES ON CURRENT EVENTS

I appeal tae ye as raisonable folk, Hae we room fer compient, or hae we no'? Here's tha meedle o' June, an' the weather's no whit we're accustomed tae. There's a man wha kens a' about it (or thinks he does), says its the comet that's tae blame, an' if he's richt, it's no fair tae the comet. If yer no Scotch, ye wouldna hae been i' a kirk when the meenister was prayin' for rain, an' it came on a thunderstoorm i' the meedle o' his prayer, an' the rain peltin' on the roof. Ye canna stop a Scotch meenister, yince he's thairtit, an' this yin kept richt on wi' the addition, "I' moderation, guid Lard; i' moderation!"

Whit a lot o' funny things happins an' we jist miss the fun aa' think it no funny at a'. The Meyer, an' an Alderman stairt wrenglin' over a wurd or twa, an' anither yin jumps in an' see they air makin' the toon tha laughin' stock o' the country. Huroo; there's yin man se missin' tha fun. A wheen o' men stop wark cause the man wha employs them tells them he mun pay them less or go bum. They dinna see the funny side o' it, for if they diana wark they'l a' go bum the gether. Wha's the God o' Fun? He's the ainly yin can see the joke there.

The Leequer Control set up i' beeswax as leequer merchants, an' emmediately begins tae rub its eyes an' greet like a spoilt cheeld jist because it has tae pay duty like every yin else, an' here's where the fun comes in. The duty's no FOR them. Did ye notis? I writ that wee wurd FOR in big letters? Whit a lot o' fun there is i' that wee wurd. A goolieliel man tells ye he's going tae gie up his life tae wark "for" his country, an' he finds the hale country raither a big reecompense, so he takes as much o' it as he can. "For" means "give" at as selection an' the God o' Fun changes it roon arter the selection.

A man goes tae the front an' loses an arm, or a leg or twa, an' whin he comes back its ensinuated he's better off wi' less o' him requirin' support these hard times. He went tae ficht for his country, the wurd "for" meenin' tae protect, an' the grabbin' Johnny at hame saw his meestake an' changed the "for" while he was awa' and changed the meanin' again when he came back, an' sweeches it yin way or anither as it best suits himsel'. The God o' Fun laughs. "It's fun," he says. "Just fun. Twirl the wurd 'for' yin way, an' it deesna mean ower muckle (fenancially). Twest it anither way an' the fun is yours." The maimed sodjers expected jobs i' the leequer control FOR the honer o' their country, but the M.P.P.'s hae burst the honer bubble an' the gas has a' been sooked up an' the bladder dividit among their freens. Here's a man wi' a coot shed fu' o' whusky for his ain consumption, an' if it's no' for that, whit for is it there for? There's a gran' argyment' I could mak oot o' that, but the rain's stoppit, an' I'm awa oot tae hunt for the sun.

The Comfort Costs You Nothing

Usually you pay for comfort and style.

But not in Goodyear Cord Tires.

The comfort from resiliency of these fine tires is a bonus. On the basis of mileage alone they cost less to use. The saving in car-depreciation, the saving in gasoline, the easier riding, are all clear profit to you.

Ask any motorist who uses Goodyear Cords if you want to know what real comfort is. Look over the cars which have been run thousands of miles on Goodyear Cords and note their good mechanical condition.

Inquire regarding Goodyear Cord Tire mileage for economy's sake. Note the tremendous increase in sales of these tires—because they cost less to use.

Certainly truck-owners are not much influenced by comfort or looks in buying tires. But Goodyear Cords dominate the pneumatic truck tire field. That's because both truck and tires cost less in the end.

APPELDORN—On the 21st inst., at the family residence, 1314 Houlton Street, Otto Wilhem Appeldorn, aged 42 years, a native of Copenhagen, Denmark, and a resident of Canada for the past 18 years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter. The late Mr. Appeldorn was a returned soldier, leaving here with the 103rd, and served with marked distinction as interpreter in the secret service during the war.

Funeral service with full military honors will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Thomson Funeral Home, Rev. Capt. Campbell officiating. The deceased was a member of Alberni Lodge A.F.A.M.

POLSON—On June 21, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Annie Isabelle Polson, dearly beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Polson, of 750 Cloverdale Avenue. The deceased was born in Kildonan, Manitoba, a resident of this city for the past 16 years, and is survived by, besides her parents, one sister.

The remains will repose at the Sands Funeral Chapel until Thursday morning, the 23rd inst., when the casket will be removed to her home, 750 Cloverdale Avenue, where the funeral will take place at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

NOT IN THE DICTIONARY

THERE are not enough adjectives in the dictionary to describe the excellence of this fully modern five-room bungalow just placed with us for sale. It is true California style in appearance and plan, but built solid from the footings upwards of concrete blocks. The rooms, which are spacious, contain many built-in features and fine woodwork. The location, which is absolutely one of the best in Oak Bay, combines accessibility to cars, beach, schools, etc., with the utmost privacy. The house is so situated that it cannot be hemmed in by others.

If you have the ability to appreciate beauty of exterior appearance, excellence of plan, class of construction and state of repair, charm of garden and surroundings, see us, or allow our Mr. H. D. Patterson to come and see you, and we will arrange a private appointment to view.

The price of $4,500 will not perhaps attract the bargain hunter, but this place cannot be duplicated for twice the money. Let us prove this to you.

Differ on Dancing

CALGARY, June 21.—The Methodist ministers of Calgary are not prepared to take as strong a stand against dancing as the Manitoba conference has put up. Dr. C. E. Bland, of Wesley Methodist Church, this morning stated that he believed the Manitoba Conference was taking an extreme stand. "I would not say that every person who dances is sinning," said Dr. Bland. "But I do believe that dancing in itself is not in harmony with the highest spiritual life."

NANAIMO'S WELCOME TO SCOTTISH TEAM

Football Players From Old Land Were Hospitably Entertained—A Banquet and Dance Were Chief Features

NANAIMO, June 21.—Nanaimo turned out en masse yesterday to welcome the Scottish football team, which played here last night. The visitors were met upon their arrival from Vancouver by Mayor Busby and a delegation of Nanaimo soccer officials, a short speech of welcome being made by the Mayor. Upwards of a thousand citizens lined the streets to see the visitors, who paraded to the hotel headed by the Nanaimo Pipers' Band. Following the game last night, the visitors were entertained by the Nanaimo Burns' Club at a social. The concert programme was a lengthy one and of high order. Among the contributing artists were Mrs. Muir, Mrs. Brown, Miss Sampson, R. Husband, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Fulton, P. McAlpine, Mrs. Grayshon, Mr. Niven and Ald. Hart's Banjo Band. Mayor Busby occupied the chair.

After the concert the players were the guests of the club at a banquet at which the players gave short talks and thanked the club for the cordial welcome and splendid entertainment accorded them in Nanaimo. They declared they would long remember their visit to this city. After the banquet an informal dance was held, which was attended by a large number.

D. Nelson, chairman of the B. C. Provincial Football Association; Geo. Morton, secretary; Dan McNeill, president of the Dominion Football Association, and Dave Leith, former chairman of the B.C.P.F.A., came over with the team and accompanied them to Victoria.

NANAIMO NEWS NOTES

NANAIMO, June 21.—The Board of School Trustees met last night and accepted the tender of Mr. A. Rodger, of Vancouver, for the remodelling of the Agriculture Building into a High School, Mr. Rodger agreeing to do the work at a contract price of $21,350. The tenders for the plumbing and heating contracts were laid over for further consideration.

A convention of school trustees will be held today at Duncan, and Nanaimo will be represented by Trustees Hodgson and Dakin.

Members of the City Council met last night, but adjourned until next Monday, the regular meeting night. There was no business transacted.

A reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. Ewing last evening by the members of the Wallace Street Methodist Church. The lecture room was filled to capacity. Mr. M. W. Garman, chairman, in a few well-chosen remarks, welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Ewing to the pastorate of the church on behalf of the congregation. An excellent programme was rendered, which included short addresses by Rev. Ewing, Rev. P. Kelly, of the Indian Mission, Mr. Dickman, of the Chinese Mission, and Rev. Redland, of the Haliburton Street Methodist Church. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Branksten, Mrs. J. D. McKenzie, Mrs. A. Bradfield, Mrs. L. Jones, Mrs. W. Field, Mrs. Coveney and Mrs. Turner, while Mrs. E. G. Cavalsky favored the gathering with two elocutionary numbers. Following the programme the Ladies' Aid Society served refreshments and a half hour of pleasant social intercourse brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

PORT ALBERNI NEWS

PORT ALBERNI, June 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Landon C. Rose, of Chicago, were in the city this week. They are spending a holiday at Mrs. Wark's, at Sproat Lake. Mr. Rose has large timber holdings in the vicinity.

Clarence Hoard is in the city on business.

Great interest has been aroused over the football game being played in Nanaimo between the Scotch team and a picked team from around Nanaimo. Many of the Albernites motored to Nanaimo to witness the game. Some of the enthusiasts were Mr. P. Miles, sr., Fred Miles, Sandy Richardson and Jack Burke.

Mr. Clements, M. P., visited this district the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bogard left on Thursday for Vancouver. Mr. Bogard is on his way to Holland.

Mrs. Turner has returned home after spending a week in Victoria.

Mrs. Jones, Miss Hulda Larson, Miss Elizabeth Dent and Master Billy Dent are expected to arrive in the city this evening, and will spend the Summer holidays here.

GREEK NAVAL SHIPS BOMBARD INEBOLI

LONDON, June 20.—Bombardment of the town of Ineboli, on the Turkish Black Sea coast, against which the sublime Porte has protested to the Allied High Commissioners in Constantinople, followed the refusal of the Turks to surrender forty launches conveying war material, which, however, were destroyed following the Turkish evacuation, says an Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

In addition the Greeks silenced a Turkish battery by shell fire, suffering no casualties from the Turkish bombardment.

Tenders for Surrey Dredging

CLOVERDALE, B.C., June 20.—Four tenders were received by the Surrey dyking commissioners for the purpose of dredging the Serpentine River. The tender of Messrs. H. B. Sullivan & Co. of $34,000 was accepted. Extras will be paid for plus 10 per cent.

Striking Seaman Shot

BALTIMORE, Md., June 20.—C. E. Larson, a striking seaman, was shot and killed at seamen's headquarters tonight. Larsen was shot following a dispute over action taken by the union, which, by a vote of 632 to 168, defeated a proposal to end the strike and accept the wage cut.

SUGAR TEN CENTS POUND WHOLESALE

Strawberries Are Now Quoted at $2.25 a Crate Wholesale—Cheese Slightly Lower, But Eggs Advance

The wholesale price of sugar has declined further this morning, the new price to the retailer being $9.80. The sugar market has been steadily slipping for the past two weeks, and since the first of June the aggregate drop amounts to $1.55 a hundred.

Strawberries have slumped in price to $2.25 per crate, and many calls have been made for them for preserving, while the fact that sugar has taken a fall will be welcomed by the many housewives who are this week performing their annual fruit preserving operations.

Ontario cheese has been reduced in price, having dropped from ½c to 6c a pound in the four brands. Salmon Arm butter has fallen 1c. Winesap apples are now quoted at $3.50 to $3.75, having advanced 25c. The large size California grapefruit has risen 50c, while crates of gooseberries have fallen 10c.

Cherries are now arriving in larger quantities and are quoted at 30c for Bings and 25c for Royal Anne. There is no change in the prices of fish or vegetables from last market day.

Flour and feed remain stationary, there having been no noticeable change in their quotations in the past two weeks.

Pork, which dropped 6c last Saturday, has fallen another cent being now available at 16c. Beef has taken a downward turn, and is now quoted at 15c, half a cent lower than it was last week.

Eggs took a jump yesterday, after remaining at 31c for some time past. The amount of advance was 3c, they being now obtainable on the wholesale market at 34c.

STOCK MARKET SEES PARTIAL RECOVERY

Continued Decline of Past Two Days Is Checked Mainly by Shorts Covering—Canadian Pacific Among Leaders

NEW YORK, June 21.—The stock market's continued descent was checked today after a brief period of weakness, in which U. S. Steel again was conspicuous. Many leading shares recorded extreme recoveries of 1 to 3 points. Further easing of money rates and a growing conviction that the extended reaction had exceeded the bounds of caution, were among the factors which prompted hurried covering of short commitments.

There was little in the movement, however, to indicate more than tentative public participation. Commission houses reported a fair amount of odd lot buying, especially in representative issues.

Sales were 1,000,000 shares.

For the first time since October, 1919, call money opened and renewed at five per cent on the exchange. In the open market and on prime collateral, this quotation was shaded by a half to a full point.

Leaders of the rally comprised investment rails, such as Canadian Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Union Pacific and Reading; Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt, Royal Dutch and numerous junior oils; Crucible Steel, American and Baldwin Locomotive, International Harvester, General Electric, N.Y. Airbrake and Pressed Steel Car.

Shippings, motors and motor accessories, as well as food, leather and chemical specialties, were only moderately benefitted. A few favorites, notably American Woolen, Sears Roebuck and coppers, showed little, if any, recuperative powers.

All foreign exchanges were reactionary, sterling losing almost 3½, with declines of 3 to about 30 points in French and Belgian.

Breweries closed unchanged at 48½. Laurentide was down ½ point. The remaining papers were generally strong. The utilities were inclined to be steady, except Detroit and Toronto Railway, each of which lost 4 points.

The bond list was active and generally lower.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET

WINNIPEG, June 21.—The cash wheat market continued dull again today and very little grain changed hands. Exporters were taking the few odd cars on offer. The premiums remained unchanged at 11c, 6½c and 4c over the July for the three top grades. Business in cash oats continues steady, with a fair export being worked at unchanged spreads. The offerings were more liberal today. Barley, flax and rye cash markets continue dull.

The local wheat future market prices were lower, with July dropping to 172⅝ and October to 155¼ after the opening.

Some recovery was made, and July topped at 174⅝ and October 157⅝. The close was 1c lower to 1⅛c higher. The oats and barley markets were firm. Oats closed ⅛c to ⅜c higher; barley ⅛c lower to unchanged; flax ⅛c to ⅛c higher, and rye ⅛c lower.

CONFERENCE TALKS AGAINST DANCING

WINNIPEG, June 20.—"If dancing is to stay here, then the Methodist Church might as well shut up shop," said one member of the Manitoba Methodist conference during a discussion of mixed dancing today.

"Those who have the dance craze will never have the church craze," said Rev. Andrew Stewart, of Wesley College, during the debate of the social report. Mixed dancing in the schools was referred to as "a perversion of our educational system," "a curse and a menace," and "detrimental to the best citizenship." School teachers who, it was said, attend dances in country schools four or five times a week, were particularly under fire.

Tomorrow's session is the closing of the 18th annual conference.

A SIMPLE TRANSACTION

Most investors are looking forward to the time when improving financial conditions will restore the value of their securities.

There is a very sure and practical way, not only of restoring the depreciation which these securities have sustained, but of obtaining an even greater value.

Those holding Bonds drawing 4%, 5%, 5½% or 6% are invited to call on us.

Our June list of securities is ready for circulation.

Large and Small Alike

A trust company is not—as is sometimes assumed—an organization conducted for the sole benefit of capitalists.

It is a financial corporation to serve all the people in the efficient management of their securities, estates and trusts.

If your estate is small, there is all the more reason why it should be cared for by a reliable administrator such as The Royal Trust Company.
